HARDING DECLINES HONOR OF WARSHIP

Allies Agree to Divide Turkey

FRANCE, BRITAIN AND ITALY WILL MAINTAIN ORDER, RUN COUNTRY

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Nov. 5.—France, Great Britain and Italy have signed a tripartite agreement in which they agree to support one another in maintaining their spheres of influence in Turkey. The limits of the areas in which the respective special interests of France and Italy are recognized are defined by the same document.

This agreement, it developed today, was signed at Sevres, August 10, the day the public ceremonial of the signing of the peace treaty with Turkey took place. Although the agreement, it is explained, is not considered a secret one, it nevertheless has never been made public until now, after a lapse of nearly three months since the signing. Under its own terms the document was to come into force and be published at the time the Turkish peace treaty should go into effect. This date is still an uncertainty.

SPHERES OF INFLUENCE.

In connection with examination of the text of the agreement now available, attention is being called here to the fact that while the treaty defines the spheres of influence of France and Italy—respectively the special interests of France in Cilicia and the western part of Kurdistan, bordering on Syria, and of Italy in Southern Anatolia—the British spheres of influence are not only undefined but not mentioned. This has raised the question if the agreement is susceptible of the interpretation that the British interest may be said to extend to any or all the remaining parts of the Turkish empire.

It is noted also, that while the agreement does not take the form of an alliance, it pledges the contracting powers to "render diplomatic support to each other in obtaining their respective positions in the areas in which their interests are recognized."

BAGDAD EXPLOITATION.

One section of the document provides for the exploitation of the Bagdad railway by a company in which British, French and Italian capital are equally interested. It gives the exploitation of the Heraclea coal mines, between Konieh and Adana, to Italy.

Article ten of the agreement provides that nothing contained in it shall prejudice the rights of nationals of non-signatory states to free access to the various areas for commercial and economic purposes.

PREAMBLE OF DOCUMENT.

The preamble of the document reads:

"Being anxious to help Turkey develop her resources and to avoid the international rivalries which have obstructed these objects in the past and being desirous to meet the request of the Turkish government that it receive necessary assistance in the reorganisation of justice, the finances, the gendarmerie and the police, in the protection of religious, racial and linguistic minorities and the economic development of the country; considering that the autonomy or eventual independence of Kurdistan has been recognized by them and that it is desirable with a view to facilitating the development of that country and make provisions for any assistance it may require in its administration and to avoid international rivalries in such matters; recognising the respective special interests of Italy in Southern Anatolia and of France in Cilicia and the western part of Kurdistan bordering on Syria, up to Jezire-Ibn-Omar, as these areas are hereafter defined, the British, Italian and French governments have agreed upon the following:

EQUALITY OF POWERS.

"Article I.—There shall be equality in Turkey between the contracting powers in the composition of all international commissions whether existing or to be established, charged with the organization and supervision of the different public services and for insuring the protection of racial, religious and linguistic minorities. However, in the event the Turkish government of Kurdistan is desirous of obtaining external assistance in the local administration or policing of areas in which the special powers undertake not to dispute the preferred claim of the power whose special interests in such area are recognized

FOOD CRISIS IN RUSSIA.

Lenine Admits Seriousness; Red Army in Dire Need of Supplies.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Nikolai Lenine, Russian Bolshevik Premier, frankly admits the seriousness of the food situation in Russia. A Central News dispatch from Copenhagen quotes him as writing in a Russian newspaper as follows:

"Soviet Russia never before has experienced such a food crisis. Moscow and other cities are paralyzed by famine and the army is becoming famished.

"It is necessary for us to use all means in our power to enforce delivery of foodstuffs by the peasantry."

In the same paper, Leon Trotsky, Minister of War and Marine, is quoted as saying:

"We want to see rebellions in other countries, so as to render an attack upon our country impossible. The Red Army is in dire need of food and clothing. If these needs are not supplied immediately all our efforts will be futile.

SUCCESSFUL RETREAT.

New York Delves Into History for Evidence of Title.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Records of land grants made by Peter Stuyvesant before the end of the Dutch regime in New York, were presented by the city today in its action to prove title to a stretch of land along the Hudson River side of Manhattan Island, now occupied as a right of way by the New York Central Railroad.

The strip of land in litigation, extending about eight miles from Seventy-second street to Spuyten Duyvil, counsel for the city asserts, is city property under provisions of the Dongan charter, vesting the city with title to all vacant, unpatented and unappropriated land.

The trial was resumed today in State Supreme Court, after an extended recess in which counsel for both sides in the controversy delved into records of more than 200 years ago for evidence.

BRITISH GENERAL TO HEAD ALLIES IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Nov. 5.—A convention has been concluded between France and Great Britain to govern the military relations of the Allies at Constantinople, it was announced today. The governments of the two countries have reached an agreement on principles relating to a number of points for execution of the Turkish peace treaty, the announcement added.

It was agreed that a British general should have the presidency of the military commission of control and eventually take command of the Allied forces in Constantinople for approximately two years after Turkey's ratification of the peace treaty. The presidency of the financial commission will be given to a French official at first and Italy will have the chairmanship of the railroad commission.

UTAH WOMAN IS LOST IN HILLS.

Flees from Train Barefooted and Scantily Clad and Disappears.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WINNEMUCCA (Nev.) Nov. 5.—Barefooted and scantily clad, Miss Amelia Holm, 28 years old, ran from a Western Pacific train at Campus station, ten miles east of Battle Mountain, Wednesday night, it became known here today. Posses which have been searching day and night for the woman followed her trail two miles, where it disappeared in a river bottom. Miss Holm is said to have been returning from a visit in Oakland, Cal., to her home in Salt Lake City.

GOVERNOR IS SUICIDE.

Naval Commander of Samoa Shot and Killed Self, is Report.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Commander J. Terhune, naval governor of Samoa, shot and killed himself at noon November 3, said a dispatch received today at the Navy Department.

WAS UNDER CHARGES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

HONOLULU (T. H.) Nov. 5.—Advices from Samoa received today indicate that Commander J. Warren J. Terhune, naval governor of American Samoa, ended his life November 3, three days before the battleship Kansas was due to arrive with a naval board of inquiry sent from Washington to investigate charges against Terhune's administration.

The governor's body was found in the bathroom of the executive mansion with a bullet wound through the heart, according to the dispatch from Samoa.

Rear-Admiral Charles F. Hughes, aboard the U.S.S. Kansas, due at Samoa the day following Gov. Terhune's death, was sent from Washington as the head of a court of inquiry. Charges against Gov. Terhune were made to President Wilson and the Navy Department by natives of Samoa as well as by Lieut.-Commander Creed H. Buocher, who served four months as captain of the yard under Gov. Terhune.

The charges alleged mistreatment of natives and misappropriation of

It was stated at Obregon's headquarters today that it was believed this would be a "good move in the right direction and conducive of a better understanding."

JAPAN SEES A WAY OUT.

Little Pessimism is Shown.

Protest Against California Anti-Alien Law Will be Filed Soon.

Oakland Man Plans to Test Measure by Leasing Property to Jap.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

TOKIO, Nov. 5.—The Asahi today explained the Republican victory in the Presidential elections in the United States by dislike on the part of Americans for President Wilson's "despotic methods" and the League of Nations' excessive obligations, which that newspaper says are not in harmony with the American spirit.

The newspaper expresses the belief that what it terms the Republican tendency toward centralisation will facilitate a settlement of the California problem better than the "subservience" of the Democrats to State rights."

FEARS HIGH TARIFFS.

The Hochi Shimbun says the outstanding feature of the Republican party, in its stand on Americanism, which the paper declares is a sort of imperialism, Mr. Harding's victory, the Hochi asserts, means that this imperialism will pervade the policy of the United States and extend her influence to the Orient. The newspaper says it fears American tariff increases would injure Japan.

The Touezu Choho says the election result shows that a majority of Americans dislike the League of Nations and thus a permanent peace becomes an empty dream and armaments must continue. The paper says it thinks the choice of a journalist indicates that the American people love a President who is close to the commonality.

The Kokumin Shimbun welcomes the victory of Mr. Harding. It says a Republican President has always understood Japan well and expects that the traditional policy of cooperation will be revived.

CO-OPERATION ASSURED.

The Choco Shimbun says that when the Republicans were in power they co-operated with Japan regarding China. It declares the Republicans' reappearance is like that of an old friend, but asserts there is no difference between the Democrats and Republicans in that both desire to maintain Japan's friendship.

The Osaka Asahi Shimbun, of Osaka asks who will be the American Secretary of State. From Japan's viewpoint, it declares, it would be undesirable to have an imperialist like Seward or Blaine. The newspaper expresses the opinion that America's abundance of wealth will lead to a positive policy in the Orient, which will cause Japan anxiety.

WILL MAKE PROTEST.

When confirmation has been received that the people of California have voted in favor of the proposed land law in that State, Japan will lodge a protest in Washington, pointing out the measure conflicts with Japanese treaty rights, according to the Yoruz Choho, an independent organ, which quoted a foreign office official to this effect.

Formal negotiations, the newspaper says, will follow, and an agreement permanently removing the cause of the trouble.

WILL TEST MEASURE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Announcement that he intended to test the antialien property measure voted by the State on Tuesday, by leasing a parcel of land to a Japanese after the law has been proclaimed by the Secretary of State, was made here today by John P. Irish, of Oakland, who wrote the ballot argument against the law.

Irish said he would lease some of his property in the vicinity of Stockton, have the lease recorded, and then notify the Attorney-General of his action.

JAPS MEET SOON.

The executive committee of the Japanese Association of America, representing 40,000 Japanese in the West, is to meet here Monday, November 15, to determine what course the association shall follow as the result of the new antialien property law in California, K. Kanzaki, secretary of the association, announced here today. It was not expected that the question of suspending the law through injunction would be formally presented to the committee, although this matter is being informally discussed by committee members, Kanzaki said.

The association represents affiliated Japanese organizations in Utah, Colorado, Nevada and all but nine counties in California.

"The committee will consider advising the members of the association what to do in regard to the law," Kanzaki said. "I do not ex-

MORE GRAFT DISCLOSED.

Go-Between is Told to Get Bail.

Bench Warrants Are Issued; Union Leader Was "King," Witnesses State.

Nation-Wide Plot Probable; Country "In the Grip" of Stonecutters.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Forces of the law scored their first point today in the fight against the alleged "building trust," when bench warrants were issued for the arrest of three persons indicted by the grand jury investigating the scandal. Officers immediately searched the city and the initial arrests were looked for soon.

George Backer, millionaire builder and alleged "go-between" for the contractors and laborers, was directed to be present tomorrow morning with a bail of $25,000. He had appeared at Criminal Courts building with his counsel. It was understood an indictment for perjury had been sought against him.

"Will you have $25,000 bail ready when you appear here tomorrow morning?" Backer was asked by the reporters.

"Yes, $250,000, if they ask it," he replied.

TAKING PRECAUTIONS.

When Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the investigating committee, heard the name of Backer mentioned by newspaper men, following refusals of court officials to make public the names of those indicted by the grand jury, he said:

"Wait a minute. Who gave that out? We will see that greater precautions are taken the next time."

He then announced Backer was in custody of his counsel.

At Criminal Courts Building his counsel conferred with Mr. Untermyer and Stanley Richter and Robert S. Johnstone, who have been directing presentation of evidence before the grand jury. It was at the conclusion of this conference that Backer's counsel was told to appear with $25,000 bond.

BRINDELL WAS "KING."

Robert P. Brindell, president of the Building Trades Council, who was referred to in testimony of contractors as "king" in the alleged "trust," also went to the Criminal Courts Building with his counsel after it had become known bench warrants had been issued.

He asked if he had been indicted, and the clerk of the court referred him to Messrs. Richter and Johnstone. Then his counsel conferred with Asst. Dist.-Atty. Johnstone and left the building with his client.

While the grand jury launched its offensive against the alleged trust, its services of information supply, and its intelligence department continued active.

The Joint Legislative Committee drilled deeper into the well of information held by members of the Building Trades Council and participants in the "code of practices."

Possibility that exposes revealing a country-wide combination in control of the building industry were in the offing at the dramatic scene before the committee also seemed strong.

One witness testified that the limestone business of the United States was tight "in the grip of the National Association of Stone Cutters."

HETTRICK MISSING.

Shortly after this Senator Calder, who possesses nation-wide subpoena powers as chairman of the Senate committee on housing, was called into the inquiry. He was informed that John T. Hettrick, guiding hand in the "code of practice" system, said to regulate competition in New York, had fled the city.

Walking delegates of the "Building Trust" also have deserted their usual habitats and men armed with subpoenas have failed to find them, said Samuel Untermyer.

The city of New York, which last week rescinded millions in contracts for a new Courthouse, showed signs of fearing the city had been fleeced in other construction jobs. Borough presidents and department heads were instructed to begin scrutinizing every contract let during the past eighteen months and the board of estimate and apportionment postponed consideration for a week of new contracts for removal of snow this winter.

Robert P. Brindell was pictured as a domineering "king" by his associates in the Building Trades Council in testifying before the committee. They told, each of them, of his insistent demands for large sums of money before he would give them a contract or wreck or erect a building, and allow the work to proceed without strikes.

He wanted $25,000 tribute on a Broadway skyscraper, saying he

PRESIDENT-ELECT WILL TAKE VACATION TRIP AS A PRIVATE CITIZEN

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MARION (O.) Nov. 5.—President-elect Harding already has begun fulfillment of his campaign promise to consult the nation's leading minds with regard to a new association of nations, and he hopes that by the time of his inauguration next March he will have laid the groundwork of a plan behind which the sentiment of the nation can unite.

A list of those to be consulted first has been drawn up and invitations are going forward to several to come to Marion at the conclusion of the month's vacation trip which is to be started by the President-elect tomorrow morning.

Both Republicans and Democrats are to present their views in individual and personal talks with Mr. Harding during the winter months, but he does not contemplate for the present at least any general assemblage of his advisers for round table discussion.

NAMES NOT PUBLIC.

The names of those already invited have not been made public, but it was announced from the President-elect's office tonight that men and women who have been eminent in the discussion of our foreign relations may be up the list. Additions will be made during Mr. Harding's vacation trip, it was added, although no consideration will be given by him during that period to the choice of a Cabinet. The announcement followed a long conference between Senator Harding and Will H. Hays.

The objective of the Senator's vacation trip is Point Isabel, Tex. One of his close campaign advisers, Harry M. Daugherty, will accompany him.

Today Mr. Harding declined an offer of President Wilson to provide him with a battleship for the voyage to the Panama Canal Zone which is to follow a twelve days' stay at Point Isabel. In response to a telegram from Secretary Daniels conveying the President's proposal, the President-elect wired that he was thankful, but already had closed an agreement to make the trip on a passenger steamer.

It was said at Harding headquarters tonight that a hitch over the sailing schedule had been adjusted and that a proposal to have the liner go out of its regular course to pick up the party at Galveston, had been abandoned. Under the present plan the departure will be made from New Orleans, to which point the Senator and Mrs. Harding and their guests will go from Point Isabel by rail.

That the plan for conference on an association of nations already was taking form was revealed in this announcement from Mr. Harding's office:

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE.

"Senator Harding let it be known today that he is sending out a number of requests for personal and very informal conferences, with men and women who have been eminent in the discussion of our foreign relations. These conferences will take place upon his return to Marion in December, and will be individual and personal, with the main purpose of learning what policy may enlist united support.

"Senator Harding means to avoid any unseemly anticipation, but he feels it wholly becoming to get the expression entirely free from cam-

BUSINESS IS GOING WELL, SAYS ARMOUR

Packer Declares Trade in South America in Very Satisfactory Condition.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Interviews attributed to an investigator of Armour & Co., who recently returned from South America, in which he painted a gloomy picture of the future of the South American branches of the Big Five packers, were repudiated today by J. Ogden Armour, who said the investigator was not in a position to know the facts.

"While naturally the South American business is not so profitable, nor so large in volume as it was during the war, it is in a very satisfactory condition," Mr. Armour said. "We have had to take some inventory losses, but the business as a whole has shown and is now showing quite satisfactory results; in fact, Europe must get the big end of its beef supply from South America and I see no reason why it should not continue to be a good business, as it is not only fundamentally sound but a necessary one."

SENATORS SEEK COAL PROFITEERS' SCALPS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Senators Calder and Edge, conservative Republican members of the Committee on Reconstruction, announced today, in a joint statement that they would press a bill for the nationalization of the coal industry to the greatest extent possible under the Constitution, unless the price of coal dropped radically and profiteering coal interests reform themselves.

TO ASCERTAIN AUTHORITY.

Judge Seeks to Find Palmer's Power to Suppress Evidence.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Federal Judge Anderson declared in United States District Court today that the investigation to be made by him next Monday of Atty.-Gen. Palmer's connection with the soft-coal conspiracy cases would be for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Attorney-General can make an agreement to suppress a portion of the government's evidence.

The statement apparently was prompted by Washington dispatches quoting Mr. Palmer as saying he was unable to understand what Judge Anderson is proposing to investigate. Mr. Palmer's statement was made last night, after he had received notice of the investigation sent from here at Judge Anderson's direction.

The court's explanatory statement was made today when attorneys in a civil case asked that it be set for early hearing. Declaring he was unable at present to set a date for the other cases because of the pending coal cases, Judge Anderson said:

GOING TO FIND OUT.

"I am engaged in a controversy with the government. I have a case set for next Monday, the coal conspiracy cases. I am going to find out then when the Attorney-General can make an agreement, in a case where the grand jury has returned an indictment, to suppress a portion of the evidence on the part of the government in the trial of that indictment."

Mr. Palmer has said that an agreement was made in Judge Anderson's presence not to use certain evidence if the miners complied with the court's order directing mine union officials to call off the coal strike a year ago, and court officials here expected that the investigation next Monday would include inquiry into this phase and also reveal what agreement was made with the miners.

PALMER ASKS CONFERENCE.

The Attorney-General, it was learned here today, has asked Dist.-Atty. Van Nuys, Special Prosecutor L. Ert Slack and former Special Prosecutor Simms to go to Washington immediately for a conference regarding the investigation

TUMULTY DENIES HE MEDDLED.

Says He Did Not Make Any Suggestions During the Recent Coal Crisis.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, issued a formal statement today denying that he had at any time made any suggestions to members of the Interstate Commerce Commission with reference to shipments of coal during the fuel crisis last summer.

Franklin T. Miller, adviser to the Senate Reconstruction Committee, was reported to have told that committee yesterday in New York that Mr. Tumulty had been the chief director of operations during the worst days of the coal crisis. Mr. Miller was quoted as having testified that Mr. Tumulty had held daily conferences with officials of the National Coal Association and the railroads and that decisions as to diversion of coal were made at those conferences.

WAS NO POLICY.

"There was no policy at any time in the matter of priority shipments of coal," said Mr. Tumulty's statement. "I acted upon the representations made to the President, which came from Republican governors from all parts of the country. Mr. Alvord, acting for Judge Payne, Director-General of Railroads, advised the President with reference to the handling of this difficult situation. I simply acted to bring the information which reached the White House to the attention of Mr. Alvord, without specific recommendation of any kind to him or to the Interstate Commerce Commission. I never at any time conferred with or made suggestion to the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission with reference to shipments of coal."

Immense Deficit in Prospect for German Treasury

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Germany's treasury faces a deficit of approximately 70,000,000,000 marks, Dr. Karl Helfferich, former vice-Chancellor, declared in the Reichstag here today. He said that in the face of expenditures amounting to 100,000,000,000 marks, the receipts would total 30,000,000,000.

WOOD MAY BE WAR CHIEF.

Noted Soldier is Harding's Pick for Post; Roosevelt and Hoover Possibilities.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Henry Cabot Lodge, Gen. Leonard Wood, Theodore Roosevelt and Herbert Hoover are regarded as the leading possibilities for membership in the Harding Cabinet by Republican leaders who are closely associated with the President-elect.

It is understood that Senator Harding has not decided whom he will invite to accept places in his Cabinet, with one exception. That exception is Gen. Wood, who is believed to have been asked to become Secretary of War.

The selection of a Secretary of State is bound up with formulation of the Harding policy on foreign affairs, particularly with reference to the peace treaty and the League of Nations. It is not likely that the President-elect will choose the premier of his administration until he has mapped his course definitely on the League question, and he will not do that until he has consulted with both the pro-League Republicans and the bitter enders.

MANY WANT ROOT.

Republicans who are in favor of a League of Nations, modified to the extent of the Lodge reservations, will exert their influence with the President-elect in behalf of the selection of Elihu Root as Secretary of State. Mr. Root favors a League, the chief features of which would be the maintenance of an international court of justice, such as he helped to plan at The Hague last summer.

From the viewpoint of qualification for the post, Mr. Root is the logical choice. He is widely regarded as the "brains of the Republican

FEW DISTRICTS STILL IN DOUBT.

Republicans May Add to Record Majority.

Clouse Leads Democratic Opponent in Tennessee.

G.O.P. Has Made Net Gain of 58 in House.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Congressional elections in three districts tonight had not been officially reported and with the uncertain trend that has taken place in the Fourth and Eighth districts in Tennessee, the Republicans still have a chance of adding to their record majority in the new House. The Twenty-third New York District, in which six election districts are to be heard from, shows the Republican candidate leading by approximately 2000. The district at present is represented by Richard F. McKinley (Dem.) and his defeat is not conceded by the Democrats, as the missing districts are regarded as Democratic strongholds.

The other districts remaining in doubt are the Eighth of Minnesota and the Fifth of Missouri.

CLOUSE LEADS HULL.

Late returns today from Tennessee indicated that W. F. Clouse (Rep.) was leading Representative Cordell Hull by less than 300 in the Fourth District, but Republican leaders were confident that the complete returns would show a plurality of at least 1000 for Clouse. In the Eighth District, incomplete returns gave L. A. Scott (Rep.) a small lead over Gordon Browning (Dem.) The election of Hull and Browning was indicated in the early returns.

In the districts that have definitely reported, the Republicans have elected 290 and the Democrats 138, including the two Tennessee seats, which tonight were placed in the doubtful column. The others elected include one Socialist, one independent, one Prohibitionist and one Independent Republican. Thus the Republicans with 290 members as compared with 222 in the present Congress, have made a net gain of fifty-eight members by invading many Democratic districts and filling some vacancies, while the Democrats, with 138 members as compared with 190 in the present Congress have suffered a loss of fifty-two. The miscellaneous representation of four is the same numerically as before.

Yesterday's count in Oklahoma assured the nation's new women voters one representative in the lower house—Miss Alice Robertson of Muskogee, a farmer and restaurant owner. Miss Robertson was an anti-suffragist prior to the adoption of the Nineteenth Amendment and made the Congressional race "to see if the men meant it" when they "thrust the vote on us."

VOTE IN OREGON.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—Senator Harding's lead over Gov. Cox in Oregon exceeds 40,000, according to returns from 1586 precincts out of 1693 in the State. The totals were Harding, 138,541; Cox, 75,969.

Robert N. Stanfield's lead for the United States Senatorship was more than 16,000. Figures from 1589 precincts give Stanfield, 111,994; Chamberlain, 95,755.

SWEEPING G.O.P. VICTORY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Washington's next Legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican, returns from every county in the State, compiled at noon today, revealed. Of the 119 seats in the House of Representatives, 106 will be filled by Republicans, and forty of the forty-two Senators will be Republicans. Two Farmer-Labor candidates and one Democrat were elected to the House. One Democrat holds over for the Senate and one Farmer-Labor candidate was elected to that body.

SOUTH DAKOTA RESULTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SIOUX FALLS (S. D.) Nov. 5.—Harding has a plurality of 31,054; Norbeck (Rep.) for United States Senator a plurality of 23,459, and McMaster (Rep.) for Governor, a plurality of 27,022, according to reports from forty-three counties of sixty-nine in South Dakota.

Tom Ayres, Nonpartisan League candidate for United States Senator, polled 12,417 of the votes so far counted, as against 15,641 of U. S. G. Cherry (Dem.) and 39,000 for Peter Norbeck (Rep.)

figured on receiving $1000 a floor, one witness declared.

Brindell has been "riding on a high horse and browbeating contractors and housewreckers," said Albert A. Volk, head of a large demolition firm that paid tribute to the "king."

Because of the large mass of evidence and the necessity of increasing the legal and clerical forces, Mr. Untermyer asked the committee to adjourn until next Thursday morning. This was done.

Walter Melton, who yesterday denied on the stand that he had paid Brindell $2500 in connection with a wrecking contract, today admitted paying the money. He declared his testimony yesterday had been given because of threats to drive him out of business which, he said, had been made over the telephone by Joseph Moran, one of Brindell's aides.

Passports for Yankees Abroad Not to be Vised.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—American citizens who have gone abroad without American passports, but with documents issued by representatives of the countries of their original allegiance, have not necessarily lost their American citizenship, but they have gravely compromised their loyalty and allegiance to the United States, said a statement made public today by the State Department.

"Officers of the United States government abroad, cannot, and will not vise their foreign passports," the statement said, "because such a vise would be a tacit recognition of the holder of the passport as a citizen or subject of the country which had issued it. It has also been for some time, the general practice of the Department to decline to issue passports for the return to this country, of American citizens, who have accepted the passport of a foreign government to go abroad from the United States."

ENGLAND REMOVES COAL RESTRICTIONS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—American ships will no longer have to take aboard at home ports sufficient coal to make the round trip to England.

It was learned today at the British Embassy that as a result of the settlement of the coal strike in England the restrictions imposed on the supply of bunker coal had been removed.

GOMPERS RAVES OVER ELECTION.

Declares It is Great Plunge Toward Reaction.

But Believes Democracy Will Right Self in Time.

Attempts to Alibi Labor's Nonpartisan Policy.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared today in his first statement on the outcome of Tuesday's elections that "every forward looking man and woman must feel some deep regret because of the great plunge towards reaction."

WILL RIGHT SELF.

"But democracy will right itself at the proper time," said Mr. Gompers, "and meanwhile the actual tabulation of results in Congress, the law-making body, shows a definite and specified gain for all that makes for progress and responds to the needs of our time."

Mr. Gompers asserted that every man in the House "whose record of service was perfect" had been re-elected, and added that the "new Congress would show an increased number of men who hold union cards."

POLICY JUSTIFIED.

The nonpartisan political policy of the Labor Federation, Mr. Gompers continued, "is more completely justified than ever and the futility of separate party action more conclusively demonstrated."

Referring to the Congressional elections Mr. Gompers said incomplete checking already showed "that fifty Congressmen who were inconsiderate and hostile have been defeated."

IMPRESSIVE FEATURE.

"This is one of the most impressive features of the entire election," said he. "Fifty time servers have been beaten.

"Against these fifty the working people have elected from fifty-five to sixty men whose records show fair and considerate service. This represents a clear gain for integrity in government."

Mr. Gompers claimed the election to Congress of at least fifteen union men and said it was probable that the final counting would show "more than twenty, possibly twenty-five."

PRIMARY RESULTS.

The nonpartisan campaign of the American Federation of Labor," the veteran leader continued, "was primarily and most effectively a campaign in Congressional districts. Its results were gained in the primaries and in the election. These results will serve as a constant reminder to all servants of special privilege and the ever-present and always impressive fact will be before the new Congress that fifty of the unfaithful and the hostile were defeated by the organized workers of our republic.

RECOGNIZES STRUGGLE.

"A notable American has said, 'I would rather be right than be President.' To be engaged in a righteous cause, to fight for freedom, for justice, for justice and human brotherhood, is of greater concern to the human family than is a passing success. The labor movement of America recognized the tremendous struggle of the masses of people in all history to obtain the right and the setbacks they have often had to endure and the sacrifices they have had to make, decade by decade, cycle by cycle, and in the march and the trend of the cause of freedom of America, forward, onward and upward.

"Shortly the names of the men who have been fair and just and who have been re-elected and those who have been unfair and antagonistic and defeated, will be published by the American Federation of Labor."

POSTSCRIPT BY SAM.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Samuel Gompers, on arriving in New York from Washington late today, added the following to the statement he made at the capital:

"Senator Harding has been elected President of the United States. He will be just as much my President as that of any other citizen of our country. In any way that the American labor movement, including myself, can be of service to him, of course, it will be our duty and pleasure."

WOOD MAY BE WAR SECRETARY

party," and he is indisputably one of the foremost world statesmen of the age. He drafted the League of Nations plank in the Republican platform, though it was revised in some particulars by the Resolutions Committee.

Bitter opposition to the selection of Mr. Root, however, has developed already among the irreconcilables headed by Senators Johnson and Borah. Allied with them are western Progressives who look upon Mr. Root as a reactionary who is the incarnation of Wall-street influence, and the drys, who never forgave him for arguing the unconstitutionality of the prohibition amendment before the Supreme Court. Some Republicans are of the opinion that Harding does not naturally incline to the choice of Root, with whom, it is pointed out, the candidate had no contact in the campaign owing to differences on the League question.

BITTER-ENDERS' CHOICE.

The favorite of the bitter-enders is Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, who, like Mr. Root, has been a Secretary of State. Mr. Knox favors a world court without a League and he consistently opposed the treaty, either with or without reservations. He was the author of the move to make peace with Germany by resolution. The irreconcilables interpret the overwhelming repudiation of Wilson at the polls as evidence of the aversion of the people to any League of Nations and contend that the selection of Knox would be in harmony with the popular will. Some of the bitter-enders advocate the appointment of George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia.

Occupying a middle ground between the pro-Leaguers and the irreconcilables is Senator Lodge, who would be acceptable to all save the extremists in both camps. Hence he is being suggested as a logical compromise likely to commend itself to Senator Harding, whose object is to conciliate these divergent groups.

Theodore Roosevelt might be given a place in the Cabinet not only because of his ability, but with the view of recognizing the Progressive wing of the party and the soldiers of the World War. He would be qualified conspicuously to direct the Americanisation work which the American Legion desires to further. Herbert Hoover is also regarded as likely to be one of the advisers on economic questions with whom the President-elect will seek to surround himself. He might be made Secretary of Labor to work out the strike-prevention scheme framed by the commission of which he was chairman. Medill McCormick will introduce a bill to create a Department of Public Welfare and would become the logical choice for first head of the Department. Former Senator New of Indiana may be Postmaster-General, former Senator Weeks of Massachusetts, Secretary of the Navy, and former Senator Sutherland of Utah Attorney-General.

If a woman should be appointed to the Cabinet, as Mr. Harding has suggested, Mrs. Christine Bradley South, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, Mrs. Medill McCormick and Miss Harriet Vittam would be possible selections.

Soviet forces are besieging the anti-Bolshevik trench system on the narrow neck of the Crimean peninsula.

"WE ARE FIGHTING HARD."

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 5.—Gen. Wrangel, whose forces have been driven back into the Crimean peninsula from Russia, proper by Bolshevik armies, has broken a silence of four days with a characteristically laconic message to Baroness Wrangel. His telegram said:

"We are fighting hard, in full hope."

The Baroness, who has spent many sleepless nights since the Bolsheki offensive began, said today:

"All I want is the truth; no matter how bad it is, I can stand it."

APPEALS TO ALLIES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Nov. 5. — Further dispatches confirming the extreme gravity of the position of Gen. Wrangel, head of the antisoviet forces in South Russia, have been received by the French Foreign Office, but are being withheld temporarily. With the capture by Bolsheviki of Perekop and the surrounding territory, regarded as the key to the isthmus, fears now are expressed in French official circles that Gen. Wrangel's very existence in the Crimea may be seriously endangered.

It is reliably reported that Gen. Wrangel has sent an urgent appeal to France and the other Allied powers, telling of the critical situation confronting him and requesting more aid.

From an authoritative source it was learned today that France feels it now is "too late" to give him further assistance. It was explained that France had rendered him all the assistance in her power and any further support would have to come from the other Allied powers, among whom, the French say, there seems to be no disposition to act.

The Zeenabe went down after a tremendous explosion occurred on board. Twenty-two members of her crew were taken prisoners.

Farmer-Labor Party a Minus Quantity in Montana.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

BOISE (Idaho) Nov. 5.—The Nonpartisan League suffered a severe reverse in Idaho in Tuesday's election. The league's candidate for Governor, S. D. Fairchild, carried only two counties. Figures from 647 precincts today showed for Governor: Davis (Rep.,) 65,761; T. A. Walters (Dem.,) 33,177; Fairchild (Nonpar.,) 19,990.

ALL BUT ONE DEFEATED.

All other Nonpartisan State candidates were defeated. Returns on the Legislature so far show only one man who had league backing elected.

Two years ago the Nonpartisan captured the entire Democratic political machinery.

Returns from the 647 precincts, all that had reported at noon, gave increased majorities for all the Republican State and national candidates.

Harding's lead over Cox is nearly 40,000.

HARDING WAY IN LEAD.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Complete and incomplete returns from 1860 precincts out of 2278 in Washington in Tuesday's election give Percy P. Christensen, Farmer-Labor candidate for President, 58,426 votes. The same precincts gave Harding 178,892 and Cox 46,270. It was expected Christensen would show a gain in the final returns, the Christensen vote in a number of counties not having been received when the compilation was made.

For United States Senator, C. J. France, Farmer-Labor candidate, had 68,876 votes in returns from 1814 precincts. Same precincts gave Wesley Jones (Rep.,) 162,665 and George F. Cotterill (Dem.,) 50,060.

For Governor, 1830 precincts gave Robert Bridges (Farm.-Lab.,) 94,571 as compared with 159,701 for Louis F. Hart (Rep.) and 49,259 for W. W. Black (Dem.) In the other contests for State offices where Farmer-Labor candidates were running, they had a lead of 8000 to 12,000 votes over Democratic opponents, but were running far behind Republican candidates.

LEAGUE LOSES.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SIOUX FALLS (S. D.) Nov. 5.—Political observers here declared that the strength of the Nonpartisan League candidates in South Dakota was surprising, in view of the fact that the Republicans thoroughly swept the State in Tuesday's election.

But comparison with former elections shows that the league lost materially in the cities and considerably in the rural districts.

GOOD DIXON MAJORITY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

HELENA (Mont.) Nov. 5.—Returns from all but 136 precincts in Montana in Tuesday's election gave J. M. Dixon a majority of 24,797 votes in the Governorship contest. He had 102,514 votes and B. K. Wheeler (Dem.) had 77,719.

Returns from 1267 of the State's 1428 precincts gave Harding a lead of 44,985. His vote was 96,446 and Cox's, 51,461.

G.O.P. Victory Grows as More Votes Counted.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Tabulations at 5 o'clock tonight on the vote cast in California on the Presidential and Senatorial contests gave the following results:

For President, from 5864 precincts out of 6154, Harding, 607,975; Cox, 224,018.

For United States Senator, from 5685 precincts, Shortridge, 432,575; Phelan, 358,782.

The foregoing figures on the vote for Gov. Cox show a reduction of approximately 50,000 votes from those issued earlier in the day. A recheck of the vote in the fifty-eight counties disclosed errors which resulted in the reduction.

AFFIDAVITS AGAINST OYAMA ARE PREPARED.

ANTI-ASIATIC SOCIETY FINDS JAPANESE WHO SAY THEY AIDED LAND LAW FIGHT.

The directors of the Los Angeles County Anti-Asiatic Association met last night in the Native Sons' Hall and prepared three of the five affidavits which they are to forward to the State Department at Washington in substantiation of the charge made by the association against U. Oyama, Japanese Consul here, in connection with his alleged improper activities in attempting to defeat the antialien land law amendment to the California constitution.

The affidavits which were prepared last night are by Japanese who claim to have been employed by the Consul in working to defeat the amendment, and recite the details in connection with his efforts. The other affidavits which are necessary to complete the charge made by the association will not be available before the first of next week, at which time the formal evidence will be submitted to the State Department by the association.

pect that there will be any formal statement issued, nor will the meeting be of a secret nature. I do not believe that the question of enjoining the law will be discussed at this meeting."

CHAMBERS'S VIEWS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—The State Department at Washington is without authority to alter the effect of the antialien land law adopted November 2 by the voters of California, State Controller John S. Chambers, chairman of the executive committee of the Japanese Exclusion League, said today, commenting on dispatches from Washington and Tokio.

"The Supreme Court of the United States alone has power to review this action," Mr. Chambers said.

He was not aware, Mr. Chambers declared, "of any means by which the State Department could make binding an agreement with Japan that the California law will not be retroactive in effect, aplying only to Japanese who may hereafter come to the United States."

ACT EXPLAINED.

"The measure," he said, "applies to all aliens not eligible to citizenship, whether now in the State of California, in some other State in this Union, or in some foreign country. The measure certainly does not mean that alien Japanese now in California will be given privileges not accorded alien Japanese outside of California.

"Briefly, the Japanese now here, under this initiative measure, will be permitted to remain, and those engaged in business or those now having title to land can continue in business or continue to hold their land."

The law will act to prevent Japanese acquiring land in future, he added.

PROBABLE PROCEEDINGS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Formal protest by Japan against the adoption of the antialien land law by California would be a usual course in diplomatic procedure, according to international lawyers here. Such action, it was explained, would be comparable to the filing of an objection by an attorney in the hearing of a lawsuit, and the effect would be to safeguard Japan's position in the diplomatic exchanges.

Discussion of the California law, which was begun many weeks ago by State Department officials and the Japanese Ambassador, will be resumed early next week. It is expected an agreement will be reached which can be submitted for the consideration of the Japanese government. The conferees are said to have reached enough common ground to cause them to hold the hope that an acceptable course of procedure will be mapped out.

While it is denied that a final agreement has been reached, it is understood that Secretary Colby and Ambassador Shidehara have agreed that the California law will not be retroactive in effect, applying only to Japanese who may hereafter come to the United States. Whether this agreement includes a stoppage of Japanese immigration, as reported at Tokio, could not be learned.

to supply such assistance. This assistance shall be specially directed to enhancing the protection afforded to the racial and linguistic minorities in said areas."

EQUALITY OF TRADE.

Article II provides that the products and manufactured articles coming from or going to the territories, dominions, colonies or protectorates of the contracting powers shall enjoy in the areas defined perfect equality in all matters relating to commerce and navigation. The next article reads:

"Article III.—The contracting powers undertake to render diplomatic support to each other in maintaining their respective positions in the areas in which their special interests are recognized."

Article IV provides that the Anatolian railway, the Mersina-Tarsus-Adana railway and that part of the Bagdad railway lying in Turkish territory as defined by the treaty with Turkey shall be worked by a company with its capital furnished equally by British, French and Italian financial groups. The French government under this article has the privilege of exchanging its interests in the Bagdad railway for the exclusive exploitation of the railroads within its area of special interest.

The signatories agree to support the unification in the near future of the entire railway system in the territory remaining Turkish by the establishment of a joint company to work those lines.

Equality of treatment regarding railway rates and facilities for passengers, whatever their nationality, destination or origin, is provided for.

Article V fixes the boundaries of areas in which the special interests are recognized. The next article is as follows:

"Article VI—The mandatory powers for the territories detached from the former Turkish empire will enjoy vis-a-vis with the contracting powers the same rights and privileges as the powers whose special interests are recognized in the areas defined in Article V."

ITALY GETS COAL BASIN.

Article VII reserves to Italy the right of the exploitation of the Declera coal basin.

By Article VIII the French and Italian governments agree to withdraw their troops from the representative areas when the signatories are agreed in considering the treaty of peace with Turkey is being executed.

By Article IX the signatories with special interests accept responsibility for supervising the execution of the terms of the treaty with Turkey for the protection of minorities within their respective areas.

The agreement is to be ratified, it is provided in Article IX, and be communicated to the Turkish government, and to be published and come into force at the same time the Turkish peace treaty goes into effect.

HARDING NEEDS NO BATTLESHIP.

paign bias, and to get it at the earliest possible day. It is the first step toward the meeting of minds of which Senator Harding so frequently spoke during the campaign. He did not make public any list because it will not be complete before his vacation ends.

"Senator Harding further announced that no consideration would be given to a Cabinet during his recreation period."

FULFILLS PROMISE.

Officials close to Mr. Harding called attention that in his campaign speeches he promised repeatedly that the meeting of minds would begin as soon as possible after his election and that he also frequently declared that the purpose of his consultations would be, not to suggest any plan of his own, but to ascertain how divergent views might be so brought into harmony as to put a united nation behind him in his negotiations with other powers.

He also has indicated in campaign speeches that irreconcilable opponents of the league of Versailles as well as its ardent supporters would be numbered among those to whose advice he would listen. To the Senate he promised to give a share of attention proportionate to its power in perfecting treaties.

Although the President-elect has never named publicly any of those he will include in his consultations, speculation of a wholly unauthoritative character has revolved persistently about a number of conspicuous figures who might answer to the description Mr. Harding has laid down.

So far as the Senate itself is concerned this undercurrent of gossip has carried frequently the names of such Republican Senators as Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee; Knox of Pennsylvania, former Secretary of State, and a treaty irreconcilable; Johnson of California, another irreconcilable leader, and Lenroot of Wisconsin, a leader of the reservationists. On the Democratic side there has been mention among others of Senators Underwood of Alabama, the party leader; Hitchcock of Nebraska, who led the fight for unreserved ratification; Simmons of North Carolina, and Robinson of Arkansas.

Among those outside the Senate, frequent speculative mention has been made of former President Taft, a leader of international peace and supporters of the Versailles league; Herbert Hoover, another League advocate; Elihu Root, former Secretary of State and a participant in the recent international court negotiations; Charles E. Hughes, Republican Presidential nominee four years ago; Henry White, Republican, member of President Wilson's peace commission; Myron T. Herrick, former Ambassador to France; Henry P. Davison, head of the American Red Cross; former Senator Sutherland of Utah, and many other Republicans.

DEMOCRATS ON LIST.

There is a much smaller list of Democrats outside the Senate whose names gossip has associated with the meeting of minds. Among them is Robert Lansing, former Secretary of State, and of the peace commission, often quoted by Mr. Harding in the campaign as disagreeing with Mr. Wilson on some features of the Versailles covenant; Frank L. Polk, the State Department's former undersecretary; Chief Justice White and George Harvey, the New York editor.

There has been even less speculation with regard to what would be asked for advice in making of the new plan for international association. It is expected, however, that the will choose those who have closely associated with public ities throughout the treaty fight as to be familiar with the ments of their sisters in American membership in the or any substitute for it.

GREETS HAYS WARMLY.

Whether the tentative list names was one of the subjects viewed in the talk between Harding and Mr. Hays was not vealed. It was understood that topics came up for discussion, ever, in the first meeting of successful candidate and his ager since the election. greeted each other warmly Mr. Hays arrived and as soon there had been an exchange of gratulations, the President-elect his arm around the shoulders of chairman and, deeply engrossed conversation, they walked over to Mr. Harding's office.

It was Mr. Hays's forty-first birthday and in explanation of the the President-elect said tonight he felt indebted to the chairman a birthday party and so had him to be a guest there throughout the day.

government funds collected by Terhune administration.

First indications of discontent Samoa were revealed in August dispatches that the native stoned the Governor's residence a protest against his administration. This was followed by an appeal President Wilson signed by more than 400 native kings and urging that a board of inquiry be sent to investigate conditions in the island.

APPEAL BY MISSIONARIES.

At the same time Mormon missionaries in Samoa appealed to the astor Smoot of Utah to exert his influence toward an investigation of conditions, both those affecting the interests and native affairs.

Late in July, Lieut.-Commander Boucher arrived at Mare Island, having been relieved from the Samoan post by Gov. Terhune. Boucher's request that the Navy Department investigate Gov. Terhune's administration prompted the relief by Gov. Terhune.

The Navy Department later ordered Capt. Wylde Evans to Samoa to relieve Commander Terhune. Capt. Evans, it is understood, aboard the Kansas and the Navy Department withhold orders for Terhune be sent to Mare Island for medical examination in order that he remain at his post until the investigation by Admiral Hughes is completed.

Gov. Terhune had requested that he be relieved for medical examination.

FEW DISTRICTS STILL IN DOUBT.

Republicans May Add to Record Majority.

Clouse Leads Democratic Opponent in Tennessee.

G.O.P. Has Made Net Gain of 58 in House.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Congressional elections in three districts tonight had not been officially reported and with the uncertain trend that has taken place in the Fourth and Eighth districts in Tennessee, the Republicans still have a chance of adding to their record majority in the new House. The Twenty-third New York District, in which six election districts are to be heard from, shows the Republican candidate leading by approximately 2000. The district at present is represented by Richard F. McKinley (Dem.), and his defeat is not conceded by the Democrats, as the missing districts are regarded as Democratic strongholds.

The other districts remaining in doubt are the Eighth of Minnesota and the Fifth of Missouri.

CLOUSE LEADS HULL.

Late returns today from Tennessee indicated that W. F. Clouse (Rep.) was leading Representative Cordell Hull by less than 300 in the Fourth District, but Republican leaders were confident that the complete returns would show a plurality of at least 1000 for Clouse. In the Eighth District, incomplete returns gave L. A. Scott (Rep.) a small lead over Gordon Browning (Dem.). The election of Hull and Browning was indicated in the early returns.

In the districts that have definitely reported, the Republicans have elected 296 and the Democrats 138, including the two Tennessee seats, which tonight were placed in the doubtful column. The others elected include one Socialist, one Independent, one Prohibitionist and one Independent Republican. Thus the Republicans with 296 members as compared with 222 in the present Congress, have made a net gain of fifty-eight members by invading many Democratic districts and filling some vacancies, while the Democrats, with 138 members as compared with 190 in the present Congress have suffered a loss of fifty-two. The miscellaneous representation of four is the same numerically as before.

Yesterday's count in Oklahoma assured the nation's new women voters one representative in the lower house—Miss Alice Robertson of Muskogee, a farmer and restaurant owner. VOTE IN OREGON.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—Senator Harding's lead over Gov. Cox in Oregon exceeds 40,000, according to returns from 1546 precincts out of 1699 in the State. The totals were Harding, 134,541; Cox, 75,949.

Robert N. Stanfield's lead for the United States Senatorship was more than 16,000. Figures from 1599 precincts give Stanfield, 131,934; Chamberlain, 95,785.

SWEEPING G.O.P. VICTORY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Washington's next Legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican, returns from every county in the State, complied at noon today, revealed. Of the 122 seats in the House of Representatives, 116 will be filled by Republicans and forty of the forty-two Senators will be Republicans. Two Farmer-Labor candidates and one Democrat were elected to the House. One Democrat holds over for the Senate and one Farmer-Labor candidate was elected to that body.

SOUTH DAKOTA RESULTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SIOUX FALLS (S. D.) Nov. 5.—Harding has a plurality of 31,054; Norbeck (Rep.) for United States Senator a plurality of 23,459, and McMaster (Rep.) for Governor, a plurality of 27,022, according to reports from forty-three counties of sixty-nine in South Dakota.

Tom Ayres, Nonpartisan League candidate for United States Senator, poled 12,417 of the votes so far counted, as against 13,641 of U. S. G. Cherry (Dem.) and 39,000 for Peter Norbeck (Rep.)

Present tabulations show Chester Bates, Nonpartisan League candidate for Governor, polled 12,704 votes, against 13,417 for Howes (Dem.) and 40,449 for McMaster (Rep.)

Passports for Yankees Abroad Not to be Vised.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—American citizens who have gone abroad without American passports, but with documents issued by representatives of the countries of their original allegiance, have not necessarily lost their American citizenship, but they have gravely compromised their loyalty and allegiance to the United States, said a statement made public today by the State Department.

"Officers of the United States government abroad, cannot, and will not vise their foreign passports," the statement said, "because such a vise would be a tacit recognition of the holder of the passport as a citizen or subject of the country which had issued it. It has also been for some time, the general practice of the Department to decline to issue passports for the return to this country, of American citizens, who have accepted the passport of a foreign government to go abroad from the United States."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—American ships will no longer have to take aboard at home ports sufficient coal to make the round trip to England.

It was learned today at the British Embassy that as a result of the settlement of the coal strike in England the restrictions imposed on the supply of bunker coal had been removed.

GOMPERS RAVES OVER ELECTION.

Declares It is Great Plunge Toward Reaction.

But Believes Democracy Will Right Self in Time.

Attempts to Alibi Labor's Nonpartisan Policy.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared today in his first statement on the outcome of Tuesday's elections that "every forward looking man and woman must feel some deep regret because of the great plunge towards reaction."

WILL RIGHT SELF.

"But democracy will right itself at the proper time," said Mr. Gompers, "and meanwhile the actual tabulation of results in Congress, the law-making body, shows a definite and specified gain for all that makes for progress and responds to the needs of our time."

Mr. Gompers asserted that every man in the House "whose record of service was perfect" had been re-elected, and added that the "new Congress would show an increased number of men who hold union cards."

POLICY JUSTIFIED.

The nonpartisan political policy of the Labor Federation, Mr. Gompers continued, "is more completely justified than ever and the futility of separate party action more convincingly demonstrated."

Referring to the Congressional elections Mr. Gompers said incomplete checking already showed "that fifty Congressmen who were inconsiderate and hostile have been defeated."

IMPRESSIVE FEATURE.

"This is one of the most impressive features of the entire election," said he. "Fifty time servers have been beaten.

"Against these fifty the working people have elected from fifty-five to sixty men whose records show fair and considerate service. This represents a clear gain for integrity in government."

Mr. Gompers claimed the election to Congress of at least fifteen union men and said it was probable that the final counting would show "more than twenty, possibly twenty-five."

PRIMARY RESULTS.

The nonpartisan campaign of the American Federation of Labor," the veteran leader continued, "was primarily and most effectively a campaign in Congressional districts. Its results were gained in the primaries and in the election. These results will serve as a constant reminder to all servants of special privilege and the ever-present and always impressive fact will be before the new Congress that fifty of the unfaithful and the hostile were defeated by the organized workers of our republic.

RECOGNIZES STRUGGLE.

"A notable American has said, 'I would rather be right than be President.' To be engaged in a righteous cause, to fight for freedom, for justice, for justice and human brotherhood, is of greater concern to the human family than is a passing success. The labor movement of America recognized the tremendous struggle of the masses of people in all history to obtain the right and the setbacks they have often had to endure and the sacrifices they have had to make, decade by decade, cycle by cycle, and in the march and the trend of the cause of freedom of America, forward, onward and upward.

"Shortly the names of the men who have been fair and just and who have been re-elected and those who have been unfair and antagonistic and defeated, will be published by the American Federation of Labor."

POSTSCRIPT BY SAM.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Samuel Gompers, on arriving in New York from Washington late today, added the following to the statement he made at the capital:

"Senator Harding has been elected President of the United States. He will be just as much my President as that of any other citizen of our country. In any way that the American labor movement, including myself, can be of service to him, of course, it will be our duty and pleasure."

WOOD MAY BE WAR SECRETARY

party," and he is indisputably one of the foremost world statesmen of the age. He drafted the League of Nations plank in the Republican platform, though it was revised in some particulars by the Resolutions Committee.

Bitter opposition to the selection of Mr. Root, however, has developed already among the irreconcilables headed by Senators Johnson and Borah. Allied with them are western Progressives who look upon Mr. Root as a reactionary who is the incarnation of Wall-street influence. And the drys, who never forgave him for arguing the unconstitutionality of the prohibition amendment before the Supreme Court. Some Republicans are of the opinion that Harding does not naturally incline to the choice of Root, with whom, it is pointed out, the candidate had no contact in the campaign owing to differences on the League question.

BITTER-ENDERS' CHOICE.

The favorite of the bitter-enders is Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, who, like Mr. Root, has been a Secretary of State. Mr. Knox favors a world court without a League and he consistently opposed the treaty, either with or without reservations. He was the author of the move to make peace with Germany by resolution. The irreconcilables interpret the overwhelming repudiation of Wilson at the polls as evidence of the aversion of the people to any League of Nations and contend that the selection of Knox would be in harmony with the popular will. Some of the bitter-enders advocate the appointment of George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia.

Occupying a middle ground between the pro-Leaguers and the irreconcilables is Senator Lodge, who would be acceptable to all save the extremists in both camps. Hence he is being suggested as a logical compromise likely to commend itself to Senator Harding, whose object is to conciliate these divergent groups.

Theodore Roosevelt might be given a place in the Cabinet not only because of his ability, but with the view of recognizing the Progressive wing of the party and the soldiers of the World War. He would be qualified conspicuously to direct the Americanization work which the American Legion desires to further.

Herbert Hoover is also regarded as likely to be one of the advisers on economic questions with whom the President-elect will seek to surround himself. He might be made Secretary of Labor to work out the strike-prevention scheme framed by the commission of which he was chairman. Medill McCormick will introduce a bill to create a Department of Public Welfare and would become the logical choice for first head of the Department. Former Senator New of Indiana may be Postmaster-General, former Senator Weeks of Massachusetts, Secretary of the Navy, and former Senator Sutherland of Utah Attorney-General.

If a woman should be appointed to the Cabinet, as Mr. Harding has suggested, Mrs. Christine Bradley South, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, Mrs. Medill McCormick and Miss Harriet Vittam would be possible selections.

"WE ARE FIGHTING HARD."

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 5.—Gen. Wrangel, whose forces have been driven back into the Crimean peninsula from Russia proper by Bolshevik armies, has broken a silence of four days with a characteristically laconic message to Baroness Wrangel. His telegram said:

"We are fighting hard, in full hope."

The Baroness, who has spent many sleepless nights since the Bolsheki offensive began, said today:

"All I want is the truth; no matter how bad it is, I can stand it."

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Nov. 5. — Further dispatches confirming the extreme gravity of the position of Gen. Wrangel, head of the antisoviet forces in South Russia, have been received by the French Foreign Office, but are being withheld temporarily. With the capture by Bolsheviki of Perekop and the surrounding territory, regarded as the key to the isthmus, fears now are expressed in French official circles that Gen. Wrangel's very existence in the Crimea may be seriously endangered.

It is reliably reported that Gen. Wrangel has sent an urgent appeal to France and the other Allied powers, telling of the critical situation confronting him and requesting more aid.

From an authoritative source it was learned today that France feels it now is "too late" to give him further assistance. It was explained that France had rendered him all the assistance in her power and any further support would have to come from the other Allied powers, among whom, the French say, there seems to be no disposition to act.

SINK RED STEAMER.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 5.—The steamer Zeenabe, flying the Red flag and freighted with ammunition for the Turkish Nationalists in Trebisond, was sunk in the Black Sea off Batum by a French destroyer at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, according to advices received here yesterday.

The Zeenabe went down after a tremendous explosion occurred on board. Twenty-two members of her crew were taken prisoners.

Farmer-Labor Party a Minus Quantity in Montana.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

BOISE (Idaho) Nov. 5.—The Nonpartisan League suffered a severe reverse in Idaho in Tuesday's election. The league's candidate for Governor, S. D. Fairchild, carried only two counties. Figures from 647 precincts today showed for Governor: Davis (Rep.) 65,761; T. A. Walters (Dem.,) 33,177; Fairchild (Nonpar.,) 19,990.

ALL BUT ONE DEFEATED.

All other Nonpartisan State candidates were defeated. Returns on the Legislature so far show only one man who had league backing elected.

Two years ago the Nonpartisan captuhed the entire Democratic political machinery.

Returns from the 647 precincts, all that had reported at noon, gave increased majorities for all the Republican State and national candidates.

Harding's lead over Cox is nearly 40,000.

HARDING WAY IN LEAD.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—Complete and incomplete returns from 1960 precincts out of 2278 in Washington in Tuesday's election give Parley P. Christensen, Farmer-Labor candidate for President, 58,436 votes. The same precincts gave Harding 178,892 and Cox 65,270. It was expected Christensen would show a gain in the final returns, the Christensen vote in a number of counties not having been received when the compilation was made.

For United States Senator, C. J. France, Farmer-Labor candidate, had 68,876 votes in returns from 1814 precincts. Same precincts gave Wesley Jones (Rep.) 163,663 and George P. Cotterill (Dem.) 50,064.

For Governor, 1830 precincts gave Robert Bridges (Farm.-Lab.) 94,571 as compared with 159,701 for Louis F. Hart (Rep.) and 49,259 for W. W. Black (Dem.) In the other contests for State offices where Farmer-Labor candidates were running, they had a lead of 8000 to 12,000 votes over Democratic opponents, but were running far behind Republican candidates.

LEAGUE LOSES.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SIOUX FALLS (S. D.) Nov. 5.—Political observers here declared that the strength of the Nonpartisan League candidates in South Dakota was surprising, in view of the fact that the Republicans thoroughly swept the State in Tuesday's election.

But comparison with former elections shows that the league lost materially in the cities and considerably in the rural districts.

GOOD DIXON MAJORITY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

HELENA (Mont.) Nov. 5.—Returns from all but 136 precincts in Montana in Tuesday's election gave J. M. Dixon a majority of 24,797 votes in the Governorship contest. He had 102,514 votes and B. K. Wheeler (Dem.) had 67,719.

Returns from 1267 of the State's 1428 precincts gave Harding a lead of 44,945. His vote was 96,446 and Cox's 51,461.

G.O.P. Victory Grows as More Votes Counted.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Tabulations at 5 o'clock tonight on the vote cast in California on the Presidential and Senatorial contests gave the following results:

For President, from 5864 precincts out of 6154, Harding, 607,975; Cox, 224,018.

For United States Senator, from 5485 precincts, Shortridge, 432,675; Phelan, 356,752.

The foregoing figures on the vote for Gov. Cox show a reduction of approximately 50,000 votes from those issued earlier in the day. A recheck of the vote in the fifty-eight counties disclosed errors which resulted in the reduction.

AFFIDAVITS AGAINST OYAMA ARE PREPARED.

ANTI-ASIATIC SOCIETY FINDS JAPANESE WHO SAY THEY AIDED LAND LAW FIGHT.

The directors of the Los Angeles County Anti-Asiatic Association met last night in the Native Sons' Hall and prepared three of the five affidavits which they are to forward to the State Department at Washington in substantiation of the charge made by the association against U. Oyama, Japanese Consul here, in connection with his alleged improper activities in attempting to defeat the antialien land law amendment to the California constitution.

The affidavits which were prepared last night are by Japanese who claim to have been employed by the Consul in working to defeat the amendment, and recite the details in connection with his efforts. The other affidavits which are necessary to complete the charge made by the association will not be available before the first of next week, at which time the formal evidence will be submitted to the State Department by the association.

pect that there will be any formal statement issued, nor will the meeting be of a secret nature. I do not believe that the question of enjoining the law will be discussed at this meeting."

CHAMBERS'S VIEWS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—The State Department at Washington is without authority to alter the effect of the antialien land law adopted November 2 by the voters of California, State Controller John S. Chambers, chairman of the executive committee of the Japanese Exclusion League, said today, commenting on dispatches from Washington and Tokio.

"The Supreme Court of the United States alone has power to review this action," Mr. Chambers said.

He was not aware, Mr. Chambers declared, "of any means by which the State Department could make binding an agreement with Japan that the California law will not be retroactive in effect, aplying only to Japanese who may hereafter come to the United States."

ACT EXPLAINED.

"The measure," he said, "applies to all aliens not eligible to citizenship, whether now in the State of California, in some other State in this Union, or in some foreign country. The measure certainly does not mean that alien Japanese now in California will be given privileges not accorded alien Japanese outside of California.

"Briefly, the Japanese now here, under this initiative measure, will be permitted to remain, and those engaged in business or those now having title to land can continue in business or continue to hold their land."

The law will act to prevent Japanese acquiring land in future, he added.

PROBABLE PROCEEDINGS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Formal protest by Japan against the adoption of the antialien land law by California would be a usual course in diplomatic procedure, according to international lawyers here. Such action, it was explained, would be comparable to the filing of an objection by an attorney in the hearing of a lawsuit, and the effect would be to safeguard Japan's position in the diplomatic exchanges.

Discussion of the California law, which was begun many weeks ago by State Department officials and the Japanese Ambassador, will be resumed early next week. It is expected an agreement will be reached which can be submitted for the consideration of the Japanese government. The conferees are said to have reached enough common ground to cause them to hold the hope that an acceptable course of procedure will be mapped out.

While it is denied that a final agreement has been reached, it is understood that Secretary Colby and Ambassador Shidehara have agreed that the California law will not be retroactive in effect, applying only to Japanese who may hereafter come to the United States. Whether this agreement includes a stoppage of Japanese immigration, as reported at Tokio, could not be learned.

to supply such assistance. This assistance shall be specially directed to enhancing the protection afforded to the racial and linguistic minorities in said areas."

EQUALITY OF TRADE.

Article II provides that the products and manufactured articles coming from or going to the territories, dominions, colonies or protectorates of the contracting powers shall enjoy in the areas defined perfect equality in all matters relating to commerce and navigation. The next article reads:

"Article III.—The contracting powers undertake to render diplomatic support to each other in maintaining their respective positions in the areas in which their special interests are recognized."

Article IV provides that the Anatolian railway, the Mersina-Tarsus-Adana railway and that part of the Bagdad railway lying in Turkish territory as defined by the treaty with Turkey shall be worked by a company with its capital furnished equally by British, French and Italian financial groups. The French government under this article has the privilege of exchanging its interests in the Bagdad railway for the exclusive exploitation of the railroads within its area of special interest.

The signatories agree to support the unification in the near future of the entire railway system in the territory remaining Turkish by the establishment of a joint company to work those lines.

Equality of treatment regarding railway rates and facilities for passengers, whatever their nationality, destination or origin, is provided for.

Article V fixes the boundaries of areas in which the special interests are recognized. The next article is as follows:

"Article VI—The mandatory powers for the territories detached from the former Turkish empire will enjoy vis-a-vis with the contracting powers the same rights and privileges as the powers whose special interests are recognized in the areas defined in Article V."

ITALY GETS COAL BASIN.

Article VII reserves to Italy the right of the exploitation of the Declera coal basin.

By Article VIII the French and Italian governments agree to withdraw their troops from the representative areas when the signatories are agreed in considering the treaty of peace with Turkey is being executed.

By Article IX the signatories with special interests accept responsibility for supervising the execution of the terms of the treaty with Turkey for the protection of minorities within their respective areas.

The agreement is to be ratified. It is provided in Article IX, and be communicated to the Turkish government, and to be published and come into force at the same time the Turkish peace treaty goes into effect.

paign bias, and to get it at the earliest possible day. It is the first step toward the meeting of minds of which Senator Harding so frequently spoke during the campaign. He did not make public any list because it will not be complete before his vacation ends.

"Senator Harding further announced that no consideration would be given to a Cabinet during his recreation period."

FULFILLS PROMISE.

Officials close to Mr. Harding called attention that in his campaign speeches he promised repeatedly that the meeting of minds would begin as soon as possible after his election and that he also frequently declared that the purpose of his consultations would be, not to suggest any plan of his own, but to ascertain how divergent views might be so brought into harmony as to put a united nation behind him in his negotiations with other powers.

He also has indicated in campaign speeches that irreconcilable opponents of the league of Versailles as well as its ardent supporters would be numbered among those to whose advice he would listen. To the Senate he promised to give a share of attention proportionate to its power in perfecting treaties.

Although the President-elect has never named publicly any of those he will include in his consultations, speculation of a wholly unauthoritative character has revolved persistently about a number of conspicuous figures who might answer to the description Mr. Harding has laid down.

So far as the Senate itself is concerned this undercurrent of gossip has carried frequently the names of such Republican Senators as Lodge of Massachusetts, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee; Knox of Pennsylvania, former Secretary of State, and a treaty irreconcilable; Johnson of California, another irreconcilable leader, and Lenroot of Wisconsin, a leader of the reservationists. On the Democratic side there has been mention among others of Senators Underwood of Alabama, the party leader; Hitchcock of Nebraska, who led the fight for unreserved ratification; Simmons of North Carolina, and Robinson of Arkansas.

Among those outside the Senate, frequent speculative mention has been made of former President Taft, a leader of international peace and a supporters of the Versailles league; Herbert Hoover, another League advocate; Elihu Root, former Secretary of State and a participant in the recent international court negotiations; Charles E. Hughes, Republican Presidential nominee four years ago; Henry White, Republican, member of President Wilson's peace commission; Myron T. Herrick, former Ambassador to France; Henry P. Davison, head of the American Red Cross; former Senator Sutherland of Utah, and many other Republicans.

DEMOCRATS ON LIST.

There is a much smaller list of Democrats outside the Senate whose names gossip has associated with the meeting of minds. Among them is Robert Lansing, former Secretary of State, and of the peace commission, often quoted by Mr. Harding in the campaign as disagreeing with Mr. Wilson on some features of the Versailles covenant; Frank L. Polk, the State Department's former undersecretary; Chief Justice White and George Harvey, the New York editor.

There has been even less specula-

This was followed by an appeal President Wilson signed by [illegible] than 400 native kings and chiefs urging that a board of inquiry be sent to investigate conditions in the island.

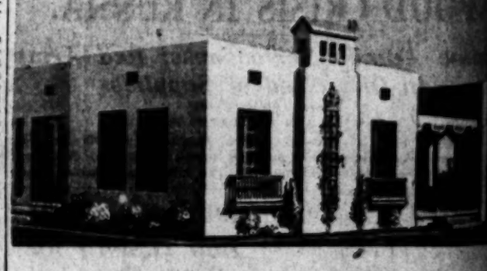
APPEAL BY MISSIONARIES.

At the same time Mormon missionaries in Samoa appealed to Senator Smoot of Utah to exert his influence toward an investigation of conditions, both those affecting the interests and native affairs.

Late in July, Lieut.-Commander Boucher arrived at Mare Island having been relieved from the Samoan post by Gov. Terhune. Boucher's request that the Navy Department investigate Gov. Terhune's administration prompted the relief by Gov. Terhune.

The Navy Department later ordered Capt. Waldo Evans to Samoa to relieve Commander Terhune. Capt. Evans, it is understood, is aboard the Kansas and the Navy Department withheld orders for Terhune to be sent to Mare Island for medical examination in order that he remain at his post until the investigation by Admiral Hughes is completed.

Gov. Terhune had requested that he be relieved for medical examination.



A House Famine

Reports from reliable authorities state that the United States is five million (5,000,000) houses behind the present demand. Edwin Bergstrom, the prominent local architect, declares that there will be no decline in building costs for the next ten years.

From these two statements you can plainly see what the building situation is today. Those who have been waiting to build in the hope that there may soon be a slump in building costs might as well give up hope of prices getting back on a pre-war basis for years to come.

GREETS HAYS WARMLY.

Whether the tentative list of names was one of the subjects reviewed in the talk between Mr. Harding and Mr. Hays was not revealed. It was understood that many topics came up for discussion, however, in the first meeting of the successful candidate and his manager since the election. They greeted each other warmly when Mr. Hays arrived and as soon as there had been an exchange of congratulations, the President-elect put his arm around the shoulders of the chairman and, deeply engrossed in conversation, they walked slowly over to Mr. Harding's office.

It was Mr. Hays's forty-first birthday and in explanation of the visit the President-elect said tonight that he felt indebted to the chairman for a birthday party and so had asked him to be a guest there throughout the day.

TELL DETAILS OF RAID.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

GRANARD, (Ireland) Nov. 5.—The sacking of this town Wednesday night ranks with the recent raids at Balbriggan, Mallow and Tubbecurry, according to accounts given the Associated Press by eye-witnesses. The damage is said to have been done under the direction of an officer and was part of an extensive raid across County Longford after the murder of several policemen in the district Sunday and Monday.

Eleven lorries of the raiders stopped first at the village of Edgeworthstown, where several houses were searched and a man riding a bicycle was shot. Next, Granard was visited and thirteen buildings were burned. The last village raided was Ballinaree, adjacent to Granard, where the raiders ran into an ambush of volunteers, losing three men and five wounded. They then were forced to retire.

ASQUITH ASSAILS ACTION.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—In a speech at Cardiff, Wales, tonight, former Premier Asquith declared that evidence that servants of the crown were being allowed, with virtual impunity, to engage in a campaign of organized outrage in Ireland, was overwhelming and irresistible. An appeal to Parliament, he said, was useless.

Alluding to statements attributed to him advocating a separate navy for Ireland, the former Premier explained he never intended that Ireland should have anything not granted the great dominions and he would make it an absolute condition that the imperial navy should always have free access to all Irish ports.

Two interesting, although unofficial, attempts are being made to solve the Irish question, it developed today. The first is an effort by influential political quarters to induce the government to communicate with the Sinn Fein members of Parliament in order to try to reach a practical agreement and prevent the ruin of Ireland.

The second is that three coalition members of Parliament will formally propose a plan for withdrawing the military in Ireland to strategic centers and allowing the local authorities to take the responsibility for the preservation of law and order with the eventual view of negotiating a political settlement of the problem.

OFFICIALS ARE INVITED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Many Irish officials have been asked by the American Commission on Ireland to appear before the commission at its hearing, beginning November 17, to tell of happenings in their country. The list made public today includes the mayors of Belfast and Londonderry, the chairmen of Urban councils of Thurles and Mallow, the town Commissioner of Balbriggan, the Lord Mayor of Cork, Mrs. Thomas MacCurtain, widow of a former Lord Mayor of Cork, and Miss Irene E. Swansey, sister of a police inspector killed during the disorders.

E. J. Costello of Chicago, managing editor of the Federated Press, whose expulsion from Ireland was ordered recently by the British government because of his association with persons of alleged radical views, made complaint today to the State Department that he had been unjustly deported. Secretary Colby promised to have an investigation made and arranged for Mr. Cogello to discuss the matter with the counsellor of the department.

ARREST SINN FEINERS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Soldiers and police, says a Central News dispatch from Cork, surrounded an assembly of Sinn Feiners near Macroom tonight and arrested about 200 of them.

WRITE TO PREMIER.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

DUBLIN, Nov. 5.—The Irish peace conference, which is an association of moderate Irishmen of all parties, seeking to solve the home-rule problem, has written another letter to Premier Lloyd George, expressing the view that the situation has been materially changed by the Premier's latest pronouncement of government policy and announcing the conviction of the conference that Parliament as now constituted does not sufficiently represent the Irish people to frame an acceptable constitution for Ireland.

It is suggested that Parliament should establish a constituent assembly elected on the Parliamentary basis of proportional representation and that Ireland be given complete financial independence.

CAN'T ASK AUSTRALIA TO CENSUR ENGLAND.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 5. — Premier Hughes, during a debate in the Australian Parliament today on the Irish question, denied the contention of some of the members that Lord Mayor MacSwiney had died in a just cause. While the Premier did not defend all the government policies in Ireland, he said he could not ask Australia to censure England in the face of the Sinn Fein crimes.

The Australian Parliament, declared Premier Hughes, was not prepared to stand quietly by while endevors were being made to establish a republic within such range of England. In his opinion, settlement of the Irish situation was beyond the strength of any parliament.

The Right Chocolate strength

That's one secret of Ghirardelli's goodness! The right chocolate strength not only gives chocolate substance to this food-drink—but it gives it the delicious, satisfying flavor that belongs to Ghirardelli's and to Ghirardelli's alone.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate is never sold in bulk but in cans only. In this way Ghirardelli's retains its flavor and strength—the two most important elements of good chocolate

HOPE FOR PEACE IN ERIN IS SEEN.

Lloyd George Considers Settlement Proposition.

Downing Street Realizes Coercion Policy Futile.

October a Record Month for Dead and Wounded.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Prime Minister Lloyd George having disposed of the miners' strike and other labor troubles, will devote himself to the Irish problem and within the next day or two take up seriously a proposition advanced by the Sinn Fein as a possible means of settlement.

An official who is in close touch with Lloyd George declares the latter is deeply interested in a Sinn Fein suggestion to deal directly with Dail Eriamm and that he is disposed to consider such a step favorably.

PSYCHOLOGICAL MOMENT.

Apparently Downing street feels that the psychological moment has come for negotiating an Irish settlement with every hope for success.

The policy of coercion has been tried and it is now apparent to its strongest advocates that the plan has failed. There have been daily murders of policemen and soldiers and violence instead of lessening in response to the British campaign of terrorism is becoming intensified.

RECORD NUMBER.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, the Irish secretary, announced in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon that twenty-two policemen and fourteen soldiers were murdered in Ireland during October and that twenty-eight police and thirty soldiers were wounded. This is the record number for any month to date, but every day brings an increased toll. It is believed that the November record is sure to be larger unless a truce is called.

TERRORISM FAILS.

This is taken as clear evidence that the Sinn Fein gunmen are not terrorized and that they will continue to take revenge for the deaths of their comrades shot by police and soldiers, either in fighting or reprisals.

At the same time in the view of Downing street this trial of strength has served a useful purpose. It has convinced the English of the futility of coercion and has taught them that the Sinn Fein, too, can play at the game of terrorism. The result is that both sides now are in a more reasonable frame of mind.

A Sinn Fein envoy is now in Ireland reporting the progress of his preliminary navy discussions, but he is likely to return soon if Lloyd George decides the proposed plan is worth following up.

DAMAGE BY REPRISALS.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DUBLIN, Nov. 5.—Damages estimated at $5,000,000 were caused by the reprisals in the towns of Tralee and Granard, county of Longford, Sunday and Wednesday night.

Arriving in Granard in a dozen motor trucks, the police shot into houses as they drove through the streets. Then they fired homes and shops, the inhabitants being forced to flee in their night clothes, after which the raiders drove off, playing on stolen concertinas and singing, "That's the Stuff to Give 'em Tralee Again." This raid is said to be a reprisal for the shooting of Inspector Keigher last Sunday.

SOLDIERS RETREAT.

The police descended on Tralee for the second time at midnight last night, armed with hatchets, rifles, bombs and gasoline and began their work of devastation. The military force that had been placed in the town to prevent recurrence of Sunday's visit withdrew and it is reported that they made no effort to stop the depredations.

A telegram from Ballymote, county Sligo, says the town was almost totally wrecked Wednesday night by Crown forces. The houses, stocks and crops were buned by the same force of Black and Tans that destroyed Balbriggan. They came to Ballymote from Germantown camp nearly fifty miles distant.

Replying to the suggestion made by Freeman's Journal's for an independent commission to investigate British terrorism in Ireland, George Bernard Shaw has telegraphed:

INQUIRY NONSENSE.

"An inquiry is all nonsense, the facts being perfectly well known here. The militarists have frightened the government which cannot control its forces and dares not withdraw them.

"We should cease futile guerrilla warfare and provocated retaliations and appeal to the League of Nations and public opinion on the ground that the Prime Minister's avowed reasons for the subjugation of Ireland apply equally well for the subjugation of France and finally the entire globe."

NONPARTISAN LEAGUE GETS FIRST SENATOR.

DR. E. F. DADD A WINNER IN NORTH DAKOTA, DEMOCRATS ADMIT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FARGO, Nov. 4.—Dr. E. F. Ladd, chemist, economist and president of the North Dakota Agricultural College, will be the first Nonpartisan League United States Senator, in view of the admission today by Svenbjorn Johnson, Democratic State chairman, that Ladd had won the Senatorship over H. H. Perry, his Democratic opponent.

Dr. Ladd is known in North Dakota mainly for two things—his fight for a better grain grading and marketing system, and his campaign against adulterated food, paint and drugs.

The need for a better plan for handling the products of the farm is engrossing Dr. Ladd's attention now. He is in Chicago to help the Committee of Seventeen of the American Farm Bureau Federation decide on a co-operative grain marketing system. His plan for better distribution of the grain crop includes a world-wide information bureau which will determine the needs of the world for various grains "and deliver the order to the farmer." He also believes in a system of financing which will enable the farmer to hold his grain until it is needed by the consumer.

A chance for out-of-town people to see "Way Down East" and get home early from that Saturday morning matinee.—[Advertisement.

WOULD HEAR HARDING.

California Editors Send Letter to President-elect.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ONTARIO, Nov. 5.—In the name of the Southern California Associated Dailies, of which he is president, and on behalf of the California Republican Editorial Association, of which he is vice-president, Crombie Allen, prominent Ontario newspaper man, today wrote Hon. Warren G. Harding, President-elect, extending him, as a member of the newspaper craft, an invitation to come to California and address the first-named organization.

Mr. Allen's invitation to the President-elect was inspired by press reports that he is to go to Texas and may visit his sister, Mrs. E. E. Remsberg in Santa Ana. Mr. Allen's communication suggests that a meeting at Santa Ana of the members of the associated dailies can be arranged during the Senator's visit in the Orange county city. Mr. Allen was joined in his invitation to the President-elect by Justus F. Craemer of Orange, secretary of the Southern California Associated Dailies.

AMERICANS ASSIST IN ITALIAN CELEBRATION.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ROME, Nov. 5.—Representatives of all regiments of the Italian army, marched in the great parade held today to celebrate the second anniversary of the armistice with Austria, which, so far as Italy is concerned, ended the Great War. The men, all of whom fought during the war, marched through the main thoroughfares singing patriotic songs amidst the applause of immense crowds which lined the streets.

The American flag, carried by the director and students of the American Academy here, received a very warm ovation.

DENY HEARING ON RAISED RAIL RATES.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The petition of the Kansas Court of Industrial Relations for a hearing on the advanced interstate rates granted railroads in Western territory was denied today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The court contended that the roads in western territory would earn approximately $192,000,000 in excess of 6 per cent on the value of the railway properties in that territory under the new rates.

The commission's announcement gave no reasons for denying the petition.

WOOLEN MILLS CURTAIL WORK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LAWRENCE (Mass.), Nov. 4.—The four mills of the American Woolen company here closed tonight for the rest of the week and next Monday will go on a four days a week schedule. Lack of orders was given as the reason for the curtailment.

DEATH PENALTY PAID BY SLAYER.

Indian Hangs in Oregon for Death of Sheriff.

Officer Was Killed During Wholesale Jail Break.

Murderer Narrowly Escaped Lynching When Caught.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SALEM (Or.) Nov. 5.—Emmet Bancroft, alias Neil Hart, was hanged at the Oregon State penitentiary for the murder of Sheriff Til Taylor, at Pendleton, July 25, at 8:37 this morning. Bancroft was pronounced dead at 8:41 o'clock.

Bancroft's last words were: "I regret what I have done. I feel that God is on my side and I am not afraid to go when he calls me."

BREAK JAIL.

Neil Hart, half-breed Indian, killed Sheriff Til Taylor, Pendleton round-up chief, Sunday afternoon, July 25, and, with five companions, broke from the Umatilla County Jail and fled to the timbered hills.

Out came rifles and revolvers, and Pendleton business men, professional men and cattle raisers, many of whom once rode the range, took to their horses and automobiles and set out in pursuit of the escaped men. Within a week the prisoners were rounded up and back in jail, and Hart had confessed to the murder.

GRAPPLES WITH PRISONER.

Gus Wyrick, who was with Taylor at the time of the murder, told the details of the shooting. The men, he said, in breaking jail, first overpowered Jake Martin, the jailer. Taylor, entering his office as Martin was attacked, saw the men fleeing and grappled with Jim Owens, Hart's pal, while Wyrick knocked down Jack Rathie, another prisoner who had entered the sheriff's office grabbing for guns. Hart followed Rathie into the room, and picking up a revolver which Taylor had dropped, fired two shots over Owens's shoulder. The first went wild, but on the second Taylor dropped. He died a few hours later.

BOARD FREIGHT TRAIN.

Seizing a supply of ammunition and guns, the prisoners fled from the jail and climbed aboard a passing freight train. Wyrick and deputy sheriffs gave the alarm, and, in a short time, officers and citizens were on their way on horseback, by train and in automobiles, searching for the men. Posses came from other parts of Oregon and Washington and Idaho towns, for Sheriff Taylor was known throughout the Northwest and numbered his friends by the hundreds.

A fresh hunt for the chase kept up. Finally by the following Saturday the men were all captured. Albert Lindgren, the first man arrested, was found near Cayuse, not far from Pendleton. It was later established Lindgren had no part in the shooting. Hart and Owens were run to earth and found in a sheep camp in the high mountains of Union county near the head of the Umatilla River. They were disarmed and were taken without a fight. Rathie was found on a road near the Umatilla River, and Louis Anderson and Richard Patterson, who also escaped, were taken from aboard a freight train at Kamela.

MAD MAN BEATS TWO TO DEATH.

Jailer and Trusty in New Jersey Are Murdered by Crazed Prisoner.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MT. HOLLY (N. J.) Nov. 5. Deputy Warden W. Harry King of the Burlington County Jail and Charles Vernon Bartlett, a trusty, were beaten to death with a stove poker in the jail today by Harry Asay, a prisoner, who was said to be suffering from delirium tremens. King was killed when he went to Asay's cell to give him medicine. Rushing from the cell, Asay encountered Bartlett in the jail kitchen, beating him so severely that he died tonight. Another trusty also was attacked, but escaped. Asay then fled to the jail yard and tried to scale a twenty-foot wall. Failing, he armed himself with an ax and an iron pipe, threatening Joseph Jones, colored prisoner, who had grappled with him in jail. He was subdued a few minutes later and locked up. Asay, a scrap-iron dealer of Burlington, was arrested Wednesday night for drunkenness and sentenced to a month in jail. He developed delirium tremens and was placed under the care of the prison physician. King was 60 years old.

PROPOSES CURFEW TO PREVENT CRIME.

CHICAGO ALDERMAN SEEKS LAW APPLYING TO YOUTHS UNDER MAJORITY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—A new curfew may toll the knell of crime breeding in Chicago. Those under the age of 21 may soon respond to its alarm.

Alderman Robert J. Mulcahy, after reading the grand jury report criticising parents and charging that most crimes were committed by persons between 21 and 25 years old, favors a curfew for Chicago youths below voting age.

The hour when the signal to abandon public places and return home would be sounded, has not yet been determined by Alderman Mulcahy. Parents and others interested in welfare of children will be interviewed first, he said.

The Alderman said he proposes to introduce an order for the curfew at the next meeting of the City Council.

TAKE $41,000 IN LIBERTY ISSUES FROM BANK MESSENGER IN CHICAGO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Four bandits this morning held up a messenger of the Hyde Park State Bank of Chicago and escaped with a satchel containing $41,000 in Liberty Bonds and coupons in addition to $257,000 in non-negotiable checks. The messenger and a bystander were shot and beaten.

EVERETT BANK ROBBED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

EVERETT (Wash.) Nov. 5.—About $1500 was taken by hold-ups at noon today from the Riverside branch of the Everett Bank of Commerce by two youths who entered the bank, backed the cashier and book-keeper against the sides of their cages and then swept clean the cash drawers and money desks. They walked away unmolested.

STOREHOUSE SCHEME IS CAUSE OF ARREST.

NEW YORKER CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY AND FRAUD HELD ON BAIL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5. — Adolph Frieden, president of a chain of storehouses in Manhattan, capitalized at $725,000, was arrested in Brooklyn today, charged with grand larceny and held in $5000 bail for a hearing next Tuesday. Dist.-Atty. Lewis of Kings county said the man had been named in complaints claiming fraud and that investments in the storehouse companies would exceed $500,000.

Hundreds of persons were induced to invest in the storehouse companies by promise of 40 per cent dividends, Mr. Lewis said. One of the complainants, Thomas Fyne of Brooklyn, filed an affidavit claiming Fricken had defrauded him of $15,400. The arrest grew out of this charge.

Police said Fricken served five and a half years in Sing Sing prison for a series of larcenies, was convicted and served eight years for forgery in Philadelphia, and at one time, as a fugitive from justice, was pursued over all of Europe and was finally arrested in St. Paul.

Two Manhattan lawyers, a brother-in-law of Fricken, and a Brooklyn man, are named as officers of the chain of storehouses.

DEMOCRAT WINS SEAT BY A SMALL MARGIN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5. — Representative J. Charles Linthicum (Dem.) was re-elected from the Fourth Congress District, according to the official canvass of the returns from the district, completed today. His plurality over Atwood (Rep.) is 1017.

PUBLIC GETS BENEFITS OF LOWER COSTS

Merchants Holding to Top Prices Have Another Guess Coming, is Belief.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Merchants who have been hoping they could maintain high prices for clothing until after the heavy Christmas buying, were given a hard jolt, when two of the great mail-order houses announced radical reductions in the prices of all winter apparel. The cuts range from 10 to 25 per cent from the July catalogue price list.

One house announces reduction of 25 per cent in men's shirts of all materials and in women's silk hosiery. A 20 per cent reduction is announced in women's dresses, blankets, comforters, woolen yarns, ribbons, men's work trousers and overalls. Another house cuts women's plush coats from $39.95 to $25. Garments listed at $35 are cut to $19.95 and those selling at $54.50 are reduced to $38.

Men's all-wool suits listed at $47.50 to $52.50 are reduced to $39.95. This percentage ranges down the entire line. It also applies to wool and cotton underwear. These reductions are already being reflected in the retail stores here and elsewhere. Jobbers have been forced to reduce their outstanding credits, the banks are limiting loans and the only way to obtain money is to sell the merchandise on hand at prices the public will pay.

FOUR THOUSAND VOTES DEFEAT CHAMP CLARK.

COUNT PROVES CLOSE IN TWO MISSOURI CONGRESS DISTRICTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5.—Complete unofficial figures for the Ninth Missouri Congress District show that Champ Clark lost his seat in the House to T. W. Hukriede of Warrenton by 3913 votes.

Republicans tonight were confident that Representative Bland of the Fifth District had been defeated by Ellis (Rep.,) but so few votes separated the two that the result probably will not be known until the official count.

In the Second District which the unofficial count gave to Rucker (Dem.) by a small majority, the Republicans also were certain that a change would be shown in the official count and that Bezzell (Rep.) would win.

HARDING MAJORITY IN IDAHO IS RECORD ONE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOISE (Idaho) Nov. 5.—Senator Harding's majority in Idaho was reduced approximately 2000 votes tonight by revised figures from Payette county, but remains above 24,000, a record for the State.

The revision increased the lead of Gooding (Rep.) over Nugent (Dem.) in the Senatorial race to 18,405 on returns from 440 precincts.

BRITISH TO EXPLORE THE ANTARCTIC REGION

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Capt. G. H. Wilkins, noted British explorer, was here today for a short stay preparatory to going to Montevideo, where he will embark with the British Antarctic expedition on the steamer Tor, for a voyage of exploration through the South Seas. The Thor will sail in two months. She is now on the way to South America from Standford, Norway.

From 1913 until 1917 Capt. Wilkins was with Vilhjalmur Stefansson on his Polar expedition.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

NAVY GETTING MANY RECRUITS.

Warships Now Tied up to be Put in Commission.

Training Stations Busy Sending Men to Fleets.

Expect to Reach Full Strength Before March 1.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Recruiting for the Navy is progressing so satisfactorily that naval officials believe it soon will be possible to send to sea a large number of vessels of all classes now carried on paper as part of the fleets, but actually tied up in navy yards for lack of crews.

Recruits are entering at more than 1000 a week, and the training stations are daily sending large numbers of men to the fleets after the completion of four months of training.

On November 1 the Navy was only 8000 men short of the authorized strength of approximately 141,000, and the department believed that the full strength will be reached before March 1.

Eighteen battleships are now with the Atlantic and Pacific fleets on active duty, while four others have full crews. Thirteen of the old-type ships are out of commission.

HAVE FEW DESTROYERS.

Of the 243 modern destroyers completed only sixty-five are now in full commission and of these twenty-five are in European waters or are outfitting for service abroad. Of the remainder, 130 are laid up with crews of thirty men aboard. The others are out of commission entirely.

It is explained that there is no intention of ever placing full crews aboard all the destroyers in time of peace as the Navy now has a superabundance of this type of vessel. About 10 per cent of the destroyers eventually will be kept fully manned and on duty with the fleets and the others given large enough crews to keep them ready for duty in time of emergency.

CAN DEPEND ON RESERVE.

The naval reserve force, naval officers say, can always be depended upon to provide trained crews for the destroyers and battleships in store when occasion demands.

The modern submarines are out of commission, according to naval officials, but thirty-six of these vessels of the older types are without full crews. Difficulty has been experienced in training men for the submarines due to the peculiar personal nature of the duty.

Of the fifty-five eagle boats on the naval list, thirty-one are fully manned, with twenty-six cruisers and gunboats in full commission and four in reduced commission or laid up.

The substantial increase in pay granted the Navy at the last session of Congress, together with the recent announcement of an extended cruise by the Atlantic and Pacific fleets this winter to ports in South America, Africa, Australia and New Zealand, have served to greatly stimulate enlistments, officials at the department say.

APPEAL OF SLAYER REFUSED BY COURT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Nov. 5.—The appeal of Allen Y. Grammer, Howard county youth, under sentence of death for the murder of Mrs. Lulu Vere, has been dismissed by the United States Circuit Court at St. Louis, according to a telegram received today by Atty.-Gen. C. A. Sorenson.

Grammer, with Alex B. Cole, was convicted of first degree murder three years ago. Cole has been granted sixteen reprieves, and Grammer thirteen. Cole recently was granted a new trial. The granting of a new trial to Cole probably will necessitate another reprieve for Grammer, the State desiring his testimony.

JAILED JAILER WINS JOB OF HIS JAILER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WHITESBURG (Ky.) Nov. 5.—Probably the most unusual outcome of Tuesday's election in Kentucky was the victory of Fess Whitaker, jailer of Whitesburg, over Stephen Combs, Jr., in the race for county jailer, Whitaker having been sentenced to his own jail for six months by Judge Combs on the charge of attacking county officers, including the Sheriff.

After being placed in the jail of which he was the legal keeper, Whitaker escaped, was recaptured and sentenced for jail-breaking.

Following one of the most exciting campaigns known to the mountains of Kentucky, Whitaker, though in jail, won over Judge Combs by more than 1600 majority. Gov. Morrow has three times refused to pardon Whitaker.

COX INSISTS HE IS PROUD; FALLS BACK ON JEFFERSON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 5.—Gov. Cox in his first statement since the election tonight said that in spirit he was as proud as when the fight started and that he would not retrace a step nor yield a single jot in principle. The statement follows:

For the first time in ten years the Republican party is in complete control of the legislative and executive branches of the national government. Therefore, policy as to statute and administration is with it. Its task is no longer that of the critic, but the constructor. It is my hope and firm belief that the democracy of the nation will not attempt political sabotage. The country has seen quite enough of that.

We are in the midst of an emergency and the nation's every resource should co-ordinate in behalf of the things that are helpful. So long as government exists the principles of Thomas Jefferson will be the center about which human hopes will gather. Talk of a new party is absurd. One might as well discuss the destruction of human emotions.

As essential as it had been to the welfare of the country in the past, the creed of democracy is more needed now than ever because recent events have made it distinctly the American party.

In spirit I am as proud as when the fight started. I would not retrace a step nor yield a single jot in principle. It was a privilege to make the contest for the right in the face of overwhelming odds. There is a distinct difference between defeat and surrender. The flag of democracy still flies as the symbol of things more enduring than the passions and resentment that come with the aftermath of war.

Venizelos Will Quit if Beaten in the Election.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

ATHENS, Nov. 5.—Premier Venizelos, replying to Demetrios Gounaris, former Premier and Minister of War and leader of the opposition, who returned to Greece recently after three years of exile, today gave the "assurance that if I am defeated in the elections I will retire definitely from the political field."

The Premier said the question of the dynasty was squarely before the people.

"Those who vote for the Liberal party ought to know that the significance of their vote is that the fallen King (Constantine) cannot return to the throne," he declared.

HOLLAND PLANS TO REDUCE ITS ARMY.

PROPOSAL MADE BY GOVERNMENT TO PARLIAMENT LIKELY OF ADOPTION.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

THE HAGUE, Nov. 5.—Reduction of Holland's army from 460,000 to 250,000, was proposed by the Dutch government to the Parliament today, and it is believed certain, the legislative branch will adopt the proposals. Gen. W. F. Pop, Minister of War, said:

"With the joining by Holland, of the League of Nations, the government thought of maintaining a waiting attitude with regard to the influence our joining would have on international affairs. Nevertheless, Holland considered her military program in the light of her participation."

In so doing, added the general, the government took into account first, possible security against war, due to the League; second, the necessity for having some defense until the League was able to come to its assistance, and third, the possible necessity for contributing troops under the League's provisions. Even if security was not yet certain, he said, it was now possible to reduce the cost of defense.

The plan provides that conscripts be drilled only a few days each week, instead of living at barracks. It includes compulsory physical training for school youths between the ages of 14 and 19 years.

BOUGHT RYE WHISKY; RECEIVED CONCOCTION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MONTREAL, Nov. 5.—Five hundred cases of rye whisky, for which he paid $5000, were found to contain a concoction of wood alcohol, chloroform, etc., when delivered in the United States, E. Davis of Detroit, testified today in the trial of J. A. Peuant and R. Ricor, alleged traffickers in spirits.

Davis said he came to Montreal last May, bought the whisky and had it shipped to a Detroit produce dealer as a carload of potatoes.

ADRIATIC QUESTION AGREEMENT REACHED.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The London Times prints a dispatch from Rome which gives the Populo Romano as authority for the statement that an agreement on the Adriatic question has been reached, the Jugo-Slavs having obtained satisfaction by Italy renouncing her claim to Dalmatia.

TULARE COUNTY SUES FOR FRANCHISE TAX.

DENIES AUTHORITY OF RAILROAD COMMISSION TO EXEMPT CORPORATIONS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

VISALIA, Nov. 5. — Contending that the Railroad Commission of California has no authority to relieve public service corporations from payment of the 2 per cent franchise tax to the county, Tulare county today filed suit against the Mt. Whitney Power and Electric Company and the Southern California Edison Company to collect this tax on the gross earnings of the former Tulare County Power Company, which was brought out by the defendants in 1915.

The allegation is made that the Railroad Commission instructed the Mt. Whitney company not to operate under the franchise of the Tulare County Power Company without permission from the commission. The suit filed today follows the action some months ago to collect this tax from the San Joaquin Light and Power Company. The verdict in this case was against the San Joaquin company. The case is now under appeal.

NIGHT LIFE DOOMED IN CHICAGO CABARETS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The doom of Chicago's night life was forecast today by Charles A. Clyne, District Attorney, when he notified every well-known cabaret in the city to not only cease selling liquor, but to prohibit guests bringing their own.

Mr. Clyne threatened to close every place where guests were allowed to use hip-pocket flasks and to arrest the proprietors and waiters for violation of the Volstead Act.

EMPANEL JURY IN DR. RUMELY TRIAL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A jury was empaneled in Federal court today for the trial of Dr. Edward A. Rumely, former publisher and owner of the Evening Mail, indicted with his two attorneys for alleged conspiracy to defraud the government.

Dr. Rumely, charged with having attempted to violate the trading-with-the-enemy act by making a false statement to the Alien Property Custodian as to the German ownership of the newspaper, was arrested before the close of the war in 1918.

RAILROAD SEEKS TO ISSUE GOLD BONDS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Authority to issue $95,000,000 in 6 per cent gold bonds was asked of the Interstate Commerce Commission today by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad for the purpose of funding the road's indebtedness of $60,000,000 to the government, incurred during Federal control, and as security for a loan from the government amounting to $5,130,000.

Announce Chile-to-Sweden Line.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

VALPARAISO (Chile) Nov. 5.—Alexander Johnson, the Swedish millionaire shipowner, president of the Johnson line of steamers, arrived today on board one of his own vessels and announced plans for fortnightly sailings of the steamers of his line between Sweden and Chile.

DISCUSS LEAGUE'S FATE.

British Papers Attribute Harding Success to Revolt Against Wilson.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Weekly Dispatch, commenting on the election of Warren Harding to the Presidency of the United States, attributes it to being primarily due to a revolt against Wilsonism. Occasion is taken by several of the journals to criticize President Wilson's policy severely. As an instance the Daily Mail says:

"President Wilson's name will go down to posterity as one of the greatest failures of history."

All of the reviews discuss the fate of the League of Nations, the consensus being that the force of events will drive the United States away from the policy of isolation.

"All accounts agree," says the Observer, "that there is a feeling throughout America in favor of the principle of associating the great nations in the common work of preventing war. That is enough for us."

ISOLATION IMPOSSIBLE.

The Economist also thinks that complete isolation by the United States is impossible.

"We may be confident," says this magazine, "that the American people which during six years kept a large part of the population of Europe alive and rendered splendid service to the defenders of popular liberties, will not be found wanting at any great crisis in the future remaking of a distracted Old World."

SEES EUROPE DISGRACED.

The Nation, in an editorial, taking the line that a spread of Bolshevism and fear of being engulfed in the morass of European political and economic troubles led the Americans to vote for Republicanism and what it terms virtual isolation, remarks that the election of Senator Harding means tariffs and subsidies and the big stick for reactionary labor unions and radicalism.

The Nation adds: "Europe has disgraced herself in the eyes of Americans . . . Sympathy with the Allies has evaporated and given place to suspicion and hostility. Never were the relations with England worse since the crisis of Venezuela. The infamy of our Irish policy, the grabbing of mandates, over-representations by the British Empire in the League of Nations and our world struggle for oil are some of the ingredients in this brew of enmity."

Last Night Thousands Beheld

The LIVING EMBODIMENT of MUSIC

Last night the music of motion became one with the glorious harmonies of the masterpieces.
The divine compositions of Grieg, Chopin, Schubert, Debussy, Beethoven, Liszt and Brahms were envisioned in living forms, their spirit literally incarnated in the grace and beauty of

RUTH ST. DENIS CONCERT DANCERS who appeared with Ann Thompson and Everett Olive, Pianists, and Ellis Rhodes, Tenor Jointly With
The Ampico in the Knabe
At Trinity Auditorium

Never before was such an elaborate spectacle attempted by any other dancers.

Ruth St. Denis has achieved a new art, was the verdict of the critics.

And, like a magnificent tapestry of ravishing tones, that formed the setting for last night's spectacle, bringing out the full beauty of the dance, the masterful renditions of Godowsky, Rachmaninoff and other great pianists, as reproduced by the AMPICO in the KNABE, received a liberal share of the praise of critics and audience.

The exalted position given the AMPICO in the KNABE by Ruth St. Denis in selecting it for the pianistic support of her most ambitious achievement, is a tribute never paid to any other instrument. Never before has any other reproducing piano been so featured, on any other occasion of equal artistic importance.

And when added to the honors already paid to the AMPICO in its repeated featuring in joint recitals with the world's foremost pianists, Godowsky, Rachmaninoff, Ornstein, Levitzki, Rubinstein, Moiseiwitsch, Olga Steeb and others, as well as with the leading symphony orchestras of the world, the pre-eminence of this instrument becomes self-evident.

The AMPICO in the KNABE is for the home as well as the concert hall—for your individual enjoyment and your family's culture and pleasure, as well as for the delight of great audiences.

We extend to you now the very cordial invitation to come to our Ampico studios and enjoy a program by the greatest of the world's virtuosi.

MEANS AMENDMENT TO LEAGUE.

Approval of Root-Phillimore Commission Plans by Council of League Means Court Will Take Obligatory Jurisdiction in Disputes of Nations.

BY WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

[Copyright.]

European dispatches report that the Council of the League has approved the report of the Root-Phillimore commission as to the new international court of justice for the League. It has already been pointed out in these columns that the plan for a permanent court of international justice, which Article XIV makes it the duty of the Council to formulate and submit to the members of the League for adoption, is by that article to be a court whose jurisdiction depends on agreement of both parties to the dispute, but that the plan of the Root-Phillimore commission contains a provision by which the court is to exercise obligatory jurisdiction at the instance of either party, in-justiciable issues which the plan describes and defines. In other words, the Council, by approving and submitting the Root-Phillimore plan to the members of the League, has gone beyond the jurisdiction conferred on it by Article XIV, and its recommendation, therefore, if accepted and approved by the League, will be an amendment of Articles XV and XVI in reference to the disposition of justiciable questions.

SWEDEN MAKES OBJECTION.

The dispatches report that one or two countries, notably Sweden, have objected to the plan of the Root-Phillimore commission, because it does amend the League and change the obligation of nations under it in reference to justiciable issues. In order to give effect, therefore, to the Root——Phillimore plan, the report must be adopted as an amendment to the League, would be adopted.

The action of the Council means that the plan has received the approval of the representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, who have permanent representatives in the Council, and also of the representatives of Spain, Brazil, Belgium, and Greece, who temporarily have representatives in the Council.

NEEDS MAJORITY APPROVAL.

Article XXVI of the covenant provides that amendments to the Covenant shall take effect when ratified by the members of the League, whose representatives compose the Council and by a majority of the members of the League, whose representatives compose the Assembly. All that is necessary, therefore, to add this court plan to the League, with the new and obligatory jurisdiction which it confers upon the court, is that the recommendation of the Council shall be approved by a majority of the Assembly. If any member dissents from the amendment, it is not to be bound thereby, but it is to cease to be a member of the League.

The favorable action of the Council representing the influential nations seems likely to find the support of at least a majority of the members of the Assembly of the League and creates a strong probability that the Root-Phillimore plan will be adopted. This is a most important step and introduces into the League the kind of a court which Mr. Harding, who was elected last Tuesday, has indicated his purpose to seek to make the central feature of the substituted and amended League, which he hopes to induce members of the present League to adopt.

Japanese Here Cable Premier; Urge Patience.

"We earnestly advise Japan to be calm and patient at this moment," says a cablegram dealing with the alien land law sent yesterday to Premier Hara of Japan and to Baron K. Shibusawa, president of the Chamber of Commerce at Tokio, by the Los Angeles officers of the California Japanese Association of Southern California.

The cable, which says that the Japanese here have a plan to solve the problem, follows:

"Passage of the California alien land law is a great blow upon the agricultural endeavors of our people, but we have plans to solve the problem. We are informed that the people of Japan are accustomed to excitement by the passage of this discriminatory act in California, so we earnestly advise Japan to be calm and patient at this moment. We believe that the American sense of fairness and the national sense of justice will not permit discriminatory legislation by one State."

NOVEMBER FIRST IS HIS UNLUCKY DAY.

FRANK MORGAN WILL HEREAFTER OBSERVE IT AS HOLIDAY TO AVOID TROUBLE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Frank Morgan has declared one holiday that will be observed rigorously for the rest of his life.

November 1 is his day of days. He is now in the hospital here with a crack in his skull, a broken arm, a sprained back, some internal dislocations and a number of bruises to prove it.

On Nov. 1, 1918, Sergt. Frank Morgan was chief of the first section of Battery A, One Hundred and Twenty-fourth Field Artillery, at Romagne. A German shell exploded in the trail of the regiment. Morgan was badly wounded. He was invalided home and for more than a year was totally incapacitated.

Some months ago he went to work for the Otis Elevator Company as an installation man. His recovery was complete.

Then came Nov. 1, 1920. He stepped into a shaft and fell three floors.

Ponzi Here? Nay, Says Boston; Who is Swath-Cutter?

Charles Ponzi, famed for his sudden rise to the rank of a shoestring millionaire through skillful manipulation of other people's money intrusted to him on a get-rich-quick scheme, was reported yesterday to be in Los Angeles, living in princely fashion at a downtown hotel. Boston, however, where Ponzi recently was arrested and released on bail, reports that he is still in the East.

The report that Ponzi is here related that he is registered under an assumed name, has several servants and is cutting quite a swath. A check at the hotel where he was supposed to be staying failed to reveal any trace of him.

STORE OPEN TODAY.

Edifice at Broadway and Sixth is of Unique Design.

The new Sun Drug Company store at Sixth street and Broadway, one of the very few buildings designed especially for drug store purposes, will be opened to the public today.

In it is one of the largest soda fountains in California, a model prescription department, a special appliances salesroom, a cigar department and liberal space for toilet articles, remedies, sundries and candies.

A former store on the same site became a link in the Sun chain nineteen years ago, when the Sun Drug Company was organized.

COLORED TEAMS TO BATTLE FOR TITLE.

It looks like wild times at the White Sox ball park tomorrow with Bobby Meusel, who wrecked the Angels' chances for the Pacific Coast pennant in 1919, playing first base for the All Stars in the game against the colored team at the East Fourth-street park.

On the same team will be Bobby's brother, Irish, who held all records for home-run hitting in the National League this year, and a lot of other big league stars. Fred Adams, who worked for Seattle this season, has been signed to catch the slants of Spec Meadows, the Philly pitcher who won twenty and lost eleven games with a losing team this year. Spec is said to be the only pitcher in the big leagues who wears eye aids. Speed Rogan is to oppose him on the slab. The White Sox an dAll Stars have each won a game apiece.

SEVENTY-TWO NEW CITIZENS.

Seventy-two applications for citizenship were acted upon favorably yesterday by U. S. District Judge Bledsoe. The applications of some Germans were held under advisement because they could not prove that they had not escaped military service by pleading noncitizenship. The nationalities were represented as follows: Subjects of Great Britain, 39; France, 2; Austria, 7; Italy, 6; Germany, 5; Sweden, 5; Russia, 6; Denmark, 5; Switzerland, 2; Montenegro, Norway, Belgium and Spain, one each.

NOT A CANDIDATE, BUT IS ELECTED.

Oregon Woman is Named Mayor and Then Told She Has the Job.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BURNS (Or.) Nov. 5.—Although her name was not on the ballot, Mrs. Grace B. Lampahire was elected Mayor of Burns at last Tuesday's election, her name being written in by her friends. She had not announced her candidacy for the office. Her first knowledge that she was being considered for it came when she was notified of her election.

Burns is the Harney county seat, located in remote Central Oregon. It has a population of about 500.

TOURIST RUSH ON.

Theatrical Man Says It'll be Heavier Than Ever.

D. J. Grauman, vice-president of Grauman's Million-Dollar Theater, who returned to Los Angeles yesterday after several weeks spent in New York, declares that Southern California generally, and this city particularly, will have the biggest and best tourist season in its history.

"Westbound trains are loaded to capacity," said Mr. Grauman, "and reservations must be made two weeks in advance. Never was there such volume of traffic. The people who are leaving the East for California are not only the usual wealthy tourists who spend the winter here, but thousands of homeseekers.

"From the Middle West farmers and merchants, all men of means, are coming by the hundreds. Every indication points to a record season. With the national election over there should be an unparalleled era of prosperity, and the Pacific Coast, especially Southern California, I believe, will get its share."

TO HOIST SELF BY BOOTSTRAPS.

County to Try to Both Clear and Convict Mrs. Peete.

Public Money Will Prosecute and Defend Her.

Unique Situation Arises from Her Lack of Funds.

The county of Los Angeles will be the prosecutor and defender of Mrs. Edith L. Peete and will try to the best of its ability and resources to clear and free her of the charge of murdering J. C. Denton, the legal—and probably final—element of the opposing forces in the sensational case was definitely placed yesterday after a long conference between Mrs. Peete and her attorneys at which it was decided to ask Public Defender Walton J. Wood to represent the woman at her trial November 29.

The action to the Public Defender, as was previously discussed by Mrs. Peete and the attorneys, who have been representing her since the death of her indictment, was made necessary by the inability of Mrs. Peete and Richard C. Peete, her husband, to raise the funds needed to pay for her the proper legal defense at the hands of private attorneys. After expressing their confidence in Mrs. Peete's innocence and offering their own services to her without pay, Attorneys W. H. Hynd, W. D. Van Nostran and Frank Domingues were unable to make arrangements for obtaining funds with which to hire experts to make investigations. This forced the appeal to the Public Defender, who is charged by the charter with the duty of representing every accused person unable to retain an attorney or any prisoner whom the court may indicate.

Formal withdrawal of Attorneys Hynd and Van Nostran will take place Monday morning, when Mrs. Peete will be brought before Judge Willis and the change to Public Defender Wood will be recorded in the records of the case. Walton J. Wood, who has the distinction of being the only Public Defender in the United States and the further distinction of being the fourth on the list of the people just elected to the Superior bench, will appear for Mrs. Peete personally, and will be assisted by one or more of his deputies. The date set for the opening of the trial practically assures that it will be Mr. Wood's last one to make an appearance on the bench, as it will be his best opportunity of closing the working of the Public Defender's office in a naturally protracted case.

On the other hand, should the case go on until after January 1, when

SABOTAGE NEW WEAPON IN PACKERS' STRIKE.

Attempt to Wreck Produce Trains is Narrowly Thwarted; Reward Out for Suspected Firebugs.

Eight box cars on the Santa Fe Railroad loaded with vegetables from the plants affected by the strike of fruit and vegetable packers here were found yesterday to have been tampered with in such a way that a wreck would have been certain had not the facts been discovered before the cars were started East.

The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association offered $300 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who are believed to have started the $100,000 fire Thursday night at the John Nix & Co. fruit and produce establishment, 1805 East Seventh street. It was at this company that workmen reported for assignments to the jobs of the strikers. Capt. Enos of the Fire Department and Detective James Bean of the arson squad believe, however, that the fire was due to damaged insulation of electric light wires.

Another fire, within less than a block from the Nix fire, was started at practically the same time on the property of another fruit and produce company that has been operating an open shop. The manager was able to put out the flames before they gained headway, he declared.

Shippers belonging to the vegetable dealers' department of the Produce Exchange, numbering about thirty, have declared unanimously in favor of the open shop and have agreed to have no further dealings with the union.

PICKETS WITHDRAWN.

Pickets, who were asserted to be interfering with employees of the plants affected, were called from their posts following the publication in The Times yesterday morning of the fact that the pickets were violating the antipicketing ordinance.

Railroad employees discovered evidence that loaded vegetable cars, spotted at the plants of the shippers, had been tampered with and investigation showed that the packing had been removed from the journal-boxes in which the axles of the car wheels revolve. Sand, emery and metal filings had been substituted.

"About eight cars treated in such a manner have been found in the last two days," stated Yardmaster C. A. Brown at the Santa Fe yesterday. "If the cars had started out in that condition, the journals would have been burned out in a few miles and undoubtedly would have resulted in a bad wreck, because the train on which the cars would have gone makes few stops and travels at a fast rate.

"Special orders have been given for very careful inspection of all cars on account of the discoveries. If the journal-boxes were 'loaded' in order to delay shipment of the vegetables, or to cause damage to them, the purpose of the scheme was defeated by the early detection, and now all cars are very closely inspected."

Extra precautions to guard closely the property of the shippers who have refused to bow to the union were taken last night.

DEFEAT ADMITTED.

C. F. Compton, former member of the executive board of the union and an active leader in the strike, admitted that, without the power to picket the places of the thirty shippers affected, the strike is lost.

"If we can't picket we are beaten," he said. "Our pickets have been trying to conduct their work without violence and only sober men were used, but all were called off duty at noon."

"The unauthorized strike has done little more than to bring from all the members of the vegetable dealers' department of the Produce Exchange the resolution that our business is hereafter open shop only. We are done with the union," declared L. K. Small, executive chairman of the shippers' organization. "The only ill effect of the strike has been the intimidation of union workmen by the men who chose to quit. Without the pickets harassing our workmen, there will be no sign of a strike."

Mr. Compton, who was found at what the men call "the hump," a poolroom near Seventh and Central that serves as the strikers' headquarters, admitted the strike was not brought about in the regular, authorized manner and that no secret strike ballot was taken.

NO REGULAR VOTE.

"If we had gone about it in the regular manner and got the approval of the American Federation of Labor it would have been February before we would have been authorized to quit. And if we had taken the secret ballot we would have to notify every member and that would have taken too long. The vote was merely an open motion in regular meeting, because if we had to wait the rush season for the shippers would have been over and the strike would have had no force.

"Of our membership of more than 400, we have registered 238 who are on strike. Some of the boys have stepped over the traces a little, but we are keeping all those who are drinking in the background."

"No proper demand for conference regarding wages was made on the employers before the walkout," Mr. Small asserted. "We were served with a notice that a new schedule of wages would be effective November 1, but we were not consulted about it and the financial secretary refused to discuss the matter with me two days before the walkout."

The wage demands were for an increase from $4 a day to $5 for unskilled labor, and from $5 for loaders, packers and truckers to $6.50 a day with time and a half for overtime.

FARMER-LABOR PARTY HEAD ARRIVES HERE

PARLEY P. CHRISTENSEN TO SPEAK TODAY; SURE OF FINAL VICTORY.

Parley Parker Christensen, unsuccessful candidate for President on the Farmer-Labor ticket, arrived in Los Angeles last night on what he termed "the beginning of the 1924 campaign." As the Presidential ticket did not appear on the California ballot, Mr. Christensen said that his first work in this State will be to acquaint the people with the policy and purpose of the party.

"Judging from my trip across the continent before, and since the election," he said last night, "I am confident that we have polled between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 votes. Of couse this can not be ascertained as yet, as there is no count except one of the Republican and Democratic votes. I expect that we will carry the Lower House of Congress in 1922, and the Presidency in 1924."

With Mr. Christensen, is Dr. George F. Hall, the man who nominated him at the convention in Chicago. Mr. Christensen will speak this noon at the City Club, tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the Labor Temple, at 4 o'clock in Blanchard Hall, and again in the evening at Blanchard Hall. Tuesday evening he will speak at San Bernardino, and Wednesday at San Diego.

TAXI DRIVER ROBBED.

Patrons Take Both His Money and His Automobile.

Two highwaymen armed with revolvers last night held up DeWitt Scott, a taxicab driver, at Sixty-second and San Pedro streets and, after they had robbed him of $21, forced him to get out of his car, in which they drove away.

Mr. Scott told detectives at University Police Station that the men hired his cab at 207 West Fifth street, where he has his stand, and ordered him to drive to a fictitious address. He did not suspect the men until they gruffly commanded him to stop and drew their guns.

WILL ASK AID OF GOVERNMENT

Service Men Aim Deathblow at Housing Profiteers.

Would Have Council Declare Emergency State Here.

To Treat City Just as if It Had been Hit by Flood.

Thanksgiving Day will probably find 3000 to 4000 families in this city living in tents furnished by the War Department.

At the luncheon given yesterday by Los Angeles Post No. 8, American Legion, in the Washington Building, Mayor Snyder and members of the City Council pledged their support to the housing plan of the post, which provides for the formal declaration of an emergency on the part of the Council, coupled with a request that the War Department supply tents with which to meet the emergency and so provide living places for homeless thousands in this city.

"I am most heartily in favor of this plan," said Mayor Snyder, "and I am confident that the Council will take the formal steps necessary to put the matter squarely up to the War Department, either Monday or Tuesday of next week."

The plan of the post, which is called the "Harris housing plan," contemplates the erection of an immense municipal camp in Exposition Park, use being made of tents to be secured from the government. In order to get government equipment for such a purpose, it is necessary that the municipal authorities first declare the existence of an emergency, and then make a specific request for what it needs of the government. In other words, Los Angeles will be treated just as if it had gone through a flood, or a fire or pestilence.

LIKE PESTILENCE.

"The rent hog has apparently done his work as effectively here as has the boll weevil or any other pest in another region, and it has become necessary to call on the government for aid," says a statement issued yesterday by the post.

R. W. Meyers, S. S. Hahn, H. Harris and other members of the housing committee of the post yesterday told of the hardships which have been visited upon returned soldiers and their families, as well as upon thousands of other families in the city, by the greed of the rent hog, and then presented their plan for meeting the situation.

Mayor Snyder, Councilmen Farmer, Langdon and Conaway expressed their appreciation of the gravity of the situation and their willingness to do all in their power to remedy it. United States Zone Finance Officer Foster then outlined the formal steps which will be necessary to get the assistance of the government.

WANT ARMY TENTS.

The post then adopted the following resolutions: "In view of the housing emergency existing in the city of Los Angeles, it is hereby resolved that the Mayor and City Council declare such an emergency to be a fact, and that these officials call upon the War Department for the loan of army tents to meet the desperate need for habitations."

J. J. Backus, chief inspector of the department of buildings, said that the plan seemed reasonable and practical in every detail, and that he saw no reason why it could not be carried out. The same sentiment was expressed by Thomas Hatherly, president of the housing commission of the department of health. He added that only the night before the meeting the Housing Commission had decided to ask the building inspector to permit the erection of tent house courts for the next four months to meet the emergency.

H. H. Harris, father of the post's plan, believes that $50 or $60 will be the limit of the initial expense to families desiring tent quarters. Light, water and other necessary facilities can be very easily supplied at Exposition Park, he pointed out yesterday, and if the expected approval of the plan is given by the government, the tents should be sent down from San Francisco within a few weeks. This means that by the end of this month many hundreds or even thousands of families may be housed, temporarily at least, in government tents and that the rent hog will get the jolt of his fat young life.

F. D. Sweger, executive secretary of the Housing Committee of the Department of Health, in discussing the tent court problem, declared that it would be a serious mistake for this city or any other city to enter upon a permanent policy of favoring or tolerating a general use of shacks or tents for housing purposes, but that the present emergency is of a character demanding a prompt remedy, and that the only known remedy, immediately applicable, is one which provides for the use of tents and almost any kind of shelter for the time being. Permits for the use of abodes of this character, it was pointed out, will be granted for a period of four months, but it will be made clear at the outset that the city does not intend to favor permanently any housing project which would tend to lower the level of comfort and sanitation in the homes of Los Angeles.

Those who are informed on the subject declare that if the Harris plan is adopted and carried through on a large scale it will inevitably have an immediate and depressing effect on rents, and that it may even break the strangle hold which the rent hog now has upon the city.

R. W. Pridham, representing the Chamber of Commerce, and Seth Brown, president of the Central Labor Council, were present yesterday and showed a lively interest in the project, as did Miss Minnie Allen, a housing inspector in the Department of Health, who has been gravely concerned over the effect which the crowded conditions now existing in so many houses may have upon the health of the community as a whole.

S. W. Meyers, who is chairman of the housing committee of Post No. 8, has had an experience with his landlord which causes one to wonder if a free speech league among tenants is not urgently needed here. He says that he has been occupying a house at 4620 South Vermont avenue under a verbal agreement by which the rent was to remain at $75 a month through the present year. He was recently told that he would have to pay $30, and protested. Then, he says, this ultimatum was delivered to him: "Not another word from you. For every word you speak I will raise you $5."

Mr. Meyer ripped out four rather crisp words and stopped. His rent had climbed from $25 to $45 a month! Then he was told a few days later to get out. He will have to move into a garage with his wife and two children.

ODD FELLOWS TO HELP.

Tomorrow the members of America Lodge No. 385, I.O.O.F., of this city, will motor out to 1397 West Eighty-seventh street and put on the finishing touches in a three-room bungalow, which they started last Sunday a week ago for William M. Davis, a member of the lodge, who was forced out of a house at 5014 Compton avenue. The Robekahs will cook the meals by camp fire for the home-builders.

PLUNGES TO DEATH.

Lineman Falls Head First from Telephone Pole Downtown.

Plunging head first from the top of a telephone pole in front of 253 East Third street, late yesterday afternoon, W. W. McCollum, 32 years of age, of 2424 South Hope street, a lineman employed by the Los Angeles Railway, was instantly killed. The body was removed to the White undertaking rooms.

According to pedestrians who saw Mr. McCollum fall, he was repairing a street-car wire just before he plunged to the ground. The police were unable to learn the cause of the accident.

TWO TRAFFIC SMASHES MAY PROVE FATAL

Aged Woman, Young Boy Struck Down in Different Districts at Same Hour.

Mrs. Ida Lambert, aged 44, of Suisun Valley in Solano county, was possibly fatally injured last night when she was struck by an automobile driven by L. C. Coombs of 4506 Melbourne avenue, as she was crossing Vermont avenue at La Mirada street on her way to the home of her son, Hardy Kenworthy of 4672 La Mirada street, where she and her husband have been visiting for the past week.

The elderly woman was rushed to the Receiving Hospital in the Hollywood police station ambulance and there it was learned that she had suffered a possible basal fracture of the skull.

According to Mr. Coombs's report to Detectives Oaker and Lopez, he was going north on Vermont avenue and had just turned to the left to pass another machine bound in the same direction when Mrs. Lambert and three other people stepped in front of his car. The other three pedestrians escaped, but Mrs. Lambert was knocked down.

At the time that the elderly woman was hit in Hollywood, a 12-year-old schoolboy was possibly fatally injured at Avenue 20 and North Broadway when he jumped from a truck on which he was stealing a ride and fell beneath the wheels of a trailer attached to the truck. He is Eddie Brown, of 408 North Figueroa street. At the Receiving Hospital, where he was taken it was learned that he had a fractured pelvis, a broken left leg and possibly internal injuries. He was later removed to the County Hospital.

The police are seeking the driver of the truck on which the boy was riding in order to learn further details of the accident.

BACK FROM SHADOW OF THE GIBBET.

Train Robber, Twice Saved from Hanging, Returns from Prison and the War.

A ghost from the gallows at San Quentin walked with faltering steps into the Sheriff's office yesterday, when a coughing, nervous individual presented himself to Undersheriff Manning.

This reminder of the past was "Kid" Thompson, who twice was sentenced to be hanged, whose sentences were commuted and who spent sixteen years in Folsom for robbing the Overland Limited.

To Undersheriff Manning, Thompson recounted his experiences, stating he desired to report to the State parole officer, as he had been paroled. He said he was captured when his ship, the Marguerita, was sunk by the German cruiser, Leipzig. He said that was only one of many experiences he had during the war.

His report was taken by State Parole Officer Langworthy and then Thompson visited Martin Aguerre, former warden of San Quentin, and now bailiff in Judge Willis's court. Thompson is 52 years old.

BLOW FRACTURES LEG.

Thirteen-year-old Boy is Run Down by Motor Car.

After being struck down by an automobile owned and driven by V. E. Porter of 200 Elypress street, Glendale, at Ninth and San Pedro streets late yesterday afternoon, Robert Munoz, 13 years of age, of 450 San Julian street, was treated at the Receiving Hospital for a fracture of the left leg and other injuries. Later he was removed to his home.

WINDY CITY MANAGER IS PUT IN JAIL.

Thompson Scenic Company of Los Angeles Acts After an Audit of Chicago Books.

Suspected of defalcations that may amount to $15,000, Delavan Devoe, 40 years of age, Chicago manager for the Charles F. Thompson Scenic Company of Los Angeles, was arrested yesterday in his office in the North American Building, Chicago, on a warrant obtained by John J. Kershner, an auditor, who has been working for four days on Devoe's books.

Two weeks ago Devoe obtained a warrant for the arrest of Thomas Tasker, charged with having absconded to England with $100,000 worth of scenic models. The police are now checking up to find out whether Devoe had any dealings with Tasker.

Charles F. Thompson, president and general manager of the scenic company, whose studios are at 444 Witmer street, could not be located last night.

MORE TROUBLE FOR SALLEES.

Figures in Spectacular War Are in Court Again.

This Time He Asks Divorce; Recalls Old Fireworks.

Sequel of "Fifty-Thousand-Dollar-Hug" Suit.

Harking back to a sensational alienation-of-affection suit six years ago, a divorce suit was filed yesterday by David D. Sallee, attorney and former local manager of the International Correspondence Schools, against Florence Sallee. The latest legal action disclosing discord in the Sallee household reverses the procedure of the other case in which the wife was plaintiff in the allegation that another woman had stolen the affection of Mr. Sallee.

The divorce complaint was filed by Attorney Bert P. Woodard, who has offices with Mr. Sallee in the Haas Building, and the action forms an odd climax to an equally odd prologue enacted in 1914.

In that year, Mrs. Sallee filed a damage suit for $50,000 against an asserted affinity and her parents, and a suit for separate maintenance against Mr. Sallee. She based her complaints on reports of detectives who submitted as evidence to the wife a snapshot purporting to show Mr. Sallee and Miss Edna Fowler in affectionate embrace at Redondo Beach.

The wife averred that her husband had been taken away from her by Miss Fowler, who is the daughter of W. E. Fowler. When the case came up for trial, however, Miss Fowler was present in court ready to deny the allegations, but Mrs. Sallee was absent. The case was dismissed.

TO HONOR PRESIDENT.

Haverford Alumni to Give Dinner Tonight.

In honor of Dr. William W. Comfort, president of Haverford College, one of the principal Friends' colleges of the country, the Haverford College Alumni Association of Southern California will give a banquet tonight at the University Club.

Dr. Comfort, who is here in the interests of the $500,000 endowment fund being raised for the college, is a guest at the home of Howard Lowry, 330 South Grand avenue, Pasadena, an alumnus. The educator, who is one of the noted Romance language scholars of America, reports that all but about $50,000 of the sum sought has been raised. In company with Joshua Bally, Jr., of San Diego, another Haverford alumnus, Dr. Comfort spent yesterday at Whittier College.

MAY SERVE FIFTY YEARS.

Jule Lariver was sentenced yesterday by Judge Willis to San Quentin for from one to fifty years. Lariver was convicted of an offense against a small girl on July 17.

ANNUAL WEEK OF PRAYER.

Ministers Co-operate With Y.M.C.A. in Carrying Out Program.

Widespread interest in the annual week of prayer, promoted by the Young Men's Christian Association for young men of the nation is being taken in the local program by ministers of this city. The week of prayer will begin on November 14 and close on November 20.

Co-operation on the part of the ministers of Los Angeles has been sought, and in most instances is being readily granted. In the majority of churches the Sunday morning sermon on November 14 will be devoted entirely to the subject of young men and their spiritual welfare. In addition, there will be talks before young people's societies, Sunday-schools and men's Bible classes on the same subject.

Arrangements are being made to hold a noonday meeting at a downtown theater. A number of prominent ministers are being asked to deliver the noonday messages at these meetings, which will be for men. The program will consist of community singing at 12:15, a sermon from 12:25 to 12:45, and dismissal. It is planned to offer these meetings for the special benefit of men and young men who may not be able to leave their offices for more than an hour.

At the same time men's meetings will be held in the lobby of the Y.M.C.A., at 715 South Hope street, where talks on prayer and spiritual subjects will be made by another group of Los Angeles ministers. For the secretaries themselves, a series of morning meetings will be conducted in Room 513 of the Y.M.C.A., with a series of talks on the prayer life by a pastor of one of the downtown churches.

In addition to the program in the central branch and downtown theater, active work will be undertaken in the Y.M.C.A. branches—Boyle Heights, U.S.C., Colored Branch, Hollywood and San Pedro. Plans are now being organized for this work and branch secretaries are to act as executives in charge.

The Los Angeles committee in charge of the week of prayer is composed of thirteen members, with Lloyd Darsie as chairman. The members are as follows: C. E. Lashbrook, R. A. Goodsell, A. L. Miller, W. A. Reynolds, George Ballmann, Stanley Baker, M. A. Hollabaugh, Gale Seaman, D. E. Luther, W. H. Wallace, H. O. Hill and G. D. McDill.

CAUSE OF DIVORCES, UNMORALITY, SAYS PASTOR.

"The rapid increase in the number of divorces in this country is not caused so much by the immorality among men and women, but by an existing unmorality, a condition in which the American man and women lack moral standard and understanding of the real meaning of the marriage ties," declared Rev. Richard H. Gushee of Christ's Episcopal Church of Ontario, yesterday.

Dr. Gushee has left his own pulpit to prosecute a campaign against the divorce evil in Southern California. He will open his campaign with two "straight-from-the-shoulder" sermons on "Marriage and Divorce" at St. Matthias Church tomorrow evening and Sunday, the 14th inst. The subject of his first crusading talk against divorce will be "Monogomy, Polygamy or Divorce?" All divorce court judges of the Southern California district have been invited to attend.

"Divorce," asserts Mr. Gushee, "nine times out of ten cases is a pure farce, because where there is no marriage there can be no divorce, and conditions that are exposed day after day in the divorce courts show that the majority of couples who appear there have never been really married in the true sense of the word. It is not alone the fault of the dissenting couples. They know no better. In other words they may be called pagan, only a pagan marriage is never disrupted. The average man and woman of today are ignorant of the sacred meaning of marriage and of the inviolable bonds that true matrimony establishes. They look, in their ignorance, upon marriage as simply a change in condition."

"A divorce age is an infertile age," he continued, commenting upon the effect of divorce upon the development of the human race. "Egotism and selfishness are incompatible with the love of children. Three things go together: divorce, suicide and child murder. A country may rise triumphant over war and destruction, but it cannot survive with that philosophy gnawing at its vitals. From the standpoint of the children the divorce condition is rather worse than polygamy, degrading as that is. Children have something to do with marriage, naturally, notwithstanding the 'no children wanted' apartments and other like agencies which are working for the extermination of the race. Hence while we are told that our jails are emptied through the present 'drought' our reformatories are being filled with the little victims of divorce."

AN AUGMENTED CHOIR.
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Music will be a prominent feature in the First Baptist Church tomorrow. The choir platform has been enlarged to accommodate a choir of nearly 100. The augmented choir, under the leadership of Robert H. Clark, will sing several special numbers including "The King of Love" and "Though Your Sins be as Scarlet." Dr. James A. Francis, the pastor, will preach morning and evening. At the morning service the ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed.

THE COMPASSION OF JESUS.
TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher will preach tomorrow at Temple Baptist Church on "The Compassion of Jesus." The Temple Quartet and choir will render special music. At the evening service motion pictures of the Royal Gorge will be shown and Dr. Brougher will preach on the subject, "Lies—white, black political—are all men liars?—is a lie ever justifiable?"

METHODIST MINISTERS.
NEW MEETING PLACE.

The Methodist ministers meeting will be held at the new meeting place, the German Methodist Church, on Olive street, near Fifth street, Monday morning at 10 o'clock. After the business session the meeting will adjourn to Berean Hall, where a stereopticon lecture will be given by Rev. Louis Agassiz Gould.

THIRD ANNIVERSARY.
FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Dr. Hugh K. Walker will celebrate the third anniversary of his pastorate at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow. During this period the church has grown in membership from less than 200 to about 600. A debt of $14,000 has been paid and a new organ has been contracted for at a cost of $20,000. The subject of Dr. Walker's sermon tomorrow morning will be "The Greatest Need of a Workaday World." His evening topic will be "Three Years of Sailing on a Staunch Old Ship."

DR. CARL S. PATTON.
FIRST CONGREGATIONAL.

Dr. Carl S. Patton will preach at the First Congregational Church tomorrow morning on the subject "The Duty of God Toward Man." "We have heard from the foundations of the world," says Dr. Patton, "about the duties of men toward God. Duty is a reciprocal relation. God also has duties toward us. Inasmuch as it may be assumed that He will do his duty, it might encourage people to consider once in a while what that duty is." Dr. Patton's evening subject is "Pioneers."

PASTOR APPOINTED.
HOLLYWOOD METHODIST.

Rev. W. F. Edmundson, for twenty-five years a chaplain in the United States Navy, will preach as pastor of the Hollywood Methodist Church tomorrow morning. Mr. Edmundson was appointed pastor of the church by Bishop DuBois at a recent conference held in Los Angeles and he has taken up his residence here with his family.

"THE CHALLENGE OF GOD."
BLANCHARD HALL.

"The Challenge of God" will be the subject of a sermon by Reynold E. Blight before the Church of the People at Blanchard Hall tomorrow morning. In a prelude he will discuss the question "What's the Matter With Our American Politics? The Answer of the Campaign." Mary Andrews Connor will address the Lyceum on "The Message of the Great Poets" at 9:30 a.m.

FOR ARMISTICE SUNDAY.
ST. PAUL'S PRO-CATHEDRAL.

The evening service at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral tomorrow will be of a patriotic character in honor of Armistice Sunday. The topic of an address by Dean MacCormick will be "The Unfinished Tasks of the United States." At the morning service Dean MacCormick will tell of the impressions made upon a preacher by an artist in his studio.

CINEMA A FEATURE.
PLYMOUTH CONGREGATIONAL.

The picture, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," featuring Sir Forbes Robertson, will be shown at the evening service at the Plymouth Congregational Church tomorrow. A brief talk by the pastor, Dr. A. Andrews, and a solo by Charles G. Schweitzer will follow. At the morning service the pastor will speak on "Peace Within and Without."

DR. TORREY RETURNS.
CHURCH OF THE OPEN DOOR.

Dr. R. A. Torrey, pastor of the Church of the Open Door, will occupy his own pulpit tomorrow for the first time in four months. He has returned from a successful summer of Bible conference work in the East and South. His morning subject will be "Power from on High" and in the evening, "Eternal Life; What It Is and How to Get It."

RETURNS FROM CONVENTION.
ST. MARK'S LUTHERAN.

Rev. Jesse W. Ball, Ph.D., who has returned from the United Lutheran Church convention at Washington will occupy the pulpit at St. Mark's Lutheran Church tomorrow morning. The subject of his address will be "When East Meets West." At the evening service he will speak on "The Cain of Godliness; or Does It Pay to be a Christian?"

STORIES FROM BELGIUM.
IMMANUEL PRESBYTERIAN.

Stories of war-time experiences among the Catholics of Belgium will be related at the evening service at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church tomorrow by Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Norton, who have recently arrived in Los Angeles from that country. Dr. Herbert Booth Smith, pastor, will make a special plea for "Idealism" in his sermon at the morning service. Dr. Smith says he believes in a contemporary faith, alive to the problems of today, rather than the worship of a dead creed.

LECTURE ON DIVORCE.
WILSHIRE CHRISTIAN.

Attorney W. L. Jarrot will deliver a special lecture on divorce at the Wilshire-Boulevard Christian Church tomorrow evening. At the morning service the pastor, Rev. M. Howard Fagan will preach on "The Forsaken Sufferer on the Cross."

"THE COLLAPSE OF EUROPE."
FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

Existing conditions in Europe will be related by Dr. Elmer Ellsworth Helms in his address on "The Collapse of Europe" at the First Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow evening. At the morning service Dr. Helms will preach on the subject, "Work; Working; Workers." Special musical programs have been arranged for both services.

"HIDING FROM GOD."
WESTLAKE METHODIST.

"Hiding from God" is the topic chosen by Rev. T. O. Grieves for his sermon at the Westlake Methodist Church tomorrow evening. Mrs. E. Patterson and Miss Myrtle Goodykoontz will take part in the musical program. At the morning service the pastor will speak on "Mountaintop Experiences." The woman's all-day meeting will be held Tuesday with luncheon at noon. Mrs. Guy Capps will act as hostess. Dr. G. Bromley Oxam will lecture on "Democracy or Dictatorship" at the school of religion Thursday evening.

SAYS CRIME IS POPULAR.
TRINITY METHODIST.

Rev. "Bob" Shuler, in commenting upon his sermon, "The Popularity of Crime" for the evening service at the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow, declares that the public mind demands a constant supply of the bloodthirsty and horrible. At the morning service he will preach on "Jesus Christ Enlarged."

HOME FROM CONVENTION.
FIRST ENGLISH LUTHERAN.

Rev. W. S. Dysinger, D.D., will be in his own pulpit again at the First English Lutheran Church tomorrow after an absence of one month, during which time he attended the United Lutheran Church convention in Washington, D. C. His sermon topic in the morning will be "High Points in the Lutheran Church." In the evening a special musical service will be given by the choir as part of the welcome home service for the pastor

ON NEAR EAST PROBLEM.
WESTLAKE PRESBYTERIAN.

In an illustrated address on "Out of Darkness Into Light" at the Westlake Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening, Prof. John C. Shedd, who lost a brother recently in the Near East, will tell of existing Near East problems. Dr. G. A. Briegleb, pastor, will preach on "Welcome Wolves" at the morning service. The new Westlake quartet, composed of Forrest Routt, tenor; Mrs. Carleton Stockwell, soprano; Mrs. Edmond T. Fulford, contralto, and Carl Miles, baritone, will render several musical selections.

LEGION POST'S FUNDS MISSING.

State-Wide Search Made for Assistant Adjutant.

Embezzlement Warrant Issued After Disappearance.

Forged Vouchers and Checks Listed as Means Used.

Charged in a felony warrant with having embezzled $100 from the Los Angeles Post, No. 8, American Legion, Sidney E. Schumacher, 36 years of age, former assistant adjutant of the local post, is sought by the police of the entire State. Schumacher, it was learned yesterday, was last heard of in San Francisco nearly three weeks ago. At the District Attorney's office it was stated that more than the $100 is missing from the Legion's post treasury and that the amount may exceed $4000.

The charge against him came to light yesterday at Central Police Station, when the local police were asked to request a nation-wide search for him. It also became known that a warrant charging embezzlement was issued some time ago, but was kept secret while the search for the former post official was being made.

From what could be learned yesterday, Schumacher is charged with having cash from funds of Post No. 1 by means of forged vouchers and checks. The money was taken in small quantities at a time and was not missed until after Schumacher left this city, it is said. When the wanted man resigned his position here, he was to go to San Francisco to take charge of a Legion publication there. He did go to San Francisco, according to the local police, and there dropped out of sight.

According to a statement made yesterday at the District Attorney's office, Schumacher will probably face still another charge after his return.

An investigation, moreover is being made of dealings between Schumacher and the Phalan campaign committee in regard to advertising in the Legion publication.

Robbed While Grieving Over Slain Family.

Emilio Flores, a Mexican rancher of Puente, yesterday appealed to the police here to assist him in recovering his horse and wagon, stolen from him while he was grieving beside the dead bodies of his wife and 4-year-old child, Wednesday morning. The horse and wagon were stolen from the scene of the accident in which Flores lost his family.

According to Flores, after his wife and little boy had been run down and killed by a train at the railroad crossing of the Salt Lake Railroad, he rode with the bodies to the Receiving Hospital. When he returned, his horse and wagon were gone.

Police records show that Mrs. Flores and her little son were riding in the rear of the wagon driven by Flores. When they were at the corner of the railroad tracks, Flores saw an approaching freight train and whipped up his horse to cross. The wife and child were thrown from the wagon bed and crushed beneath the engine.

Mothers of little ones and all children are specially invited to the Saturday morning matinee of "Way Down East."—(Advertisement.

Boy Scout Gets Bronze Honor Medal.

As a result of the rescue of Winston Brubeck from drowning off the Ocean Park pier, last July, Donald Diehl, member of Tropp No. 63 of the Los Angeles Boy Scouts was last night awarded a bronze honor medal by Arthur Letts, vice-president of the national council and president of the Los Angeles Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Young Diehl went to the rescue of Brubeck when the latter was being swept to sea in the riptide off the Ocean Park beach. The water at the point of rescue was 100 feet deep and because of the heroic effort made by the youth the medal was awarded by the National Court of Honor at New York.

The presentation, which was made at Normal Hill Center, was part of a program given by the Boy Scouts of Los Angeles last night in honor of the return to this city of the four Los Angeles Scouts who were sent abroad on the International Scout Jamboree. The boys, who toured England, France and Belgium are Star Scouts Harry Gunning and Carl McElvey; Eagle Scout Walter Wescott and Scoutmaster James L. Blake.

NAGGED, SAYS WIFE.

Complains that Husband Inspected House, Kicked about Dust.

The contested divorce suit of Hortense W. Freeman against Richard Read Freeman, on trial before Judge Crail, developed yesterday that Mrs. Freeman, according to her statements, was nagged by her husband, a Rivera orange grower.

She testified that he was overcritical, finding fault if he discovered dust in the house, which he had a habit of inspecting when he came home at night. His comments were made in the presence of others, Mrs. Freeman said, and distressed her.

Mr. Freeman denied his wife's charges of cruelty.

THINKS STATES MUST LET AIR LAWS ALONE.

SAN DIEGO MAN GOING EAST TO WORK FOR FEDERAL TRAFFIC CONTROL.

Advocating the adoption of Federal legislation which would control air travel in every quarter of the country, W. Jefferson Davis, a San Diego attorney and a major in the Army Air Service Reserve Corps, today is conducting an investigation here of matters pertaining to commercial, naval and military aviation in Southern California. He is visiting proposed sites for the construction of a large dirigible hangar which will soon be erected in Southern California.

In December Mr. Davis will go to the national capital to urge the immediate adoption of uniform air laws and will discuss the proposed trans-Pacific flight with Aero Club officials and the government air service authorities, who are promoting the flights.

"The government should control air navigation," Mr. Davis stated. "It is hardly within the province of separate States to enact varying laws.

"Take, for instance, the flyer who journeys from Boiling Field, District of Columbia, to Mineola Field, Long Island. The aviator passes over six States in less than three hours and would be required to comply with a variety of regulations should the six States have varying air laws.

"Southern California will soon take a big stride forward in all types of aviation when new hangars will be erected to accommodate lighter-than-air craft. The fields at Riverside, San Diego, Arcadia and elsewhere will eventually be important landing and operating stations for dirigibles."

ARSENIC IN COUGH CURE?

Whether Frank Grover Baker of Glendale put arsenic in cough medicine, his wife, Lorna M. Baker, was taking, is a question that arose yesterday in Judge Craig's court, when Baker was placed on trial on a charge of administering poison with intent to murder his wife.

Preliminary testimony was introduced by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Van Cott, and the case was continued until Monday. Mrs. Baker testified that on three occasions, she became ill from the effects of the cough medicine, and a chemist testified that samples of the medicine submitted to him contained arsenic. Alice Anable, a girl of 14, testified she saw the defendant pouring the contents of one bottle to another, and that one was the cough medicine being taken by Mrs. Baker.

Jud Rush of Davis, Rush and MacDonald, defense attorneys, asked Mrs. Baker if she had been previously married, but the court sustained an objection to the question.

TO RUSH HARBOR WORK.

All obstacles in the way of progress on the channel widening job at Los Angeles Harbor were apparently eliminated, Mayor Snyder declared last night, following a conference held in his offices yesterday with City Engineer Griffin, President Maynard McFie and Irving Heilman of the Chamber of Commerce; A. S. Halstead of the Salt Lake Route; Councilmen Langdon and Conaway of the Harbor Committee of the City Council, and members of the Harbor Commission.

As a result of the conference, the Harbor Commission agreed to meet today and set aside the $2,100,000 of unsold harbor bonds for use in carrying out the city's share of the work, though Mayor Snyder doubts that all of the harbor bond money will be required to do the job. The government has agreed to spend $650,000 in widening and deepening the channel. In connection therewith, the Salt Lake wharves are to be removed inland, as fast as the work progresses, and re-erected upon land, built up by deposit of dredger mud as the work proceeds. The city's expenditure will be in connection with this relocation work, largely.

MOTHER LOSES TOTS.

Grief-Stricken When Court Gives Children to Their Father.

Mrs. Ularie Ortez gave way to grief in Judge Crail's court yesterday when her husband, Joseph I. Ortez, was given the custody of their two daughters. Mrs. Ortez charged her husband with intemperance and he came back with a serious accusation against his wife. Because of the nature of the charge against Mrs. Ortez, the court granted Mr. Ortez a decree and ordered the children placed in the custody of Mrs. Jesse Perry.

Mrs. Ortez's sister made a pathetic plea to be allowed to retain the children. She said Mrs. Ortez had broken her heart.

"In the name of justice I ask that they be played where they will have good care. It breaks my heart to think they may be placed where they will not have the love and care I have given them," she cried.

ADMITS INSOLVENCY.

Rupert Franklin, a restaurant man of this city, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. He gives his debts as $1228.26 and his assets as $500, consisting of household goods, which are exempt.

You Can Look Your Nicest In Five Minutes

THERE are occasions when you want to look especially nice—and sometimes they come so unexpectedly you have little time to "fix up." You need never worry if you have a jar of CREME ELCAYA handy.

Try this simple formula—"A little CREME ELCAYA rubbed gently into the skin; then if you need color, a very little rouge spread carefully over the cheeks before the cream is quite dry; and after that the film of Elcaya face powder over all."

CREME ELCAYA

O'T OF THE WATER.

There is a fish in Brazil that cannot swim. It probably knows how William Jennings Bryan felt when asked to support Gov. Cox.

AT THE LODGING PLACE.

The loaf of bread has finally dropped a penny or two in price. Probably by this time the bakers have all the dough they knead. Any time they want it to rise all they have to do is to throw in a little yeast.

THEIR MONEY'S WORTH.

It is asserted quite brazenly that the Republican national organization spent at least $2 to $1 as against the Democratic committee. We will say this for them, that they have something to show for their investment.

NOT VOTING.

All the Presidential candidates voted for themselves except Eugene Debs. He refrained from voting for himself or anybody else and spent the day quietly in the quarters provided for him by a government which he has heretofore heartily abused.

SWAT THE MONGER.

The next time anybody comes to your door with a single-tax initiative petition kick him all the way downstairs. The majority against it grows larger every time it comes up and there is absolutely no warrant or excuse for its continued appearance on the ballot. The amendment which would have prevented its recurrence as a campaign question was defeated because it was not specific. It might have interfered with some other taxation proposition of more merit. But further single-tax agitation in this State can have no defense. It is as futile and senseless in the face of the last five campaigns as would be a proposition to establish the Kaiser and his family in command at Sacramento. Swat the hireling who attempts to circulate a petition.

BIG GAME.

There is an urge that the Olympic games be permanently located in some city in which a suitable arena could be created. Paris is pressed as being a world-center and proper location. Here is another matter that might be left as a by-product of the League of Nations. International sportsmanship makes for a better feeling between peoples. If the German athletes had been in the habit of meeting the English and French representatives at the hurdles and in throwing the hammer the nasty affair at Verdun might have been avoided. A League committee might well take up the matter of world-wide sports in which all countries would find it advantageous to participate. As to perpetuating it in a single city, that is another matter. Leave it to the big league, anyhow.

WORN-OUT WEAPONS.

German merchants and manufacturers have formed what they call the Industrial Red Cross and its purpose is to overcome the hardships caused by strikes. The members are pledged to serve personally as strike-breakers should occasion make it advisable. Every man is enlisted and his experiences and capacities are catalogued. Students and office men are enrolled and in case of a strike in any plant or industry the strikers can be quickly replaced by workers of some experience and qualification. The unions by their warlike policy toward industry have made something of this nature necessary. The unions fail to encourage co-operation and amity with the employer. The strike was the one weapon they used to compel acceptance of their demands. They used it without argument or reason and now it has ceased to be effective.

FEWER RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

Regrettable as was the recent railroad accident near Barstow, when three people were killed and a number injured, one cannot help reflecting that traveling on steam roads is much safer now than it was a few years ago. Time was when similar wrecks were, one might say, of common occurrence; now, happily, the newspapers rarely are called upon to record disasters to overland trains. The railroads of the United States today have a world-wide reputation for safety in travel where formerly they used to bear a none too good character in this respect. For years the officials of the American lines conducted a vigorous campaign to impress "safety first" on their employees and the results have been most beneficial to the traveling public as well as to the companies. It is probably true that many more persons are killed by automobiles than in railroad accidents in this country. Drivers of automobiles might well follow the example of the railroad men and thoroughly impress upon themselves the advantages of safety first. A number of level crossing collisions have of late taken place in Southern California, most of which undoubtedly have been due to the impatience of the drivers of the machines. Trainmen daily take their engines out of Los Angeles, dreading lest some autoist will try to cut across their path, just to "beat them to it" and avoid being held up at a crossing for a few minutes. Many car owners are poor judges of speed. They see a train a mile away and think they have plenty of time to get to the other side of the track. They fail to remember that, even if it be traveling at only thirty miles an hour, the train covers half a mile in a minute.

THE EMBITTERED HERMIT OF THE WHITE HOUSE.

Woodrow Wilson, President of these United States, so recently the supreme figure in world history, stands today a broken-hearted man. The White House is a great sepulcher, the mausoleum of lofty ideals, tremendous visions, mighty power, influence and authority brought to naught. And brought to naught, stultified, broken by the President's own personality, his own unyielding intellectual limitations.

It was given him to dream great dreams, to see mighty visions, to rise to noble heights of world-power and influence—and to wreck them all on the altar of his own obstinacy. He stands today one of the most pathetic figures in history, with those bitter words "IN VAIN" engraven upon his heart. The silence that envelops the White House is fraught with deep and abiding tragedy.

"Farewell, a long farewell to all my greatness!
This is the state of man; today he puts forth
The tender leaves of hope, tomorrow blossoms,
And bears his blushing honors thick upon him;
And the third day comes a frost, a killing frost."

And he "that once trod the ways of glory and sounded all the depths and shoals of honor" is left "naked to his enemies," a silent, broken man. But, unlike Wolsey, he cannot blame his trust in princes, for he was never called upon to hang on princes' favors, but only to so measure and control his dreams and visions as to make them practical and acceptable to the suffrage of his people. Looking back over the immediate past, this so nearly mighty man has but the bitterness of personal error whereon to place the blame. His mistakes were such trifles, he so nearly won the goal! Such a few concessions, such a little more understanding, such a slight relaxation of self-righteous implacability could have turned defeat into victory. His very strength of unrelenting purpose proved his greatest weakness; like many a lesser man, he mistook obstinacy for splendid firmness. He was a great autocrat contending with a greater democracy, where he should have been a great democrat leading, never driving. But his mentality was clogged with "too much thinking to have common thought," and common thought is the great essential in leaders of democracy.

A contemporary has described President Wilson as the "cheapest sort of politician," but few of even his keenest opponents will be found to subscribe to such an indictment. Rather has the President shown himself a veritable child in the ways of politics, entirely unable to attune himself to the political understandings of the people. That, indeed, marked the chief failure of his administration. When he did essay to "play politics" he played them with an inexperienced crudity which had an exactly contrary effect from that desired. Yet for the consummation of a great ideal, materialized into practicability, an able understanding of essential politics might have won success. Politics are not inherently disreputable, no matter how they may be incidentally debased, but form the essential practical side of government.

The Times holds no brief for President Wilson, although it consistently supported him where support was possible through the great crises. But no one can be unmindful of the tragedy and pathos of the figure in the White House today, repudiated by the people, because he endeavored to exact that "little more than a little that is so much too much," because he could not and would not bend to the greater collective judgment of his country, because he would not sacrifice one iota of a noble theory for its practical consummation.

The result of the election is so logical in a world intensely human. The people have made it overwhelmingly plain that he who "dreams dreams and sees great visions" must have his feet upon the earth, his mind in attune with the people, and build from the foundations up rather than from the stars down. They are tired of castles in the air in other people's dreams while they are harassed on all sides by tangible shrieking problems of their own. They want American homes and businesses made secure, American affairs redeemed from chaos and confusion, American wrongs righted and American rights enforced; and a dreamer and a visionary, no matter how exalted, could not be continued in power. The cry is for practical conservative leaders in all countries that normal conditions of life may be restored after the violent debacle of the war.

Yet it is safe to say that history will concede to President Wilson a high place. It will concede his lofty ideals, his magnificent attempt. And, while he is experiencing a personal failure under the exigencies of the practical needs of the time, the seeds of those ideals and that magnificent attempt will flourish and bear fruit in God's good time. There will be a League of Nations built mainly from the plans that Woodrow Wilson drew with his fourteen points, and he, the architect, will live to see his dream castles materialize in the hands of practical engineers. Like many a pioneer before him, it is not given to him to achieve the complete evolution, even as Leonardo da Vinci, who made the drawings for the first airplane, never made one fly. But those that come after him will catch the inspiration of his vision and make it practical.

When the bitter silence of the White House is broken we predict that it will be by some such thought as this. The President's personal failure must be bitter indeed, his personal pride humbled, his personal leadership repudiated; but all that which was sound in his ideals, all that which can be made practical and workable will live after him and he may yet live to concede that the heart of the nation is sound. When the wound to his personal vanity has healed, if his faith in his purpose remains true and obdurate, this mighty consolation may still be his.

NOONANISMS.

Now it is said that straw hats will be made of wood next year. They will feel at home on some heads.

Shipstead is the unanimous choice of his party, it is claimed. Sure. Townley held a convention among himself and settled it.

This wonderful weather must be an awful jolt to the crape hangers who are always hollering what a poor country this is.

Now it is said that booze runners threaten to commit murder. By peddling the dope they do they not only have threatened it, they have committed it.

IT WAS COARSE WORK.

The Democratic campaign was one of contumeliousness and indiscretion on the part of its major candidate. The nominee persistently refused to rise to his opportunities and he became disappointing even to his assured friends. In the waning hours of the campaign it was noisily declared that the popular drift was unmistakably toward Cox. A little more of that drift and the Governor would have been wholly engulfed; the selection of Harding would have been unanimous. As it is, naught but the Cox toenails show above the foam. He went down head first.

The solemn referendum which might have been honestly desired by the electorate was impossible. The League covenant supplies a question which may have at least half a dozen different forms. A direct yes or no is neither just nor possible in its present consideration. Undoubtedly today the Democratic party contains more of the voters who are opposed to any kind of a League of Nations than does the Republican organization. Yet one wing of the Democratic campaign management insisted that a Republican vote was one opposed to any League and it would be impossible to get one except through the election of Gov. Cox. With his election America would be working in the League at once—Senate or no Senate!

So many preposterous claims were made and so many ridiculous charges presented that the casual voter threw Democracy to the winds and moved his baggage into the Harding camp without further delay. When Gov. Cox toured the circuit making the parrot-like declaration that the Republicans had gathered a thirty-million-dollar campaign fund to buy the Presidency the average voter lost interest in the Democratic candidate and his course. The ordinary citizen has small patience with a common scold.

His sense of proportion would eliminate the possibility of having a leader of that stripe. A man who is forever talking about the plots and conspiracies against him becomes wearisome. Even as a country editor the Democratic nominee was disappointing. He did not behave like that modest and resourceful person. He harped upon the tragedies that were being piled against him and his finger was always an accusing rather than a beckoning one. Dignity and good humor, which are the two traits the average elector most relishes in the conduct of his Presidential campaign, were completely lacking in the Democratic appeal to the voter.

Even in the waning hours of the contest Gov. Cox raised a petulant voice to assert that all the traitors would vote for Harding. They seem to have done so along with the rest—for the vote might as well have been unanimous.

Gov. Cox doubtless meant that those who opposed the war and did not want any part in the peace covenant would be found among the Harding supporters. He did not say that the Harding voters were all traitors, but he might just as well have said so and been fully as polite and courteous. He sought to make the argument that the Democrats had a monopoly on the patriotism of America—a proposition which is as preposterous as the creed of the grasshopper.

From whatever angle the campaign was viewed the Democratic operation was futile and unsatisfactory. President Wilson and his loyal friends could not conceal their disappointment in the nominee. They damned him with faint praise and put their cause above the man. On the other hand, the strongest enemies and opponents of the Wilson policies saw in Cox merely a pale-pink replica of the President. He was held as distinctly hostile by the drys and at the same time was viewed with doubt and suspicion by the wets. If he had come out emphatically against any League of Nations and also arrayed himself against the prohibition amendment he would have received more votes than he did. People would have agreed that this was the real Jimmy Cox and would have respected him accordingly. As it is in all his operations on the keyboard, he was unable to strike the chord of sincerity.

As the choice of a quartet of Democratic spokesmen who sought only to nominate one of their kind he has joined them in a defeat so complete as almost to amount to isolation. He is the most thoroughly defeated candidate the Democratic party has ever known.

The Democratic Campaign Committee can furnish no alibi. It was working with wires that were constantly crossed and there was no enthusiasm or ardor anywhere. The strategy was a mixture of that of the chameleon and the mole. It couldn't see its own changing colors.

Fortunately for itself the Democracy has a short memory and will be able to quickly forget the candidates and the campaign of 1920. Whenever there is a recollection it will only furnish embarrassment and chagrin.

APPALLING IGNORANCE.

Almost beyond comprehension to an ordinary American is the amazing ignorance of the rank and file of the Bolsheviki—the poor fellows who are still being led to slaughter by adventurers. A farm laborer, a convinced Bolshevist, was asked by a Berlin newspaper man if he knew who was his commander-in-chief. He answered that the commander was called Trotzky and that there was another head man. He pondered a moment trying to recall who the second man was and then suddenly remembered Lenine. He said he knew nothing more about him but his name. This young soldier, formerly a farm laborer, did not even know that there were any other people than Bolsheviki in Russia. Apparently, the German news writer states, the peasant had never heard the words "Social Revolutionists" and "Menscheviki" and he had not the faintest idea of party politics and creeds.

It seems extraordinary that even dull-witted men like this should cling so long to the traitors who lead them. Their loyalty is explained by their great longing for land. Lenine and Trotzky have told them that as soon as peace is concluded every person in Russia will be counted by the government and the land will be measured and equally divided up. It is this belief that they are soon to be land owners that keeps the peasants fighting for their absurd masters. Some day, perhaps, they will awaken to the knowledge that they are being fooled, but in the meantime thousands of them are serving for cannon fodder because they are so profoundly ignorant of their own country.

BURNING QUESTIONS.

Sir Sydney Low has issued a clarion call to dramatists to give us plays on the burning questions of the day and cut out the sex stuff. There is a good deal to be said for it. How the public would be gripped just now by a thrilling play on the housing problem, with a rent hog for the despised villain who comes to a really horrible end. And why not a play on the community-property law, with its infinite scope for domestic drama? And John Drinkwater of "Abraham Lincoln" fame ought to be able to contribute something really thrilling on prohibition. Those dramatists who can't quite get away from sex could still find scope and inspiration in a divorce law play, with Mary and Doug for the leading actors, and maybe some interesting references to Charlie and Mildred on the side.

Then there is the anticigarette crusade—which, if successful, will utterly blast some of the strongest situations in our drama, in which the hero always lights a cigarette so beautifully.

Oh, by all means, let us have our drama vital and illuminating. Think how a tableau drama on the city charter amendments might have aided our embarrassed voters!

"Did you register?" a North End woman asked her colored washerwoman the other day.

"No," replied the colored woman. "I'm not pussonally acquainted with either Mistah Ha'ding or Mistah Cox, so I wasn't paticulah about voting."—[Columbus Dispatch.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

THE JAPS.

I've met about ten thousand Japs, out here upon the western shore,
and they're such courteous little chaps
I'd gladly meet ten thousand more.
Most white men view them with alarm and say they are a grievous pest; they do our bulwarks deadly harm and make our sacred boons a jest.
I know I ought to join the gang where cusswords in a torrent flow, and make a fierce and hot harangue, insisting that the Japs must go;
I know my course is far from right,
when I admit I like the Japs because they always are polite, with winning smiles upon their maps.
Politeness is an art that's lost where white men hump to make their piles, and evermore I meet a frost where I'm expecting cordial smiles.
In every town the skate is found who thinks up caustic things to say;
in every street the boors abound, their rudeness jars me every day.
But when I seek the Japanese,
to buy an onion or a brick, they bow with grace of old grandees and hand me taffy on a stick.
The Japs are taking half the globe because they are so blamed polite;
the white man howls and tears his robe and says it isn't just or right.

WALT MASON.

LIGHTS ON MEXICO.

BY ANGIE LENO.

It always used to thrill me to read in the alluring Tia Juana advertisements in The Times the urge, "Don't miss this chance to get a glimpse of a foreign land." And I'll grant that whoever went to Tia Juana in response to that suggestion got his eyes full of glimpses, all right, all right, but I, for one, realize now that one cannot see Mexico by seeing the border. A hundred miles farther into Mexico puts one in a land hardly on speaking terms with the border, in a veritable Old World America, redolent with romance, mystery, legend and garlic, a land of burning passions and chile sauce, a region famed as the land of mañana, but more truly a country of yesterday.

In Old World America it is common to see a block of fine homes which look like a penitentiary, for all the houses are of similar height and color, built of concrete and all have heavily barred windows. That is because all the front windows—or most of them—are flush with the streets and are wide open, night and day, most of the time. The bars let the air in, but keep intruders out. For the home is a sacred place in Mexico.

In those barred windows, in the dusk, the inaccessible senoritas stand and look out yearningly. The freedom allowed American girls is unknown to them. But the making of eyes and the wafting of sighs through the windows are quite good form. Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday night virtually all the unpledged senoritas in the town in which I am stopping just now go to the plaza and walk around and around and around it, while a band uniformed like Coxey's army, but musically gifted like the Angel Israfel, plays till its lungs and fingers hurt.

All the girls march in one direction, all the boys in the opposite direction, so that those in each line of march pass each other twice every time they make the circuit. When they pass they flirt—no, they make love with their eyes—but they do not then meet and talk. That would be highly improper. But after the concert a youth may follow his admired one, at a respectful distance, and then come the next evening to serenade or smile at her through the iron bars. If she wishes to encourage him she will be there when he comes roamin' in the gloamin', and after a month or two of such attentions have indicated his earnestness in the matter the senorita's father or brother is likely to come out and invite him in.

A man I met in Mexico City told me he had courted his bride five years in this manner before he really got to know her. He was attracted to her on a plaza when she was a young girl, he said, and spent a year just looking his admiration at her there three nights a week. Then he followed her to her home, but was discouraged there, though not rebuffed. He simply was not invited in. He called on the young lady's father to request such an invitation, but was politely told that, while the honor of his attentions was greatly appreciated, the fond parent preferred that he call again next year and they would talk the matter over then. He never took her to a dance or a show unchaperoned or spent half an hour alone with her before they were married, he said, and he did not consider his case exceptional. And yet they say Long Beach is old-fashioned!

You see, it is some different from Tia Juana, too.

It stands to reason that a country which can keep even its rising generation from getting New World ways is essentially Old World, no matter what continent it is on, and the buildings and narrow streets typical of most Mexican cities bear out that impression. The narrow walks have resulted in a peculiar traffic rule for pedestrians. Women always take the inside of the walk, whether they must run to right or left to do so, so that if anyone has to step off the walk it is the men. Between men, persons of lesser rank or position take the outside, or if you meet anyone you wish to compliment you take the outside, indicating the higher honor to him.

The women here have a quaint custom—said to have been in vogue once in the United States, also—of thanking men who give them seats in crowded street cars, and the furniture makers also show themselves far behind the times by making furniture out of solid wood instead of veneering.

NATURE'S METHODS.

"Nature's methods, we say, are blind, haphazard; the wind blows where it listeth, and the seeds fall where the winds and waters carry them; the frosts blight this section and spare not; the rains flood the country in the West and the drought burns up vegetation in the East. And yet we survive and prosper. Nature averages up well. We see nothing like purpose or will in her total scheme of things, yet inside her hit-and-miss methods, her storms and tornadoes and earthquakes and distempers, we see a fundamental benefaction. If it is not good-will, it amounts to the same thing. Our fathers saw special providences, but we see only unchangeable laws. Nature has no art, no architecture, no music. Her temples, as the poets tell us, are the woods, her harps the branches of the trees, her minstrels the birds and insects, her gardens the fields and waysides—all safe comparisons for purposes of literature, but not for purposes of science.—[John Burroughs in Atlantic Monthly.

Many Roots of Evil.

Do you know that there are fifty-four different kinds of United States paper money now in circulation in this country? There are five kinds of $1 bills, five kinds of $2 bills, six kinds of $5 bills, seven kinds of $10 bills, seven kinds of $20 bills, six kinds of $50 bills, six kinds of $100 bills, four kinds of $500 bills, five kinds of $1000 bills, one kind of $5000 denomination and two kinds of $10,000 bills. We were looking over our loose change today and unearthed this interesting information.—[Tampa Tribune.

OUR JOBS.

A thousand prescriptions for success in getting ahead; making money; rising to power and influence are written for us daily.

And they all resolve themselves into one little pellet of advice—Noblesse Oblige is the essence of them all.

If we're to make a success of the work we've got to marry it—we've got to make it our life.

Then we've got to honeymoon with it, to fondle and caress it; to woo it, to respond to our devotion.

Then we've got to father it, to make it productive; to make it grow and produce and expand and multiply.

We owe Noblesse Oblige to our jobs as well as to our fellowmen when we're working at our best in this spirit there are two winners.

There's the success in getting ahead, making money, if you please, rising to power and influence, but there's the success of the man at peace because it knows it is living the best it humanly can.

All the other recipes for success are details, showing efficiency, perseverance, thrift and all the other virtues which are contributory to the one great human tonic, Noblesse Oblige.

Gov. Cox is going to Europe to study conditions, it is announced. Democratic political conditions are so bad here that the Governor ought not to be compelled to go abroad to make a diagnosis.

Gov. Cox lost Montgomery county, Ohio, where he lives, by 2,000. For years Montgomery county has been the Democratic Gibraltar of the Third Congress District. Gee, how popular Cox was with his home folks!

Carping at the dinner table is fair to become one of the lost arts. Carving is not extremely difficult. Only a little experience, some skill does throw a part of the bird or a goblet of gravy over the shoulder. Perseverance! The anatomy of the turkey is not as intricate as that of woman.

There will be no relief from the high rents so long as people continue to line and are willing to meet the extraneous charges of the grafters, and the latter will be able to get away with it until the situation is relieved by the erection of more houses. Railing against the profiteering hog won't mend the matter.

The demand of Col. Bryan that President Wilson resign recalls the fact that in the closing hours of the campaign of 1916 the President declared that if Hughes was elected he would step down and out immediately. But he has no doubt changed his mind since then, especially as Col. Bryan has made the suggestion.

Hon. Carlos Bee, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Thirteenth District of Texas and a son-in-law of Postmaster-General Burleson, was defeated for re-election. The first Texas Democrat to take the count in many years. The Wilson administration plus his distinguished father-in-law was too much even in Texas.

Ohio has made a new record in the election of Congressmen by the success of every Republican candidate. Not a single Democrat was a winner. In 1902 Harvey C. Gordon was the only Democrat chosen from the Fourth District, but never before has there been a solid Republican delegation. The Harding majority is about 400,000. Oh, for a Gov. G.O.P. VICTORY AID TO MEXICO.

Means Closer Relations, in Opinion of Almada.

Clears Nation's Path, Says Consular Agent Ruiz.

Hearts Country Would Side With Us Against Japan.

With the Republican party again in power influential citizens of Mexico, who are now residing in Los Angeles predicted yesterday that Mexico for the first time in many years will again take its place as one of the nations most friendly to the United States.

Salvador A. Almada, intimate friend of Gen. Obregon and who is said to receive an important post in the new Mexican administration, stated last night that the indications of a revival of friendly relations between Mexico and the United States are very good.

Judging from statements issued by Senator Harding recently, in which he speaks very favorably of both Obregon and the new Mexican administration, I believe that negotiations will be started immediately after his inauguration to establish a better understanding between the people of the two nations," he said. "The confidence that the American people will place in the Mexican people during the coming new administration in the United States will be 50 per cent of the success of our new relations."

Almada will leave for Mexico tomorrow to attend the inauguration ceremonies of President-elect Obregon. Though it has been stated that Mr. Almada is scheduled to receive the appointment of governor of Lower California, he said last night that, though he is sure he will be offered some important post, he could not state yet what the office would be. He will remain in Los Angeles about December 1.

"Though during the Roosevelt administration the Mexican public first began to mistrust the Republican party, the prevailing spirit in Mexico today is that we are to be given a greatest chance by the political party which was first mistrusted," said Eduardo Ruiz, Mexican Consular Agent in this city.

NOT WELL INFORMED.

"As yet some of the people are not yet well informed of the Republican party. They still believe that it is dictatorial and are loath to banish the mistrust they placed in it several years ago when Roosevelt dominated it. Roosevelt was then a strong man. But the leader of the Republican party today is a man of principles more than of personal political strength, so the general public of Mexico no longer mistrusts the party. Our people are foresighted enough to see the opportunity of reconciliation that awaits them and will take advantage of it. We must look forward to the union of the American continent, and Mexico will exert all her strength to maintain this union."

Mr. Ruiz also touched upon the possibilities of a conflict with nations peopled by an alien race.

"In the event of a war between the United States and Japan," said Mr. Ruiz, "Mexico would immediately join hands with the white race. Mexico is a nation of white people and it is ridiculous to think that she would support an alien race in conflict with the United States."

SCHOOL TOTALS IN BIG LEAP.

All Records Broken, Due to Mighty Homeseeking Tide, Mrs. Dorsey Reports.

Surpassing all previous records, the enrollment in the city schools reached a total of 114,362 in October, according to figures submitted to the Board of Education yesterday by Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, the superintendent. This is an increase of 14,972 compared to the same month of 1919.

Mrs. Dorsey and members of the Board of Education attribute the large increase to the recent coming of large numbers of new residents and tourists.

Port Amendment is Carried, Latest Tabulation Shows

As the official tabulation of election returns on the various city charter amendments drew to a close late yesterday, City Clerk Wilde stated that the proposition relating to the management and control of Los Angeles Harbor seems to have been carried, the vote in 719 out of 785 city precincts being 47,934 for and 46,871 against.

It seems from the figures that amendments A, B, C, D, and F, are defeated by a good majority, while E, G, H, I, J, K, L, and M, have probably carried by a safe margin. It is expected that the count will be completed today.

CLIMAX OF CARNIVAL.

Santa Rita Center Festivities to Close This Evening.

Concluding a four-day program of festivities, the Santa Rita Carnival, held at 1441 North Main street, will close this evening with a grand rally. All articles, fancy and embroidery work, novelties and other kinds of merchandise remaining unsold will be put up at auction this evening.

The affair promises to be the social climax of the carnival and many new features are to be introduced. The booths will be bright with offerings. One of the special sales will be that of home-made "pralines" at the candy booth.

On tonight's program will be a Spanish dance by Miss Hortense Herrera; Spanish song by Miss Carolina Herrera and songs by Miss Gertrude Whitaker, talented child vocalist.

The Santa Rita Carnival has been well attended. Funds realised from the affair will go toward relieving distress—for providing heat for the settlement and for other much needed comforts.

BACK HURT ALL THE TIME

Mrs. Mays Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Removed The Cause.

Nashville, Tenn.—"My back hurt all the time, I was all run down, could not eat and my head bothered me, all caused by female trouble. I was three years with these troubles and doctors did me no good. Your medicine helped my sister so she advised me to take it. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Liver Pills and now I am well, can eat and work. I give you my name for your great medicines. You may publish my letter and I will tell you what your medicines did for me." Mrs. Frank Heil, 416 Jackson St., Nashville, Tennessee.

Hundreds of such letters expressing thanks for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has received are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and suffer day in and day out, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

CHAFFIN AND HIS WIFE DELIGHTED

Both Are Feeling Fine Since Taking Tanlac.

Medicine Built Him Up 20 Pounds Year Ago.

"I've Held Every Ounce Of It to This Good Day," He Says.

"A year ago when I began taking Tanlac I was down and almost out, and in just no time it built me up twenty pounds, and I've held every ounce of it to this good day," said J. O. Chaffin, 412 Bernardo St., Los Angeles, Calif., a truck driver for the Doran Oil Co.

"Before beginning with Tanlac I had lost weight and strength till I could scarcely drag myself along, and it was all I could do to hold my job. For twenty-three years I had trouble with my back and kidneys, and a little over a year ago found myself in a mighty bad fix.

"My back pained me fearfully and sometimes I would have to stop and rest before I could move. I got uneasy and knew something had to be done. People were talking Tanlac and I determined to try it.

"The results were surprising. Three bottles built me up, restored my strength, and all my pains left me, and for a year I never had so much as a little ache.

"You know riding on an oil truck is not easy going, and a month ago the constant jolts and jars began telling on me, and I felt a few pains like the ones I used to have. They were danger signals I heeded by getting another bottle of Tanlac and taking it. I've taken two more bottles and am feeling fine again. You see, Tanlac is more than a match for the rough riding on the truck.

"My wife was all run down and weak, and because of the good it had done me she began taking Tanlac, and three bottles put her to feeling fine again. We are both delighted with it and glad to recommend it."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Stores.—[Advertisement.

CITY FAVORS MOTOR BUSSES.

Grant Franchise to Line to Use Pasadena Streets.

Parents Fear for Safety of Missing Daughter.

Goats Still Unwelcome Guests in Crown City.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Nov. 5.—Despite the threat of the Pacific Electric Railway to abolish commutation rates if a bus line is permitted, the Pasadena City Commission today granted a franchise to the Pasadena Rapid Transit Bus Company to use city streets for a proposed motor bus line to Los Angeles. The Commission asked City Attorney J. H. Howard to represent the city at the hearing before the State Railroad Commission next Monday on the bus company's application for establishment of the line.

The Pacific Electric has already filed a protest against the granting of a State permit to the new bus line on the ground that it would not develop new business. If the permit is granted the railway will ask permission to abolish its commutation rates.

H. E. Rodenhouse, assistant superintendent of the Pacific Electric, appeared before the Commission today to protest against granting of permission for another jitney bus line on Lake avenue, this city, where the street railway operates. No action was taken by the Commission.

GIRL HAS DISAPPEARED.

Miss Violet Aldridge, 14-year-old daughter of A. L. Aldridge, 2019 Santa Rosa avenue, has mysteriously disappeared and her father fears she has been abducted. Police in all the Southern California cities have been asked to look for her. Miss Aldridge drove away from home at 5:30 o'clock last night in her father's car and has not been seen since. Pasadena police have learned that two young men, whose identities have not been learned, telephoned to her shortly before she left. Her car bore the State license number 275552.

STRUCK BY TRAIN.

Carl Peterson, 296 North Michigan avenue, was thrown from his automobile and badly injured today in a collision of his car and a Short Line train on the Pacific Electric at State street and Fair Oaks avenue. He was badly cut and bruised, but will recover. The trainmen said that Peterson tried to cross in front of the train.

GOATS ARE TABOO.

Keeping of goats in Pasadena is taboo; the City Commission declines to abrogate the ordinance against goatkeeping. This was apparent today in the tabling of a request from Mrs. Grace De la Matyr for permission to keep goats at 783 Atchison street. Mrs. De la Matyr protested against the tabling of the request. She charged the Commission had no right to interfere with her attempt to reduce the cost of living and said she would ask the women's clubs and other organizations to demand a repeal of the ordinance.

NOTABLES ARE COMING.

Gov. W. D. Stephens and the special train recruiting party for the new battleship California will be in Pasadena tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow evening, at the Maryland, the visitors will speak at the annual banquet of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce and Civic Association.

MYRIAD CHRISTMAS TREES.

F. C. Nash today suggested to the City Commission that the community decorate with electric lights the famous rows of deodars on Santa Rosa avenue, at Christmas time. These beautiful trees stretch for several blocks. The commission has not yet acted on the suggestion.

SUSPENDER BUCKLE SAVES MAN'S LIFE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 5.—A suspender buckle stood between Thomas C. Jennings and death this morning when a bullet fired from a revolver in his wife's hands was deflected when it struck the metal.

It is said that prior to the shooting Jennings's wife drove him from their home with an ax and when he reappeared a short time afterward the woman fired the shot which she intended would have fatal effect.

Jennings says that they have been having domestic trouble for some time regarding his right to occupy part of their residence and that he returned after his early morning experience because of advice he received at the office of the District Attorney.

Mrs. Jennings was arrested immediately after the shooting and is being held in the City Jail awaiting a preliminary hearing. The husband attributes their troubles to "another man."

HEAR FROM BROTHER.

Relative of Unfortunate Man Offers Assistance.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 5.—Urging that every effort be made and no expense spared to save the life of his brother, Morris Ripley, department store magnate of Denver, Colo., today wired Santa Monica police instructing them to keep him informed as to the condition of B. A. Ripley, who attempted to end his own life at Second street and Washington Boulevard last evening by taking carbolic acid.

Ripley, who had been suffering from ill health for some time, was returning to a bungalow at 938 Second street, Santa Monica, where he had lived before going to a hospital in Glendale three months ago. When he reached Washington Boulevard, residents on the street say that his steps faltered and that he stumbled against a tree, drinking the contents of the small bottle. He fell to the pavement, and occupants of neighboring houses called the police, who carried him to Miss Martin's sanatorium. He has not completely gained consciousness, and physicians declare that his condition is critical.

SEEK NAVY RECRUITS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 5.—Gov. Stephens, Commander J. H. Blackburn and Commander George M. Weichelt of Washington addressed large crowds today at the Plaza in the drive to enlist California men to man the superdreadnaught California.

The forty-piece band of the U.S.S. California, just organized, in which are twelve California Indians, played in a great naval street parade that preceded the programs and at the exercises at the Plaza this noon and this afternoon.

The Governor and the recruiting party arrived early this morning and left this afternoon on the California special, making Santa Ana their next stop.

POMONA PARENTS FIND MISSING SON.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POMONA, Nov. 5.—Having been missing since Sunday afternoon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Burdick, 383 South Gibbs, was located today and returned to his home. He had been ill for the last two years, his illness making him moody and silent.

He was located in San Dimas, through a description sent out broadcast through the newspapers. He was in fair condition but suffered from the lack of food and drink. As his mind seems to be affected he will be placed in a private hospital for treatment.

HEADS RED CROSS.

Fred J. Smith was elected chairman of the Pomona chapter of the American Red Cross, at a meeting of the directors of the local organization held in the City Hall this afternoon. He succeeds Rev. Walter C. Buckner, who has been at the head of the chapter during the past year. Mrs. Fred W. Neidermeyer was elected vice-president, and J. P. Storrs and Miss Sarah M. Eager were re-elected treasurer and secretary, respectively.

The directors chose the following executive board to serve with the officers of the chapter in managing the affairs of the organization: Mrs. Arthur M. Dole, Harry Westgate, Dr. J. Harvey Deere and G. V. Whaley.

HIGH CHURCH FUNCTION

Catholics to Hold Memorable Meet at Redlands.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Nov. 5.—Arrangements for a service for the investiture of the monsignorship on Rev. Father Thomas J. Fitzgerald, of the Church of the Sacred Heart of Redlands, will be held at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at the church. The Knights of Columbus are to have general direction of the service with Rev. Father Haggerty of Riverside in immediate charge.

The service, which is an unusual one outside the cathedral of the diocese, is held here because Father Fitzgerald was the first pastor of the local church and he built the present building. Rt. Rev. John J. Cantwell, bishop of Los Angeles and Monterey, will be here and about fifty of the priests of the south. Bishop Cantwell will preach the sermon.

Following the service there will be a banquet at the Contemporary clubhouse with Bishop Cantwell, Father Fitzgerald, Joseph Scott, Judge Paul McCormick and Isadore Dockweiler as speakers.

NEED MORE MONEY TO COMPLETE ROADS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 5.—A supplementary bond issue for county highways was urged before the directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night by Dale Killer, secretary of the Mecca chamber. He referred particularly to the roads in the Coachella Valley and the Corona-Elsinore Highway, which were provided for in the original bond issue of $1,125,000, but which were not completed for lack of funds.

The question of the advisability of supporting a movement for a supplementary bond issue to improve these highways and also to pave the Moreno-Beaumont Road, known as the "Jackrabbit Trail," and to reconstruct the West Riverside bridge over the Santa Ana River, was referred to the highway committee.

VISIT DATE ORCHARDS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Nov. 5.—The commercial secretaries of Southern California passed through the city this afternoon on their way to Coachella Valley where they are to have a meeting. They are to spend the night at Palm Springs as guests of the Desert Inn. At Coachella they will be shown the wonderful date orchards and will have their monthly meeting at Indio.

Clinics Feature Sixty-third Semi-Annual Meeting.

San Dimas Man is Elected Society's President.

The sixty-third semiannual meeting of the Southern California Medical Society opened yesterday morning with the holding of a clinic at the Los Angeles County Hospital, followed by other clinics in the Children's Hospital, the California Hospital and the Methodist Hospital.

During the afternoon session, at the Gamut Club, 1044 South Hope street, scientific papers were read by Drs. Barnet, Fishbaugh, Zeiler, and Rosenkranz, of Los Angeles, and by Dr. T. A. Card, of Riverside.

An especially interesting feature of the evening program was a lantern-slide lecture by Dr. Howard C. Naffziger, of San Francisco, on "Brain Tumors Without Pressure Symptoms." Dr. T. C. Lyster of Los Angeles spoke on "The Head Surgery Idea in Medicine." Other subjects discussed were: "Brain Surgery," by Dr. C. W. Rand, and "Plastic Surgery of the Female Bladder," by Dr. H. P. Newman, of San Diego.

At the election held last night in the Gamut Club, Dr. Charles L. Bennett of San Dimas was elected president, Dr. Edgerton Crispin of Los Angeles, first vice-president, Dr. L. E. Kinney of San Diego, second vice-president, and Dr. William Duffield of Los Angeles, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The meeting will end today after completing a program which provides for additional clinics during the morning, and for five lectures during the afternoon, followed by the address of President Walter V. Brem, and the reading of three papers in the evening.

ELINOR GLYN HERE.

SAYS SHE'LL PUT TRUTH ABOUT LOVE IN FILM STORY.

By Grace Kingsley.

"I stand for the truth and I always tell the truth. That's why my story 'Three Weeks,' which tells the truth about love, is selling now at the rate of $6,000 a year, after fifteen years."

She looks exactly as you'd think she would, does Elinor Glyn, author of "Three Weeks" and other famous stories. That is, she's small, lithe, brilliant, very modish in a perfectly tasteful way, rather artificial in appearance (to tell the truth ourselves) but infinitely colorful and magnetic.

She has an ivory skin, white teeth, green eyes that are brilliant rather than large, fine features, and a blazing, glorious mop of hair that would be auburnish brown if she'd let it, but she won't, so it's red.

She can speak brilliantly at a moment's notice on any subject under the sun, and is perfectly frank, but with a frankness polished and cutting, never sledge-hammery.

Mrs. Glyn arrived a day ahead of time due, she admitted laughingly, to the unexpected swiftness of American trains, so when I got to the Lasky studio yesterday, I found no weary, travel-stained person, but one trim and smart, and quite unwearied—except that it was her tea hour. So we had it together.

The famous lady is going to write a picture play, and in it she expects to have a rather startling message to deliver. Yes, of course. It will be a story of love.

Also she admitted she was in this country to find a new type of hero. That type will be an American business or professional man, over 40 years of age, she says.

"But I hope to make him as thrilling to my women readers as my heroes have been," she said. "And I must find a new type because all of the old types are dead—the English one, I mean, killed in the war. Do you know that so far as my own family is concerned, I haven't a single relative alive? All were killed in the war."

Mrs. Glyn took a wallop at American pictures, and at American literature as put forth in current fiction.

"I'm amazed that so intelligent a nation as you should stand for so much trash," she exclaimed.

Mrs. Glyn's latest book is called "The Philosophy of Love," and she says it's a book every girl should read if she expects to be married happily. Love has its own philosophy, and when it is understood, the flaws in social life known as divorces will disappear, she declared. She is to give readings of "The Philosophy of Love" for women some time in the near future.

Mrs. Glyn's two daughters are in England. Though you'd never guess that she could have children that old, both are over 20. The eldest one was engaged to be married to a captain in the English army, but he was killed during the war.

Asked whether she would write a book about picture people, she exclaimed in characteristic fashion: "If I find they are the sort of people who can stand to hear the truth."

Gladys George, Too!

Another bit of news sure to stir filmland is that Gladys George, who is one of the prettiest and most talented of the Lasky stars, is also going to be married. Miss George's fiance is Robert Russell, a youthful business man of this city. The young lady admitted yesterday that she expected the wedding to take place in the course of about three months.

Miss George appeared here in "The Better 'Ole," at the Mason, with De Wolf Hopper, last year. So pretty and talented she was that she was at once grabbed off by picture folk. She appeared in several Thomas H. Ince productions, and has lately signed up with Lasky.

Bernstein with Von Stroheim.

Isadore Bernstein, one of the heads of Universal City, has been assigned to the management of Eric Von Stroheim's productions. Mr. Bernstein is at Monterey at present with the director, who is making "Foolish Wives."

ST. DENIS DANCERS VISUALIZE MUSIC.

NOTED DANCER HERSELF APPEARS IN COLORFUL NUMBERS.

By Jeanne Redman.

Ruth St. Denis and her company of dancers attracted a crowd which overflowed Trinity Auditorium last evening for a performance of "Music Visualization," which is the title Miss St. Denis uses for her interpretative dances. She danced in solo, with Miss Ann Thompson at the piano, a generous number of her most exquisitely finished repertoire and furnished delight for her audience in a most clever burlesque of her past performances, which displayed a humor and a simplicity that won her especial warmth in response.

Her Chopin scherzo, in a costume of flaming veils; her dance to the music of Rudhyar, in gorgeous brocades of the Far East, and her "Nautch" dance from Cadman's "Minstrel of Kashmir," had, as usual with Miss St. Denis, perfection of finish and were strong in character; but by far her loveliest work was portraying the Chinese goddess of mercy, Kuan Yin, whose delicate motions were performed and repeated to the music of Satie.

The dances of the students of Miss St. Denis were many and charming—Doris Humphrey, extraordinarily lovely and lithe; Ruth Austin, a fanciful and individual dancer of much spirit; Claire Niles, whose expression are poignant and who won tremendous applause; Dorothea Bowen, Betty May and Katherine Hawley were all well received. Especially delightful was the little "Banjo" song given by Ellis Rhodes and danced by Misses Bowen and May.

Mr. Rhodes also sang a group of numbers in solo.

Accompanying the dancers was Everett Clive and the Knabe Ampico, with reproductions of Godowsky, Buhlig and Olga Steeb.

LIKE NEW ORCHESTRA.

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT.

The glow of a new inspiration dawned over the music-loving public of Los Angeles at the first concert of the season by the Philharmonic Orchestra yesterday afternoon at the Auditorium. The rich glow of an improved brass section, the varied tone coloring of the strings and woodwinds, blended in rich-hued patterns, shed a new luster on the achievements of Walter Henry Rothwell, conductor, and the management of the orchestra.

There is no question about the fact that the ensemble has been tremendously improved through the additions and changes made during the summer. These have made possible an increased freedom in the interpretations by the conductor and greater tonal volume, as well as a larger variety of expression. Los Angeles possesses not only one of the finest organizations in the country, but there are now few that might be named as its equal or its superior.

There is yet lacking a certain fine balance in the performances that comes only with a longer association of players. At times the brass had a tendency to override the other sections. There is still a roughness about some passages and perhaps, at times, an undue restraint, but it is convincingly apparent that by the end of the season the Philharmonic will take rank with the two or three greatest orchestras in the country.

The opening program was entirely given over to orchestral numbers. Two of these — the Gluck-Mottle Ballet Suite, with excerpts from "Don Juan," "Iphigenia in Aulis," "Orpheus" and "Armide," and Sowerby's "Comes Autumn Time," a program overture — were new here.

Sowerby's overture is so brilliant in texture and so full of the variegated natural tints associated with the season of fall in the East that it made an instant impression on the audience. It is pure tone painting, very vivid and sketchy with lots of what is known as atmosphere. It is an obvious effort to portray the mixed moods of sunshine, shadow and color, which belong to the season.

Gluck represents classic purity in the opera, and there is that about his line and form which is eminently suitable for orchestral transcription. The ballet suite is a series of crystalline episodes, limpid in their clearness, yet full of warmth.

Tschaikowsky's Symphony in E Minor is familiar here. Mr. Rothwell's interpretation was characterized with the force of authority, and it was evident that he allowed his men a wide sweep in the melodic outbursts, as is desirable. The fourth movement, with its frenzied and barbaric clamour, had an assailing dynamic power.

Wagner's Prelude to "The Mastersingers" was given with that understanding of the master's art which Mr. Rothwell has evinced on many occasions.

LINCOLN LADS DISPLAY GRIT.

Play Well Against Poly, but Weight Beats 'Em.

Solomon is Like Pestilence to the Losers.

Score Almost Tied in the Fourth Quarter.

Outweighed many pounds to the man, the tough little football crew from Lincoln High gave Polytechnic's huskies a regular run for their money at Washington Park yesterday, the Mechanics winning 21 to 14.

The light Rafsplitters couldn't dent the Poly line with any appreciable gains or circle the ends, so they resorted to the quaint art of gobbling up fumbles and running for touchdowns with rare skill and dexterity.

GRABS LEATHER.

On the first quarter, after Solomon had twice bucked the pill over for Polytechnic touchdowns, Baner grabbed the leather on the one-yard line and hoofed it down the field ninety-nine yards for a touchdown.

Then in the fourth period, when a Mechanic back fumbled on his own thirty-yard line, Full-back Thompson of the opposition speared the ball and rambled to the goal line. This happened after young Solomen, whom Lincoln discovered to be an extremely hard person to stop, had lugged the oval over for his third score of the day in the third quarter.

LIKE PESTILENCE.

Solomon was like the pestilence to Lincoln. Every time the blond-haired chunk lowered his head and crashed into the line, something had to give and it wasn't Solomon.

Tommy Davis's boys fought till their eyes were popping, and for a minutes in the fourth quarter it appeared likely that they would be successful in tying the score. They worked the ball to the Poly thirty-five-yard line by a series of successful forward passes, but the next pass went astray, falling into the hands of Stubbs, a substitute back, who ran to the Lincoln forty-yard line before being downed. The game ended soon after.

BEEF TELLS.

Poly's beefy tackles, Johnston and Houck, put up their usual good games for Poly, as did Cuddeback, as long as he was in the game. Rivitky, Mahan, Erhardt and Timmons. Anderson, a new man in the Poly backfield, did well at rounding the ends. For Lincoln the work of Thompson, Baner, Nason, Parra, Smuts, Doran and Sleigh was good. The line-up:

Polytechnic.		Lincoln.
Trefethen	L.E.R.	Mayo
Johnston	L.T.R.	Trustee's
Mahler	L.G.R.	Star
Erhardt	C.	Smith
Houck	R.G.L.	Bennett
Mahan	L.G.L.	Sleigh
Timmons	L.T.L.	Parra
Johnson	Q.B.	Nason
Cuddeback	L.H.R.	Baner
Anderson	R.H.L.	Doran
Lindley	F.B.	Thompson

Score by quarters:

Polytechnic	13	0	7	0—21
Lincoln	0	6	0	8—14

Touchdowns—Solomon, 2; Baner, Cuddeback, 2; Johnston, Thompson. Goals from touchdowns—Cuddeback, 2; Johnston, Thompson, 2.

Hugh Duffy is Named Leader of Boston Sox.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Hugh Duffy, former Boston National outfield star, was announced today as the new manager of the Red Sox, succeeding Ed Barrow, who resigned to become business manager of the New York Americans. The news of the appointment of Duffy, who was at one time manager of the White Sox and last season a director of the Toronto club of the International League, was given by President Frazee over the telephone from New York.

He broke into professional baseball as a member of the Fall River team of the New England League. In 1887 he was signed by "Pop" Anson as a member of the old Chicago club.

He joined the Boston Nationals in 1892, remaining with the team for nine years, the last five as captain. Since then he has been successively manager of teams in Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Providence and Chicago. In 1894 he was champion batsman of the country.

MEUSEL TO SLUG PILL FOR ALL-STARS.

A regular world series argument for the colored baseball championship of the world is to be played at the Alexander Giants' park, starting tomorrow, between the Alexander Giants and the Lincoln Giants from New York.

The Alexander team claims all local records for championships and the Lincoln gang have grabbed off all titles in the East. The easterners live up to their name of being giants, each man on the squad weighing 176 pounds or better. Lundy, the short-stop, is the star of the nine, and is said to have no peer in the world in colored ranks. Hubbard will pitch for the locals, and Baugh, the Pomona High winder, will oppose him with "Fox" Mooney in reserve.

Jury to End Ball Inquiry Next Week.

Investigation by the county grand jury of charges that baseball players were paid to throw games of the 1919 series of the Pacific Coast League for the benefit of a group of gamblers will probably draw to a close next week. It was intimated yesterday at the District Attorney's office that on Monday, if additional information is obtained as the result of a special inquiry now under way, this will be presented to the grand jury.

It was stated that no information has been received regarding whether or not Gene Dale, former Salt Lake player, will appear before the grand jury. A deposition, relating his testimony, may have been taken and sent to the jury, it was stated. So far no such deposition has arrived.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Stafford, in charge of the investigation, was of the opinion that practically all important information has been presented to the inquisitorial body. It was intimated that the jury may make a report on Monday or Wednesday.

POMONA GRABS LEAGUE TITLE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POMONA, Nov. 5.—Pomona High School practically cinched the Citrus Belt Leage football championship by defeating Capt. Smith's Riverside High School pigskinners 21 to 0, on the local field this afternoon. The Cards have Redlands yet to play, but are expected to have an easy time as a result of today's game. Riverside beat Redlands 13 to 0.

Pomona had no trouble in downing the visitors, keeping the ball in Riverside territory the greater part of the game. The Pomona goal was never in danger. Both teams were heavily penalized and fumbles were numerous. Hunter outpunted Martin. The heavy Riverside line proved too slow for the fast Pomona backs, who went through center and skirted the ends for large gains. Both teams continually failed in their forward passing, although Pomona succeeded in scoring their second touchdown on a long twenty-five yard pass.

Blatz played a whale of a game at right end for Pomona today. Stone did great work in the first half while Wright, Keiser and Hunter also played to form. Cooper proved a barrier to the Riverside backs. Martin, Heiser and Thursby did the stellar work for the Green and Yellow.

The line-up:

Pomona.		Riverside.
Keiser	L.E.R.	Blatz
McPherson	L.G.R.	Robbie, Thursby
Burnham	L.T.R.	Ivis
Tuttle	C.	Cover
Cooper	R.G.L.	Newman
Phelps	R.T.L.	Michelsacher (C.)
Stone	R.E.L.	Olberg
Wright	Q.B.	Cho
Heiser	L.H.R.	Martin
Stone, Findley	R.H.L.	Mont, Heiser, Pope
Hunter (C.)	F.	Heiser, Pope

Score by quarters:

Pomona	14	0	7	0—21

CARD FROSH IN PRACTICE GAME.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 5.—Stanford freshmen are slated to meet the fast Fort Smiley eleven in a practice game to be held here tomorrow afternoon. Coach Duff Seay has been trying to eradicate the many faults which showed up in his team when the U.S.C. Babes overwhelmed it 25 to 6, last week.

The freshmen have plenty of good material and lots of fight, but they lack experience, and were completely bewildered by the finished plays of the Trojans. In the week remaining between the Fort Smiley-Stanford game tomorrow and the miniature big game of the season with the University of California freshmen, which is to be held on the Stanford turf on November 13 Coach Seay expects his men to have recovered from injuries received in the U.S.C. game, and to be able to give the California Babes a hard battle.

FAMOUS JOCKEY IS BARRED FROM TRACK.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Nov. 4.—Frank O'Neill of St. Louis, Mo., the leading jockey in France, was set down for an indefinite period today at the St. Cloud race track for having his mount left at the post. O'Neill, who had the leg up on Le Chatelet in the Royal Oaks Stakes, said the horse refused to break, although he put the whip and spurs to him.

O'Neill's winning mounts this season number 127. Guy Garner, another American jockey, is next to O'Neill with sixty-four victories. Last June, O'Neill won the Epsom derby in England with Spion Kop, having obtained special permission from the late William K. Vanderbilt, who had first call on his services, to accept the offer from Spion Kop's English owner, Maj. G. Loder.

COMPTON IS SLIPPED GOOSE EGGS BY VENICE

GUN SHOOT TOMORROW.

Enough shooters to stage a moving picture battle scene for most any director will wend their way to the Los Angeles Gun Club tomorrow to contend in the many trapshooting events to be put on by Fred H. Teeple. The program will be started off with the special fifty target handicap, followed in turn by the second round of twenty-five targets on the B.H. Dyas trophy. Following these events, miss and out and doubles target shooting will take place. Many handsome and useful trophies will be up for the winning shooters.

SIGN ARTICLES FOR BIG SCRAP.

Dempsey and Carpentier to Meet in Prize Ring.

Both Winner and Loser to Pull Down Fortune.

Bout to Come Off Between March and July, 1921.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier signed a contract here today to fight for the world's heavyweight championship for a $500,000 purse. The date and place of the contest is not specifically stated in the agreement, but in other respects the contract is complete and definite.

Dempsey is to receive $200,000 for defending the title. Carpentier, who holds the European heavyweight championship, will receive $200,000 as his share of the purse. Each fighter in addition is to hold 25 per cent of the moving-picture corporation stock, while the other 50 per cent goes to the three joint promoters, Tex Rickard, Charles Cochran and William A. Brady. The $500,000 purse is to be deposited with a bank or trust company, located near the scene of the battle, at least twenty-four hours previous to the contest and will be divided between the principals immediately after the termination of the fight.

TO POST FORFEIT.

Each pugilist, through his manager, must post a $50,000 forfeit on or before November 20, to be divided equally between his prospective opponent and the promoters who fails to keep his part of the contract. The promoters also proposed to deposit $100,000 on or before the same date, to be divided equally between the pugilists, should the promoters fail to carry out their part of the contract.

The promoters agree to notify the principals not later than January 1 in case the fight is to be held during the month of March, 1921. If it is decided to stage the bout between May 29 and July 4, Dempsey and Carpentier are to be notified not later than March 1. The contract also calls for a contest ranging from ten to fifteen rounds, to be held at a place to be selected later, either in the United States, Canada, Mexico or Cuba. Numerous minor conditions hinge upon the rules governing boxing in the place finally selected. These include the weight of the gloves, referee, and judges, bandages and manner of awarding the verdict.

SUBMIT NAMES.

The parties to the contract submitted a list of six names from which it is proposed to select the referee and judges, with a proviso that in case the bout is held in a place where boxing is controlled by a State commission, the selection must be satisfactory to said commission. The names offered for the positions are Robert Edgren, William Brown and James J. Corbett of New York; J. J. Jeffries of Los Angeles; Otto Floto of Kansas City, and James Daugherty of Philadelphia.

TO BE ARBITER.

Edgren is also made sole arbiter of any disputes which may arise between any of the contracting parties, with final authority to decide and award any distribution of the forfeit money as provided in the contract. It is further stipulated that the ring shall be from eighteen to twenty-four feet square. A provision also is inserted giving the promoters a thirty-day extension from the date finally selected for the bout, in case the contest cannot take place at the site and time so selected, due to causes beyond the control of the promoters.

There was little formality in the signing of the contract, the terms of which have been generally known and agreed upon for some days. All the contracting parties gathered at an uptown hotel and in the presence of a large number of newspapermen, quickly signed the contract with which all were apparently thoroughly familiar. The actual affixing of signatures did not take more than five minutes, after which principals and promoters adjourned to the roof for the usual motion picture stand.

AIR OF MYSTERY.

While there is an apparent air of mystery and uncertainty surrounding the time and place of the battle, it generally is accepted that unless there is stern opposition from the New York State Boxing Commission, the bout will be held in a special open air arena to be erected within or very close to the city limits of New York. The date for such a contest will be between the middle of June and the Fourth of July. In case the bout cannot be held in New York State for any reason, it probably will be shifted to New Jersey, Cuba, Mexico and Canada are not being considered at present and will not be unless it is found impossible to have the fight in the United States.

The amount of the purse is so large that it is impossible to hold the bout during the winter or spring months in a permanent building or inclosure except at prohibitive prices. The motion picture operators also prefer daylight to artificial light.

In addition, both Dempsey and Carpentier are tentatively scheduled to box during the month of March. Carpentier, who sails for France tomorrow, is expected to engage in a contest in Monte Carlo. Dempsey has announced that he will box Jess Willard again on March 17. This accounts for the provision in the contract that in case either principal shall be defeated prior to their meeting, losing his title by knockout or referee's decision, the promoters shall have the right to terminate the contract within two days after such defeat, without, however, the loss of forfeit by any of the parties concerned.

LOTS OF QUAIL.

"Plenty of quail limits are being brought in by local hunters each week, despite the declarations of many on the poor quail season," said P. E. Peterson, Cline-Cline Company hunting authority, yesterday. "Why only a few days ago, splendid limits of mountain quail were bagged by Joe Welch and M. C. Nason. The latter got his birds at Elizabeth Lake. Valley quail limits were bagged this week by Les Hare and Joe Griffith."

Harvard and Princeton in Annual Clash.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Undefeated elevens will meet in a series of elimination games on several eastern football fields tomorrow. Results of these battles will go far toward deciding the mythical championship of the section.

Of outstanding interest will be the Harvard-Princeton fight at Cambridge, although the Cornell-Dartmouth, Nebraska-Pennsylvania State, Pittsburg-Pennsylvania, Georgetown-Navy and Yale-Brown games all have a direct bearing on titular claims.

WELL MATCHED.

The contest between Princeton and Harvard, the first of the triangular series of the so-called "big three," will apparently bring together two well matched elevens, although the strength of the combatting combinations does not lie along the same lines. The Crimson is expected to present a well drilled and developed football machine while the Tigers are reported to have a looser, but more brilliant individual attack and defense which is far from being invulnerable.

The Dartmouth-Cornell clash offers a more complicated proposition. Cornell, undefeated to date, comes to New York with a comparatively green team of unusual power which has been coached with the secretive safeguards for which Gil Dobie is noted. On paper, Dartmouth has the better team.

TO MEET PENN.

The University of Nebraska players, fresh from their victory over Rutgers on election day, will meet Penn State and return to face a much stronger combination than the New Brunswick team which they defeated 28 to 0.

Brown goes to New Haven to meet Yale with what appears to be an impressive team yet to taste defeat. In the six games to date the Providence eleven has run up double figures in every contest. Yale last week won from Colgate, 21 to 7, while two weeks previously Brown defeated the same combination 14 to 0.

The University of Pittsburg another undefeated aggregation, plays Pennsylvania and it would appear as though Glenn Warner's warriors are entirely too powerful for the Quakers.

Georgetown will invade Annapolis with its banners showing nothing but victories this season, and hopes to repeat last year's defeat of the Navy.

The leading games of the East tomorrow, with the scores where the same colleges met last year, follow:

Princeton at Harvard, 16-10 (tie.)
Dartmouth vs. Cornell, at New York, 9-0.
Brown at Yale, 0-14.
Pittsburg at Pennsylvania, 3-3 (tie.)
Nebraska at Penn State, did not meet.
Georgetown at Annapolis, 0-0.
Lafayette vs. Wash. & Jeff., did not meet.
Franklin and Marshall at Dickinson, 15-0.
Johns Hopkins at Haverford, 0-7.
Bucknell at Lafayette, did not meet.
Muhlenberg at Lehigh, 7-33.
Union at Rochester, 0-17.
Colgate at Rochester, 21-0.
Washington and Jefferson at Syracuse, 15-0.
Amherst at Williams, 0-13.
Hamilton at Williams, 0-13.
Washington and Lee at West Point, did not meet.
Swarthmore at Columbia, did not meet.

ART WOODS BEST BILLIARD SHARK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Arthur Woods of Minneapolis won first place in the national pocket billiards tournament preliminary games, the finals of which were played tonight when he defeated Walter Franklin of Kansas City, 125 to 100 in eighteen innings.

James Maturo of Denver went into a tie with W. D. Ricketts of Flint, Mich., for third place when he defeated the latter, 125 to 91 in sixteen innings. Maturo had an unfinished run of thirty-four.

The tie will be played off tomorrow night, the three victorious players meeting in finals for the championship next week. The final standings of the preliminary matches were as follows:

	Won.	Lost.
Woods	10	1
Franklin	9	2
Maturo	8	3
Ricketts	6	5
Rhines	5	6
Sanford	0	9

TIGER SCRUBS LOSE.

The Loyola College football team defeated the Occidental scrub team, 26 to 7 on the Loyola field yesterday afternoon. The game was a scramble from beginning to end, with the Tigers on the losing side of the scramble.

BULL MONTANA IS VICTOR.

Downs Gus Pappas After Hard Wrestling Bout, Winning Both Falls.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

Bull Montana swung it onto Gus Pappas last night at Jack Doyle's pavilion in their grappling hook-up. A pretty fair crowd of wrestling followers was on hand and thoroughly enjoyed the night's festivities. After securing the first fall, Montana feeling victory was within his grasp started in with much energy to grab the second in the shortest time possible.

He went after Pappas like a maddened Turk and soon had the newcomer in trouble. Gus, however, baffled Bull for about fourteen minutes. At the expiration of that time Montana secured a dangerous double arm hold and although Pappas tried everything he knew to break it, his waning strength failed him and his shoulders were again pressed to the mat.

WELD LIKE VISE.

The first fall went to Bull Montana in 1h. 8m. The men had been wrestling at a fast clip amid encouraging shouts from their adherents when the cinema grappler suddenly grabbed Pappas, dashed him to the floor and secured a terrific double armlock. Gus, who had evaded everything the local man could offer up to this time, was held in a vise-like grip. He struggled desperately to free himself, but without effect. Slowly and surely Montana pressed his man's shoulders to the mat with every one present on chairs shouting lustily.

This fall was characterized by much rough work and at times the men indulged in a quasi-fistic scrimmage. Montana was much the stronger and at no time was he in peril of being pinned to the canvas. Pappas was much the cleverer and made a hit with the crowd by his agility, but he often appeared to be puzzled when he had Bull under him and was at a loss for an effective hold. The fall was perfectly innocent of the dangerous scissors hold. Many toe holds were secured, but each man seemed to have little trouble in breaking them.

VERY PEPPERY.

Both preliminaries were full of peppery action. The first brought Eddie Welkinger and Bucky Burkhart together. The lads were pretty evenly matched and gave a fine demonstration of the grappling art. As neither man could gain a fall in twenty minutes, Referee Harry Swaboda called the bout a draw.

The second prelim found Sailor Bloomfield of the battleship Idaho and Sailor Shiboo of the Wyoming in fervid action. This bout was a humdinger from start to finish. Shiboo was too much for Bloomfield and after a thirteen-minutes cannonade he sank the Idaho with a jiu-jitsu wrist lock that would have pried open the Denton mystery.

During the melee the Idaho lost part of one of her turrets in the form of a lobe from Bloomfield's left ear. This lobe fell near the reporter's box and slipped under the canvas. It was to be marked as exhibit "A," but when the referee tried to find the evidence, it was discovered that a rat had swallowed it.

If the baby is old enough to carry, it's old enough to bring to the Saturday morning matinee of "Way Down East" at 11.—[Advertisement.

EXPECT WILD GRID BATTLE.

Washington State Out to Win from California.

Stanford Has Tough Job With Washington Team.

Oregon Outfits Take a Rest from Struggles.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Two Pacific Coast conference football games tomorrow—Stanford University against the University of Washington and the University of California against Washington State College—will have an important bearing on the Far Western title race.

San Francisco observers believe that unless predictions are upset the conference championship virtually will be decided by the Washington State-California game, for the California eleven, conceded to be the strongest in the south, will be meeting what reports from Washington say is the best team in the Pacific Northwest. California veterans are claiming that the team is the best that has represented the Berkeley school since a renowned champion team of 1899. Tomorrow's game will be played at Berkeley.

IS IN LEAD.

Stanford goes into the Washington game at Seattle tomorrow, leading the northern team in the conference race, as a result of the unexpected Cardinal victory over the University of Oregon last Saturday. Washington two weeks ago lost its first conference game to the Oregon Agricultural College.

The two other members of the conference, the University of Oregon and the Oregon Aggies, do not play tomorrow. In the south the University of Southern California team also will be idle.

At Reno the University of Nevada plays the Utah Agricultural College and at Walla Walla, Wash., Whitman College meets the University of Montana, whose record of victories was broken by Washington State last year.

California's freshmen tomorrow play the University of Southern California first-year men at Los Angeles. As the University of California babies defeated the Stanford freshmen last Saturday, the game will give prophets something upon which to base their score predictions for the Stanford-California freshmen game next Saturday.

TEN GOOD BOUTS AT U.C. SMOKER.

Ten good boxing matches were staged at the University of California (southern branch) smoker last night. The mitt slingers were students of Prof. Ben Einsig and all acquitted themselves with credit to their instructor. De Witt Van Court and Capt. Silas gave an exhibition before the bouts. Prof. Einsig refereed, and Dan Tobey did the announcing. Four paperweight newsboys were bright spots in the evening's pastiming, McCoy and Fitzpatrick and Lavirgra and Miller.

SHOTSMEN FAIL TO PICK HANDICAP SITE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—No site for the holding of the Grand American handicap was chosen at today's session of the American Trapshooting Association.

Only two cities—Chicago and Indianapolis—were mentioned as bidders for this contest. The matter went over until January 7, when another joint meeting of the association and the national amateur trapshooters' committee will be held in Chicago.

FRANKLIN IS TIED FOR CUE HONORS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Arthur Woods of Minneapolis today tied Walter Franklin of Kansas City, Mo., for first place in the national pocket billiard championship tournament by defeating James Maturo of Denver, after twenty-six innings, 125 to 107. Franklin beat Rhines 125 to 67.

FROSH SQUADS ON KEEN EDGE.

Rival Teams Are Ready for Grid Fracas Today.

Tiernan's Ineligibility Glooms U.S.C. Camp.

Oxy and Caltek Elevens Clash at Pasadena.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

Unless all signs fail the football fracas in the Bovard stockade between the freshman teams of the University of California and U.S.C. this afternoon ought to provide natives with a lot of thrills.

Each team started the season with a determination to massacre all opposition. Just how well they have succeeded may be gleaned by a perusal of the counts rolled up against various rivals. In six games the California frosh, coached by Dummy Wells, the bustling gentleman who gained considerable fame while fullbacking on the Bear varsity last year, have accumulated 172 points.

FALL SHORT.

The Trojan yearlings fall five points short of this total, but they participated in one game less. However, the locals have the bulge on their up-State rivals in that they have never had their goal blemished by the prints of foreign hoofs. U.C., on the other hand, has had two touchdowns and a field goal scored against her.

A bit of gloom permeated the U.S.C. camp last night when it was learned that Phil Tiernan, the sensational halfback, who played on the championship Long Beach High team last year, is ineligible to play today.

CANNOT PLAY.

This is according to the ruling of the Pacific Coast conference, which says that transfers from other schools cannot be played until they have been in residence for one semester. Tiernan matriculated at Santa Clara this fall, but later came south to U.S.C. He played in the game against the Stanford frosh last Saturday, so it hardly seems fair to bar him from the game with U.C. at the last minute.

As the University of California is not a member of Pacific Coast conference, so is not bound to abide by its rulings. Recently, however, the U.S.C. athletic council passed a rule that the Trojan teams are to be governed hereafter by the conference judgment, and this is presumed to apply to freshmen as well as varsity teams.

Without Tiernan Coach Herd will have to make a shift in the backfield, probably replacing the Long Beach boy with John Hawkins of Fullerton.

Coach Dummy Wells led his U.C. proteges into town yesterday morning and piloted them out to Moore Field, the home lot of the southern branch of the State university. Twenty-one men are in the party beside Wells and Manager Henry Blohm. The team held a light signal practice in the afternoon.

CONFERENCE GAMES.

The most important game in the Southern conference ranks will be that at Pasadena, between Occidental and the Caltekis. The dope makes the Crown City team about four touchdowns better than the Tigers, but there isn't one of the latter, who wouldn't bet a right eye that Tech won't run up any such score.

Oxy has never been beaten by Tech or Throop, the old name under which the Pasadenans used to operate, and the Orange and Black doesn't propose to have its colors trampled under foot today.

SHOWS BETTER.

Tech showed a big improvement in its game with Whittier last Saturday, and more may be apparent this afternoon on the Tournament Park turf. A former Yale and Annapolis coach has been working with the squad, according to Coach Tenison, and will continue to do so for the rest of the season.

Jeff Kemp, star halfback, is still out of the game with a badly twisted ankle, and Tom Rice, the guy who galloped for a touchdown in the game with Pomona College, will be out on account of a slight deficiency in his studies. The rest of the men are reported to be in good shape.

SAWING WOOD.

The Tigers have been sawing wood ever since the contest with U. S. C., and their supporters are predicting a lot of nice things for the team. The men from Eagle Rock are hot under the collar over their unexpected defeat by Whittier, but figure they can erase that stain on their escutcheon by bumping Caltek, which put Whittier away.

Pomona seems to have comparatively easy pickings with Whittier in Poet Town today. The Quakers will put a team on the field that is not sound, physically, and there are practically no first-class substitutes on hand to take the injured men's places.

In Covington and Voorhies, Pomona has two men that are terribly hard to stop once they get started in an open field. U. S. C. discovered this fact last Saturday, almost to their sorrow. Ray Wilson, who took Stover's half in the last quarter, is another fairy-footed bird who will bear a lot of watching, once he gets a chance to ramble with the ball. Suggett is Whittier's demon half. He created consternation in the Occidental ranks, and he may do a lot to make the Sagehens sit up and take notice.

Important Grid Games Are on for Today.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Whether western conference football history will repeat itself and bring the 1919 combatants in a return engagement to decide the 1920 championship may be determined tomorrow when Ohio State clashes with Michigan at Columbus and Illinois meets Chicago at Chicago.

Illinois and Ohio State, undefeated in the championship drive, must emerge victorious in order to meet with clean slates at Urbana two weeks hence. Tomorrow's game will be the last for Ohio before the contest with Illinois, while the Illinois team will meet Wisconsin at Madison a week from tomorrow.

The Michigan-Ohio contest tomorrow has the commanding interest, although the game between Chicago and Illinois, because of traditional rivalry, has aroused tremendous interest.

Manual Downs Pasadena by a 14-0 Score.

Manual Arts overcame Pasadena, 14 to 0, yesterday in a tight football game that was featured by Scott's sensational 90-yard dash for a touchdown in the second quarter. The Manual end intercepted a forward pass on his own 10-yard line, and cleated his way down the field without a Pasadena man getting a hand on him.

Pasadena fought stubbornly on its home grounds, and several times threatened to score. Horrell put up a slashing game for the Crown City eleven. The line-ups:

Pasadena.		Manual.
Inlow	L.E.R.	Scott
Orr	L.T.R.	Larson

Jefferson Team is Defeated by the Foothillers.

The Red Shirts from Hollywood meandered over to Jefferson High School and whitewashed Coach Cyril Tipton's bunch by a score of 19 to 6, yesterday.

Hollywood scored one touchdown on straight football, and scored two more by blocking punts. The line-up:

BUCK WEAVER GIVES BIG BOND SECURITY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 5. — George (Buck) Weaver, third baseman, and Fred McMullin, utility player of the White Sox, surrendered today and gave $10,000 bonds each to answer to indictments charging them with complicity in the conspiracy to throw the 1919 world series. They are the first of the thirteen ball players and gamblers indicted last week to appear here.

"The charges against us are a fabrication, and we can prove it," Weaver told newspaper men.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Investment Banker Tells of General Conditions; Local Review.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

Another well-known investment banker has returned from a tour of investigation to the financial hub of the universe. This time it is J. S. Riley of Drake, Riley & Thomas, who makes some interesting comparisons and marks a contrast between conditions as he found them this time and as they existed a year ago.

General economic readjustment, he says, is in a state of flux, and there is every evidence that this process of deflation will not cease until normal conditions have been reached; in fact, it may not stop in its downward trend until it has gone beyond the stage of equilibrium.

Industrial depression, according to this observer, is more noticeable in the East than here on the Pacific Coast. This he regards as natural as such waves usually develop first in the large Eastern centers and work westward.

Raw products first felt the effect of deflation. Then, in turn, the manufacturer, jobber and retailer experienced the reaction. Cancelation of orders is widespread resulting in apparent overproduction in many lines.

This is more apparent than real, however, as gradually on a readjusted basis the demand will absorb this existing supply. The tendency of the consumer at large, however, is to await a lowered schedule of prices and he is going to restrict his purchases until he feels that the products he desires and really needs have reached a level where, in his opinion, they intrinsically represent the prices asked.

Banks scrutinize loans closely and new credits are not easy to get, long-time loans being discouraged and prevailing interest rates for short-time borrowing being rather high.

The number of failures has shown a marked increase of late and this percentage is for the time being apt to increase rather than lower. One of the chief obstacles confronting many concerns seems to be an excessive supply of finished products on hand at high inventory values and not only is the tarrying of this stock from a credit standpoint embarrassing, but its liquidation will entail a loss which in many cases executives are reluctant to face and which insufficiently fortified concerns will be unable to undergo and maintain their solvency.

However, I do not look for a panic in the ordinary sense of the term, as the banks have the situation well in hand, and through the co-operation of the Federal reserve system should enable the process of liquidation and deflation gradually to take place.

Among security dealers throughout the East optimism seems to be the keynote of the period and predictions are freely made that we are in for one of the most active bond markets during the next few months that has been experienced in this country for years. Investors who have funds available at the present time will do well to take advantage of current interest rates while they are available, as it is highly improbable that a year or two from now the present opportunities will still exist. For the same reason it would appear to be sounder practice under existing conditions to invest in long-time bonds than in short-term notes.

IMPOSING STATISTICS.

The public service department of the Merchants' National Bank has inaugurated a review service which, in Los Angeles, at least, is unique. It completely summarizes the food cost, financial, industrial, savings, investment, oil, exports, imports, building, deeds, mortgages, incorporations and other lines of vital statistics, and establishes a basis for comparison that is most interesting. The computations follow:

LOS ANGELES STOCKS.

There was a good volume of trading, but prices were weaker. Oils reacted from the advancing trend of the past few days. Associated sold down to 113¾, but gained strength and closed at 114 1-4 bid. General Petroleum was off half a point from Thursday's sales, establishing a trading average at 143. Mascot, which usually moves more radically with the prevailing trend, lost five points 1000 shares going over at 1.98. Republic Petroleum was active around 32¼ cents. United dropped to 65 cents in the afternoon, after selling in the morning up to 67 cents.

The bulk of the trading was in oils, and mines did not offer much encouragement to those looking for quick action. Tom Reed maintained its position, but there was little movement. United Eastern sold off three points, and Gold Ore was lower, going to 4¼ cents.

Industrials were quiet, but most of the issues occupied a strong technical position. Edison gained two points and sales were recorded up to 88¼. Bonds as a whole were slightly weaker.

BUSINESS BRIEFS.

Gold imports for the year to October 20 totaled $270,330,479; exports, $278,251,443.

Average price of twenty industrials $4.45, off .54 per cent. Twenty rails $3.10, off .28 per cent.

Railroad financial needs may be less than have been anticipated.

Crude rubber reached a new low of 20 cents per pound. A big cut in prices and a fight among the rubber companies is predicted in New York.

Encouraging news from the new Louisiana properties of the Transcontinental Oil Company.

Standard Oil of Indiana has reduced prices on a few lubricating oils, 5 cents per gallon.

COMMERCIAL BULLETIN COMMENT ON WOOL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

"Business in the local market during the week has been quiet and prices have been rather irregular and weak, although the trade is feeling better over the outlook as a result of the Republican landslide with its guarantee of a tariff revision in favor of more protection.

"The goods market is still chaotic and the manufacturers are floundering around trying to find a working basis. Retailers are held to be the chief stumbling block to a resumption of normal business since they will not make cuts in prices, apparently waiting for the holiday trade to help them liquidate high-cost inventories."

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Movements of market leaders of the stock exchange today were again conflicting, many high-grade or investment rails responding to further accumulation, while industrials and specialties ranged, some of the latter recording lowest prices of the year.

Dealings once more were large and diversified, totaling 1,000,000 shares, but a considerable proportion of this total represented an extension of the short account and liquidation by discouraged holders of long stocks.

The usual restraints were imposed by the money market, call loans going at 7 per cent, but the usual 8 per cent was demanded at the close.

The more vulnerable issues in the market list comprised shippings, motors and their subsidiaries, oils, chemicals and the better known steels and equipments with a sprinkling of specialties and utilities. extreme reactions running from one to five points.

Leadership of the rails was assumed by Northern Pacific, other issues of the Hill group manifesting unusual activity with Atchison, St. Paul and the coalers, notably Reading and Chesapeake and Ohio. Gains of 1 to 3 points in these stocks were severely impaired and in some instances entirely lost in the abrupt closing break.

Acute weakness of foreign exchange lacked explanation other than that provided by adverse trade balances.

Bonds, including Liberty and international issues, were irregular on reduced dealings. Total sales (par value) $14,250,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Denton Murder Trial is to be Unique in Court History.

CALLS SPANISH WOMAN REALITY

Ford Says She's Likely to Rescue Mrs. Peete.

New Evidence Picks Flaws in Prosecution's Case.

Blood Stains Show More Than One Carried Corpse.

Mr. Wood will become a judge, he will be unable to continue as the attorney, and will have to turn the case over to the man appointed Public Defender to succeed him.

WOOD'S STATEMENT.

After a talk with Attorney Ford and a brief consultation with Mrs. Peete, Mr. Wood made the following statement:

"This morning Richard C. Peete came to me and asked me to represent his wife, Mrs. Louise L. Peete, charged with murder. He said he and she are without funds. Under the county charter, Mrs. Peete is entitled to be defended by this office, and I told Mr. Peete that I would see Mrs. Peete and would give her my answer. Later in the day I saw Mrs. Peete. We did not discuss the details of the case. Her statement to me that she is innocent of the crime and that she is unable to pay for an attorney was all that was necessary, and I assured her that she will be given the best legal defense possible. I was hoping to take the time left before my appearance as a judge to clear up many matters in this office, but under the circumstances I have no choice, and will see to it that Mrs. Peete is safeguarded in every right and has a chance to prove, as she asserts, that she is innocent. As for the merits of the case, I have not had time to look over the transcript or talk to Mrs. Peete in details. I will see her again, tomorrow or Monday. In the meantime you may state that Mrs. Peete will will be given the benefit of any expert testimony or any investigation that the case may require."

At the conclusion of his second conference with Public Defender Wood, Mr. Ford announced that he is able to say that there is a Spanish woman in the Denton case and expressed the belief that her identity may be established by the time the case goes to trial.

DEFENSE DATA.

Three other important discoveries by the defense were announced by Mr. Ford and related by him to Mr. Wood. The first is that Attorneys Ford and Van Nostran, on the occasion of their visit to the Denton house, discovered evidence of an attempt some time in the past to force open the door leading from the basement into the kitchen of the house. This, Mr. Ford pointed out, bears up Mrs. Peete's story that she asked James W. Crowhurst, the plumber, to board up the door leading into the basement because she feared burglars.

The second point considered important by Mr. Ford was the discovery that the piece of oilcloth which Mrs. Paul R. Aument is said to have identified as having come from the kitchen table, did not fit the table and could not have been the one seen by Mrs. Aument. This oilcloth, the prosecution learned, was found on the body in the death crypt, and was said to be covered with blood spots, bearing out the State's theory that Denton was shot by Mrs. Peete while sitting at the kitchen table.

The third point is the statement that blood spots were found by the defense on the wooden partition forming the outside of the north wall of the death crypt. This partition also forms the wall of the stairway leading from the kitchen to the basement. According to Mr. Ford these blood spots are at least four or five feet above the steps on which, according to the prosecution's theory, the body was dragged. The distance from the steps shows, Mr. Ford says, that the body was carried, head up, a task which Mrs. Peete could not have performed alone.

GREGORYS MAY COME.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DENVER, Nov. 5.—Whether Mrs. Ida L. Gregory and her daughter, Miss Maude, will go to Los Angeles as witnesses for the State in the Denton murder trial, depends entirely upon Dist.-Atty. Woolwine. Further advices from him are expected tonight or tomorrow.

Mrs. Gregory and her daughter are both perfectly willing to testify in the case, but Judge Lindsey wishes to leave Denver for a few weeks' rest and says that Mrs. Gregory cannot well be spared from her court duties at the time of the Los Angeles trial. He has written Dist.-Atty. Woolwine, putting the situation squarely up to the California official.

If Mr. Woolwine insists on their presence, Judge Lindsey will gladly recommend that they leave Denver as requested, on November 20.

"The most active imagination could not picture a woman as calm as Mrs. Peete when she received as being aware or in any way identified with a murder," Mrs. Gregory said. "If my oral testimony as to conditions as I found them when we accepted the invitation will help to clear up the situation I shall not object to returning to Los Angeles. The matter now rests with Judge Lindsey and Dist.-Atty. Woolwine. If we do go my daughter and myself will merely repeat what we have already said."

BANNING TO BE LAID AT REST TODAY.

Funeral Services Will be Conducted This Afternoon for Pioneer Developer.

Services for Joseph B. Banning, pioneer transportation and development man of Southern California, who died yesterday at his home, 945 South Westlake avenue, following a stroke of apoplexy last Sunday, will be conducted at 2 p.m. today at the family residence by Dr. Carl Patton, Mr. Banning's pastor for many years.

Mr. Banning was a son of Gen. Phineas Banning, who came to Los Angeles from Wilmington, Del., in the early days and founded the town of Wilmington at the harbor. Joseph Brent Banning was born in the home of the general at Wilmington in 1861.

Until a little more than a year ago, Mr. Banning was in active charge of Catalina Island, which he and his brothers, William Banning and Hancock Banning, owned. The trio sold out to the Wrigley interests at that time and Mr. Banning came to Los Angeles to live.

He leaves a widow, two sons and a daughter.

TO DISCUSS PARADE.

Service Men Asked to Confer With Col Mudgett Today.

For the purpose of arranging details of the great American Legion Armistice Day parade, Col. John J. Mudgett, who will have charge of the column, yesterday asked that representatives of the following organizations and groups meet him between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. today at 249 South Hill street.

Victory, Los Angeles and the Harbor posts, American Legion; Three Hundred Sixteenth Signal Battalion, Ninety-first Division, One Hundred Sixtieth Infantry, Fortieth Division, Fourth Division, Rainbow Division, air service, engineers, medical corps, ex-Navy service men, Veterans of Foreign Wars, groups from allied armies (French, Belgian, Italian, British.)

At noon Monday former First Division men will meet at the club rooms of Victory Post, 327½ South Hill street, to organize for participation in the parade.

PLAY FOR RIVERA WORK.

Child Welfare Organization to benefit from Farce this Evening.

Child welfare work at Rivera will be benefited by a theatrical performance to be given this evening at the Rivera Community Hall by the Marion Warde Players of Los Angeles, who will present the farce comedy "A Mistake in Flats." This evening's entertainment will also be marked by announcement of the winners of the baby contest held at Rivera on Friday of last week. Prizes will be awarded to the best and second best American and Mexican babies.

The Board of Trade, the Woman's Improvement Club, the Red Cross and the Woman Workers' Club all co-operate in the child welfare work at Rivera, which is carried on under the supervision of Dr. Margaret Parr of Los Angeles and Miss Lillian Simpson, who has charge of the work of health centers here.

WHISKY QUIZ IS DRY.

Grand Jury Neglects "Conspiracy" for Routine Booze Cases.

Yesterday's session of the Federal Grand jury was without a "kick," so far as the "whisky conspiracy" investigation is concerned. The session was given over to the investigation of a number of cases involving supposed violation of the Volstead Act, and to examination of the books of a company handling gasoline, which is suspected of violating the Lever Law.

Only one witness was examined yesterday by Special Agent Weisbach, who is sifting the testimony of persons who are supposed to know something about the illegal withdrawals of whisky from warehouses here. A local soft drink dealer may appear before the grand jury next week.

PRISON FOR AUTO DEAL.

Thomas J. Cole, convicted of defrauding W. F. Allen & Son out of an automobile valued at $2000 on September 11, last, was sentenced to San Quentin for from one to ten years yesterday by Judge Willis. A count charging the defendant with passing fictitious checks was dismissed on motion of Dep. Dist.-Atty. Powell.

SENTENCES TWO.

Edward J. Menning, alias Frank Miller, who has an unsavory police court record, was sentenced to three years in the Federal penitentiary at McNeil Island yesterday by U. S. District Judge Trippet, following his conviction on a charge of violating the Harrison narcotic law. His partner in a drug peddling conspiracy, Thomas Crawford, was given six months in the County Jail.
